FIRE.—A foul chimney on the premises No 48 Church street took fire at six o'clock yesterday morning and burnt for fifteen minutes without doing any damage. The case was reported to the Mayor, who referred the matter to the chimney contractor.

ERE AND MARINE INSURANCE.—We take pleasure in directing public attention to the statement, in another column, of the condition of the Phenix, the Andes and the International Insurance Companies, represented in Charleston by Mr. S. Y. Tupper.

APPOINTMENTS.—The following appointments have been made by Governor Scott: Thomas Owens, coroner; Laurens; John M. Cook, deputy surveyor; Barwell; John H. Little, sheriff; Laurens, vice B. S. Jones, resigned.

OUR "RAILROAD KING."—We find the following paragraph floating around among our Northern exchanges: Colonel John J. Patterson, formerly of Juniata County, Pennsylvania, is the "railroad king" of South Carolina.

ART SALE.—The auction sale yesterday by Leitch & Bruns, at No. 52 Broad street, of Parian vases, statuettes, bronzes, fancy clocks, and other articles of vertu, drew a lively crowd of admirers, and the bidding was quite spirited. Some of the choicest lots, however, are still unsold, and will be closed out to-morrow under the red flag and the remorseless hammer. A rare chance to secure splendid mantle ornaments at a sacrifice.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.—STORMY PASSAGE OF THE STEAMSHIP VIRGINIA. This staunch iron steamship arrived at an early hour yesterday, after a stormy voyage. Captain Hinckley reports having experienced very severe weather off Hatteras, and was delayed in consequence twenty-four hours. The Virginia will not sail until Friday at ten o'clock, and Boston freight as well as Philadelphia shipments will have dispatch.

TWO-FORTY ON THE PLANK ROAD.—Monday evening, a little after seven o'clock, two fast teams collided on the plank road on King street, between John and Hudson, and one of the shafts belonging to a light buggy was demolished. A small tonnage-skirmish took place between the respective occupants, which ended in one of the parties reporting the other at the Upper Guardhouse. The case came up before the Mayor yesterday morning, but was dismissed to be settled between the parties themselves.

A FEARFUL DEATH.—Miss Jane Cameron, a highly esteemed lady of Greenville, was accidentally burned to death on Thursday afternoon last. It is supposed that she faintly whilst sitting before the fire, and met her sad fate before assistance could be rendered. She was, for many years, a teacher, and as such was considered a faithful and competent one, and had endeavored herself to many whom she trained in early life, and who now occupy responsible positions in society. She was well known in Charleston, where she had many friends.

THE UNITED STATES COURT was closed yesterday, it having been adjourned over on Monday until the morning. The following orders have not been mentioned. The final hearing on the petition of James D. Kirkpatrick, bankrupt, for a final discharge, was ordered for the 21st of February, due notice to be given to the creditors. M. B. Johnson vs. James C. Furman, administrator of T. F. Furman—debtor on bond for slaves; before receiving the money in this case, the plaintiff was required to give bonds for double the amount of the judgment, to return the same should the United States Supreme Court decide that these bonds cannot be collected.

THE MUTINY INVESTIGATED.—John Hannan and John McQuinn, seamen, were brought before Commissioner Porteous yesterday morning and examined on the charge of mutiny on board of the ship Martha Bowker, now lying in the stream. The evidence showed that the two prisoners were the ringleaders in a widely-spread insubordination among the crew of the ship, who had threatened and at length openly attempted the lives of the officers. One of them had thrown a hatchet at the mate and cut him badly. The prisoners were committed to jail to await their trial before the Circuit Court at the April term.

CLUBS AND STARS.—Newell Lurby, arrested for being intoxicated and assaulting Julia Pinekey with a knife in a house in Elliott street, was turned over to Trial Justice Magrath. The examination took place yesterday afternoon, when the prisoner was sent to jail to await his trial for the charge of assault and battery and assault with intent to kill. The woman was not badly cut. A white man for being drunk and unable to take care of himself, at the corner of East Bay and Queen street, was fined one dollar.

James Cross, a youth of color, was arrested last evening in the act of appropriating some bacon belonging to Mr. Ostendorf, at the corner of Manly and Beaufort streets. The prisoner was turned over to a policeman and lodged in the Guardhouse.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—The following valuable real estate was sold yesterday morning at public auction: By Lowndes & Grimbald: The tract on Combahee River containing two thousand one hundred and seventy-five acres, and comprising the rice plantations "Pleasant Hill" and "Boes Hill" and "Rugersons," for $18,000.

By Leitch & Bruns: The plantations "Mill Dam" and "Newland," on North Santee, and adjoining the lands of T. S. Horry, and containing nine hundred and ninety acres, for $4000. Lot, with buildings, on the west side of Pitt street, sixty feet in front by two hundred and twelve feet deep, for $6100.

Terms of the above sales, one-third cash, and the balance in one and two years.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Theatrical Thomas Crebbs. The young pianist, Miss Marie Krebs, who is a brilliant attraction wherever she performs, is amative, we believe, of Hamburg. Her parents were musicians of note, and to completing the artistic education of their only child they devoted a great part of their life. Miss Krebs studied chiefly in Dresden, and when she appeared in London, some years ago, she at once commanded a long and successful engagement. Of the peculiar graces of her style, or of the charm of her manner, we do not speak. A Charleston audience to-morrow night will judge for themselves.

Among the numbers in the programme for the first concert are: Wagner's famous overture in Tanhauser, the adagio from Beethoven's Prometheus, a polonaise by Weber, the scherzo and march from Midsummer Night's Dream, a tarantella by Liszt, (played by Miss Crebbs), a valse and a polka mazurka by Strauss, and the overture to Guillaume Tell and Ambrose Thomas's Mignon. A more attractive programme could hardly be formed.

Humpty Dumpty. The Templeton Troupe drew another good house at the Academy last evening, when the indescribable burlesque and pantomime of Humpty-Dumpty was brought out. The vocal portion of the burlesque was varied by several popular hits, which elicited the rapturous applause of the audience. The pantomime went off as usual, the main feature being the first appearance of Miss Jos-phine, whose good looks wrought more in her favor than her acting. The Leon Brothers made their celebrated leap at the beginning of the performance, and went through a series of gymnastic feats at a dizzy height, which threatened to be a source of profit to the coroner. The performance is to be repeated this evening.

A CHANCE FOR THE CHILDREN! It is a long time since the Academy has been filled with the joyous faces of a delighted throng of children. This afternoon, however, Humpty Dumpty will be given at a matinee, with prices suitable for "the whole family." The pantomime is just the thing to please the little ones, and it is only necessary that they should go early so as to get good places.

THE COLD SNAP.—The sudden change in the temperature, beginning on Monday, has been something very unusual for Charleston. On Sunday afternoon the thermometer stood at 57, and the following morning at eight o'clock the quicksilver pointed to 30, indicating a fall of 27 degrees in about twenty hours. The cold has since been steadily increasing, and without the feeble aid of a strong wind. The mercury stood yesterday morning at 27, rising to 37 during the day, and then steadily falling, until at the hour of writing it shows that everything is freezing.

ANOTHER FIRE AT FLORENCE.—Our attentive correspondent "Preslie" writes: "The residence of Major James F. Pawley, at Florence, was destroyed by fire on Monday night just after dark. This burning seems to have been accidental. A fire had been left burning in the second story, from which the building caught; and while all the inmates of the house were quietly seated down stairs, the flames had so far gotten possession of the second story before being discovered that all that could be done was to try to save some of the furniture of the first floor. The fire spread so rapidly that only a small portion of the furniture, clothing, plate, &c., were saved. The severest loss to Mr. Pawley was a drawer of valuable papers. There was no insurance. I learn that, including the valuable papers, twenty thousand dollars would not cover Major Pawley's loss. He and his family have the sympathy of the community, which we hope to see expressed in aid of them."

"The colored man shot at the late fire, who was thought mortally wounded, I am glad to learn is recovering. I also learn that he avers the shooting was unintentional."

EXPLOSION OF A LOCOMOTIVE.—About twelve o'clock yesterday the boiler of an engine on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad exploded in Salkentatche swamp, fortunately without occasioning any loss of life. The engine was pulling the passenger train which left this city in the morning, and had just passed the passenger train from Savannah a few hundred yards on the turn-out when the explosion took place, with the train under way. It was heard by the officers on board of the Savannah train, who immediately backed up to ascertain what was wrong. The whole boiler was ripped open by the force of the steam, and the engine was completely disabled. The engineer, Robert Leak, and the fireman, Lawrence Raymond, both white, were the only persons injured. They were not decidedly, but were painfully cut in the face and neck by the fragments of glass thrown from the windows of the engine-room by the shock. Their injuries, however, are not of a serious nature. All the other persons on the train escaped unhurt and no damage was done except to the engine. The conductor telegraphed to this city for another engine, which was duly sent, and it is hoped that the train proceeded in safety to Savannah.

DIVIDING THE SPOILS.—A LOVELY ROW.—On Saturday last the county treasurer reported to the county commissioners, as by law he is required to do, that he had $20,000 in the treasury subject to their disposition. Whereupon, as THE NEWS has been informed by a prominent county official, the commissioners first religiously made out their own accounts, and drew what they estimated was due to them to the utmost farthing. Their wives and other relatives in county offices were then also paid up in full, not to mention a check for $700 to C. C. Bowen, for services the nature of which is not stated. Their political friends next received the lion's share of their demands, while their political opponents got a sop, which would not have delayed Cerberus for the infernal ululations. Sheriff Mackey received one-quarter, or a trifle over, of what was claimed by him, and Coroner Tatt received about one-seventh. The former immediately instituted suit for his balance, when the county commissioners came down and offered him $7500, instead of $5000, their first offer. This he refused, and the county treasury was immediately enjoined, as stated in yesterday's News. Coroner Tatt has also instituted suit against the county for the $3500 due him. It is a very pretty quarrel as it stands.
