Auction Sales This Day.

N. A. Hunt will sell at 10 o'clock, at store No. 212 King street, three doors south of Market, boots, shoes, &c.

Wm. McKay will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, dry and fancy goods. &c.

Now is the time to think about adver tising holiday goods, and reflection should be followed by judicious action.

PERSONAL .- Hon. J. K. Ryerson, M. P. P., of Nova Scotia, is at the Mills House. Grand Master W. K. Blake, A. F. M., of Spartanburg, arrived in the city yesterday, and is staying at the Pavilion Hotel. BALTIMORE STEAMERS .- Shippers by this line will see by the agent's advertisement that the Sea Gull will leave here on Friday, the 22d, instead of Saturday, and are requested to hurry up their shipments.

GOOD TIME.-The fine schooner Constitution, Captain Smith, reached this port from New Yo x, on Saturday last, after the excellent run of seventy-two hours. She is consigned to Messrs. Wm. Roach & Co.

AMUSEMENTS FOR CHRISTMAS WEEK .- See advertisements of Mrs. Moulton's concerts-a treat for the ladies-and of Dan Rice's great circus-a special Christmas treat for the little people.

DECISION OF SUPREME COURT, DECEMBER 15 .- R. J. Donaldson, as receiver of the Bank of Camden, as plaintiff, vs. W. E. Johnston, W. D. McDowell, defendants: Ordered, That motion be dismissed, and the judgment of the Circuit Court be affirmed per curiam.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT .- We regret to learn that Charile O'Connor, son of the Hon. M. P. O'Connor, was badly cut in the leg on Saturday by the explosion of a toy cannon. The wound is not at all dangerous, and at last accounts the patient, who is a bright boy of great promise, was progressing very favorably.

QUARANTINE REMOVED .--- Owing to the abatement of the small-pox at New York and Philadelphia, all restrictions imposed upon vessels arriving here from those ports have been removed. The attention of pllots and captains of steamers is invited to the notice of the health officer in another column.

LEFT WITHOUT NOTICE .- Saturday morning. a colored servant girl named Annie Cohen, employed on the premises of Mr. Stewart, in Rodgers alley, entered the house at an early hour, and, instead of attending to her usual work, collected all the dry goods she could find and walked off, leaving the family asleep. She was arrested yesterday afternoon by the detectives, and most of the stolen property was found in her possession. She is held for exam'nation.

CRUMBS .- The Charleston Hotel has opened a new register, which promises to be filled up more ra, idly even than the last.

The crowd of men and vehicles collected or the Battery, yesterday evening, at the foot of Water strect, were awaiting the arrival of the Dictator. The drivers find this a convenient point to watch for her first appearance.

Augusta enjoyed "the first snow of the sea" son" on Friday morning.

A TRIFLING INCONSISTENCY .- About eleven o'clock on Saturday night a young man of decent appearance entered the store of Mr. Wetherhorn, in the upper part of King street, and asked to see some coats. Having selected one he agreed to purchase it, and asked for change for a large bill. The pro-

SUDDEN DEATH .- A gentleman named Ritchle, a citizen of Philadelphia, while on his way South, caught a severe cold, which made it necessary to remain in Charleston for a week, instead of pursuing his journey at once. On Saturday last Mr. Ritchie felt well enough to resume his travels, and went over to the Savannah and Charleston Railroad depot to take the train. Just before the train started, he had a severe hemorrhage, and his physicians were sent for. After some persuasion, he consented to return to the city, and was put aboard the ferry boat. Before, however, the boat reached the Charleston side of the river, Mr. Ritchie expired. CLUBS AND STARS .- Betty Hicks, lodged for being drunk and trespassing on the premises No. 69 George street, was sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar or spend five days in the House of Correction. The case of the child who was run over at the corner of King and George streets, by a cart loaded w, 1 wood on the day previous, was continued until this morning.

Two offenders, whom the imbibing of alcohol had incapacitated from taking care of themselves, were lodged in the Guardhouse, and one fined the usual one dollar. The other was discharged. Susan Perry, the colored woman reported for having her chimney on fire at her residence, No. 142 Coming street, was fined two dollars by the Mayor. Saturday morning, about eleven o'clock, two colored youths, named Jerry Gray and Thomas Bryan, quarrelled at the corner of Meeting and Hasel streets, and were having a most interesting discussion with their fists when Clubs and Stars intervened. The delinquents were taken to the Guardhouse, where they will interview the Mayor this morning. BUSINESS NOTICES.

WILSON'S CASED LIQUORS .- Having long seen the necessity of placing a pure and unadulterated stimulant before the public for medicinal purposes, we have determined to pack the following favorite brands of liquor in cases consisting of one bottle each of Pinet, Castillon & Co.'s Bran ly. Private Stock Port. "Pale Family" Sherry, "Old Velvet" Bourbon, Jamaica Rum, "Cabinet" Gin, Loch Katrine (Scot.) Whiskey, which we sell at ten ($10) dollars per case. To our friends we will say that we guarantee the purity of the above. They are endorsed by our leading physicians, and are, without any doubt, frst-class goods.

THE LATE BISHOP DAVIS.

The standing committee of the diocese record, with unfeigned sorrow, the death of the Right Rev. Thomas F. Davis, the beloved bishop of the diocese, who died on the 2d of December, in the sixty-eighth year of his age. In him we mourn the loss of a wise and venerated pastor of the church, a large-hearted Christian bishop, and father and friend of the Yet, in our grief, we recall with gratitude

We recall the end rate of this episcopate in the midst of many bodily infimities. We recall the entire harmony which has ex-isted between us in the confidential relations isted between us in the confidential relations which the standing committee bears to the bishop as his constitutional council of advice. We recall with equal satisfaction the blessed harmony which prevails in the diocese, result-ing, under God, chiefly from the wise, impar-tial and godly administration of his holy office during the eighteen years of his episcopate, and we will endeavor to cherish his memory by following Christ in truth and love, and in abundant labors for the Church of God, until we enter into His promised rest. From the minutes.

THE GREAT MASONIC CELEBRATION .- The ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple will take place on Wednesday, the 20th instant, and preparations are in progress which will insure its being a handsome and impressive spectacle. All of the subordinate lodges will participate in the affair, and for that purpose they will assemble in regalia, at Holmes's Lyceum, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of escorting the Grand Lodge. The lodges will form in line according to charter, and move in procession through King, Calhoun, Meeting and Queen streets, to the new temple, where the corner-stone will be laid. Several odes will be sung, and after the grand master has given his charge, an address will be delivered by General Joseph B. Kershaw, P. M., of Kershaw Lodge, No. 29. In conclusion, an ode will be sung and the benediction pronounced by the Rev. A. Toomer Porter, grand chaplain.
