Typographical Society, at half-past 7 P. M. Buist Chapter, No. 1, at half-past 7 P. M. Board of Examiners of Charleston County, at 9 A. M.

POSTPONED. -The commencement exercises of the Chrestomathic Society, which were to have taken place last evening at the College Chapel, were postponed on account of the horrible weather until the same hour next Tuesday evening.

THE RURAL CAROLINIAN .- The March number of this useful publication is out, brimming over, as usual, with practical hints and valuable information for our farmers and planters. The opening article is on "The Value and Improvement of Piney-Woods Lands."

FIGHT ON 'CHANGE,-A little before twelve M. yesterday, Abram Stuart and Joseph Lord, two colored boys, became engaged in a fisticuff at the corner of East Bay and Broad streets. Stuart found himself worsted, and, with bloody intent, drew a large table-knife upon his opponent. The crowd attracted Class and Stars to the scene, and the combatants were both taken to the Guardhouse.

CLUBS AND STARS .- The Mayor's Court had but little to do yesterday morning. At the Lower Guardhouse, there was not a case on hand, and the docket from up-town was soon disposed of by fining one or two contractors whose manner of carting away garbage was not as cleanly as it might have been. Offences against the ordinances and the peace of the city are now like angel's visits, few and far BARREL-BOLLING .- Charles Robinson, a colored youth, was arrested yesterday morning while rapidly trundling a barrel down Market street, not for making a disturbance, but bewhiskey, was the property of another. It had been rolled off, as many others had been, from the store of Mr. C. G. Tolley, No. 73 Market street, and the owner had watched the simple manœuvre of Charles with some Interest. The prisoner was lodged in the Guardhouse.

THE FAIR SCRAPE. - Peter Ancrum, the colored youth who was arrested while making his exit in very questionable style from a window of the Military Hall with a bag full of plunder, was examined yesterday before Trial Justice Lovett. Peter established his good character, and claimed that the affair was the result of his unfortunate situation. The value of the articles appropriated by him having been paid in full by his employer, the prisoner was discharged to the satisfaction of all intercased.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The miserable weather had its due effect upon the theatregoing public last evening, and reduced the audience at the Academy to an anatomy. Like Barnum's, however, it was a living one, and the "Three Hunchbacks" was received with storms of laughter and applause. This afternoon at two o'clock the popular Abbott Troupe will give a grand matinee for the benefit of the young people, and this evening the novel and favorite pantomime of "Hickory! Dickory! Dock!" will be presented.

THE "MEAN" WEATHER. -We received yesterday, from Observer-Sergeant Evans, the report of the mean barometer and thermome ter, the velocity of the wind and the amount of rainfall for the month of February, as registered at the signal post in this city. The mean barometer during the month was 29.99. The highest daily mean was on the 1st, when it stood at 30.33, and the lowest on the 17th, at 29.79. The mean daily thermometer was highest on the 6th, when it pointed to 63 deg., and lowest on the 1st and 31 at 37 deg., the mean for the month being 48 deg. 5'. The heaviest rainfall during the month was on the 2d, being 1.42, and the total reached 5.13 inches. The wind during the twenty-nine days travelled 5390 miles, and was generally from the northwest.

A CHA'N OF EVIDENCE. Thursday night two small colored boys, named Alfred Flynn and Paul Ray, offered for sale to Mr. J. Meyer. jeweller, on King street, a handsome gold chain for the sum of five dollars. An inspection of the chain roused the suspicions of the jeweller, who, after questioning the boys, detained and reported them at the upper Guardhouse. They were here examined, and Flynn states that he had bought the chain from two other colored boys, named Edward Ray and George Lartigue, for the insignificant consideration of fifteen cents . The two last mentioned parties were sent after, and having been brought to the Guardhouse under arrest, were confronted with Flynn and his story. They saw all was known, and confessed that Fiynn had spoken the truth. They also acknowledged that they had stole the chain some time ago from the store of Messrs. Whilden & Co., No. 235 King street. The chain thus recovered was supposed to be worth about twenty dollars. The four culprits were brought before the Mayor yesterday morning, and there being no desire to prosecute them, Edward Ray, Lartigue and Flynn were sent to the House of Correction for thirty days under the vagrant law. Paul Ray being a mere tool in the hands of the others, was dismissed with a reprimand.

HOLY COMMUNION.

Impressions of a Visitors.

We find the following communication in the New York Church Journal:

To the Editor of the Church Journal : Knowing your readiness to publish any information tending to show what the church is doing at home and abroad, I will communicate briefly something which I have learned from personal observation in regard to a most interesting branch of her work in Charleston. I alludg to the Ornhanger and Home School for boys founded by Rev. A. Toomer Porter, rector of the Church of the Holy Communion.

for boys founded by Rev. A. Tollier Folter, rector of the Church of the Holy Communion, and now maintained under his supervision in connection with that parish.

Having passed a Sunday most delightfully with his beloved and faithful brother, I gladly accepted his invitation to visit the school on the following day. The buildings devoted to this purpose are immediately adjoining the church, and in there are assembled, day by day, over two hundred boys who are receiving, under competent instructors, a thorough, practical, and above all a truly Christian education. Out of the whole number of boys who are here being trained, about ninety are also maintained at the institution, of whom forty are unable to pay anything toward their own support, and the residue pay severally according to their ability, from one dollar to twenty dollars per month, the latter sum being the minimum required for the support of each boy. But I was informed that very few of them were able to pay the full amount. And yet boy. But I was informed that very lew of them were able to pay the full amount. And yet those who are thus maintained and educated are the sons of men whose fortunes, only a few years ago, could have been counted by mil-lions. It is unaccessary to say more in order to convince any one how grievous has been the ruin which has been wrought in this portion of our beloved land. In view of this, the magnitude of the work which Mr. Porter has here undertaken strikes one very forcibly, has here undertaken strikes one very lorculy, and especially in view of the actual dearth of means at home with which to carry it on. But as he himself says, it was a work which was imperatively demanded in order to prevent the waste and ruifi of all this young fresh life, on which the future welfare of the State must largely depend. And so this devoted servant of Christundertook it in faith, believing it to be, as indeed it is, God's own work, and trusting that He would move the hearts of Christian people elsewhere to furnish the means to carry it on.

The principal of the school is a son of the Rev. Philip Gadsden, lately deceased, who was for many years a most able and esteemed presbyter in this diocese. He is assisted in the various departments by several male and temale teachers, all of whom seem animated with a spirit of like earnest devotion, a devotion to the good cause in which they are engaged. One of them, a gentleman from Albany, N. Y., said he had never known a set of boys on whose perfect truthfulness he could rely so implicitly as those now under his charge. Surely this spoke volumes for the high tone of character which the parents of these boys, once abounding in wealth, but now reduced to poverry, have been able to impart as an only glift to their children.

In company with the rector I went through all the departments of the school, and had an opportunity of seeing how thoroughly the boys are instructed in all the branches of a sound, classical and practical education. The dormitories and dining hall and other home arrangements of the school are under the imtemale teachers, all of whom seem animated dormtones and dining has about the inde-arrangements of the school are under the im-mediate charge of a refined Christian lady, the daughter of a former wealthy planter, who seems, like all her associales, to have devoted herself most heartly to the good work in herself most heartily to the good work in which she is engaged.

But without going any further into details, is there not enough in the above statement of facts to interest all whose hearts are open to the claims which the church is making upon us for the various portions of her one common work? How can it be otherwise? These two hands how since the pengletic product of the product of the product of the pengletic product pr hundred boys who are thus being trained for inture usefulness are the sons of our own brethren—"bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh." And though born in many instances flesh." And though born in many instances to affluence, they are now, through the mutations of life, aimost wholly dependent on others for their education and support. Can any appeal come nearer home than this? And shall not the zealous minister of Christ, who has thus far struggled on with his good work against so many difficulties, shall he not bechered by the supply of means to increase its sefulness far beyond his utmost expectations?

Applications are pressing upon him from all quarters, and he has not the heart to reject them. But he must have increased means in hem. But he must have increased means it order that the school may be enabled to mee the demands which are made upon it. eminently a work of the chur i in the interest of a reunited nation, and should re-ceive the hearty support of all these who know neither sect nor party in the one, neither North nor South in the other, but who ove the one Hely Apostolic Church, and claim to be citizens of one common country. C.

CAUGHT FOR ONCE .- "Pleasant weather, with northwesterly winds, will prevail on Friday from the Ohio Valley to the South Atlantic coast," said Old Probabilities in his telegram on Thursday night. The luckless people who had to be out yesterday morning and evening. will all agree that this prediction was not verified. The day was wet and disagreeable, and In the evening it stormed and rained and blew in the wildest manner. It is hoped that the venerable meteorologist will do better to-day, although he does not promise what might be taken as fine weather for a picnic.

COUNTESS VON -N. B. These are our "Excelsior Congress." the finest Shoes made, and sold at only $3 a pair No lady should be without them. Sold elsewhere from $4 to $5.

ROKCK MILLS, S. C., December 9, 1871.

W. C. CHAPMAN & CO.: GENTS—I congratulate you on being proprietors of the only SHOE HOUSE in Charleston (The Star) owned and conducted by Charlestonians. My older was filled to my entire satisfaction, and all the Shoes fit beautifully. Your low prices astounded me. They are at least 20 per cent. below what I have been giving other dealers in your city. I assure you your selections pleased me better than if I had been os hand to purchase individually. Persevere, and I only hope many more of our young men will follow your example and energy, and once again make old Charleston presper as in onc) again make old Charleston prosper days of yore. GEN'L E. M. P.**
