The Charleston News.

THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1872.

Mr. WILLIAM E. SIMMONS, Jr., is the travelling agent for THE NEWS, for South Carolina.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Gold closed yesterday at 10 alog. -Cotton closed firm in New York; uplands 23 cents; sales 15,000 bales. -The Liverpool cotton market closed strong; uplands llallid; Orleans llid; sales -The new fashionable color for evening gloves is called Incarnadine. It is a very light flesh color. -Two of the feremost leaders of the beau monde in Paris recently appeared at a fashionable ball without chignons. It is said an effort is being made in Paris to do away with these unnatural appendages. From Washington it is reported that Judge Davis is in constant communication with the Labor Reformers and is mapping out the canvass to suit himself. The statement that Governor Parker will withdraw from the ticket is pronounced incorrect.

-The New York health report for the week ending on the 23d is quite as unfavorable as that of its predecessor. Whole number of deaths 685, an increase of 64. This marked increase is undoubtedly reterable to smallpox, of which there were 112 cases and 30 deaths, an increase in the former of 32 and of In the latter 13.

- ban-A Belgian journal announces that during the sojourn of Comte de Chambord at Antwerp a letter came to him through the postoffice, postmarked "Versallles," and addressed "To his Majesty the King of France, Hotel St. Antoine, at Antwerp." What is curious about this is, that the postmaster at Versailles should have failed to alter this absurd address, which was on its face an insult to the French Republic.

-A large fire occurred in Valdosta, Georgia, on Tuesday, destroying several business houses. Willis Alien lost two thousand dollars' worth of property-no insurance. M. Nelson lost two thousand dollars-no insurance. The losses of S. A. Smith, Jr., will foot up three thousand dollars-no insurance. The goods of Mr. S. D. Love were damaged in removing them from his store to the amount of one thousand dollars—insured. The losses of Dr. Slaten are about one thousand and five hundred dollars-partly insured. George W. Roberts lost eight hundred dollars-no insurance. The stock of J. B. Wither was damaged to the amount of three hundred dollars-insured. W. Joyce lost about one hundred dollars-insured. The losses of Henry Enrlich, R. Ehrlich and R. Thomas were very light. The fire seems to undoubtedly owe its origin | ceive their young men as favored pupils to incendiarism.

-The famous tunnel connecting the Middle- | them. sex and Surrey banks of the Thames in the two sections of London known as Wapping and treated. How do they show their apprecia-Botherhithe is to have its rival, if a bill now pending before the New York Legislature be passed, by a tunnel to connect the cities of New York and Brooklyn. The bill incorporates the New York and Brooklyn Submerged East River large enough to contain a carriageway, a footway, and a horse railway, for the movement of both passengers and freights. The rates of toll which the company is allowed to collect are certainly very moderate: One cent for foot passengers, three cents for cattle and horses, six cents for horse and light wagon, twelve cents for double wagons, eighteen cents for loaded carts and drays and twenty-four cents for loaded double wagons. It is provided that the grade of the approaches on each side shall not exceed five feet in the hundred, and provisio: is made by which the company may condemn and acquire the land necessary to the construction of said approaches. -Appearances indicate that the Dominion of Canada is about to be the scene of a general "strike" for a reduction of the hours of labor. No decided action has yet been taken, but there seems to be a general understand- and it is time that the Japanese should be ing that the "nine-hour movement" will be given to understand that as long as they bepressed to an issue before the first day of next have as incarnate devils at home, they need summer. The strike for nine hours is to be not expect to be greeted as angels of light made merely as a step toward a further re- when they choose to travel abroad. The duction to eight hours hereafter. In order to secure, or, it necessary, enforce their demands, an extensive and powerful organization has been formed by a combination of all the trade societies in the cities and towns of importance. It is understood that the intention is to give all employers formal notice of the desired reduction, and such other reforms of persecution continues. They know where as circumstances may require. This step their interest lies, and will either change is to be taken in a friendly and determined way, so as to raise no unnecessary obstacle to the amicable settlement of the whole question. But if the employers firmly refuse, a "grand strike" is expected. The employers are sensible of the gravity of the crisis, and have also formed a league in two or three cities to resist the workingmen's demands. They maintain that an increase of ten per cent, in wages-which is the financial phase of the nine-hour movement-would devour the whole or greater part of their profits; and consequently it would, in the majority of cases, be simply ruinous to make the concession. There is a strong likelihood that they will hold out to the last, and resort to desperate shifts before coming to terms. At any rate, an in-

Ophelia, and the public is satisfied-with Nilsson, and dissatisfied with the rest of the opera. Judging from the different criticismswhich are unusually concurrent-Tnomas's Hamlet is by no means a great work, and not obvious one, namely, the difficulty of interpreting the idea of that most exalted genius, Shakespeare. Many there be who can appre-

them to music? Echo answers, "M. Thomas." But he could not but fail where Meyerbeer dared not make an attempt to succeed, and where even Mendelssohn got beyond his depth. The libretto is, of course, atrocious, and the situations monstrous. Hamlet (shade of the departed poet !) has a drinking song in place of the advice to the players; and both he and the Ghost have endless and somniferous recitatives of a dreary and exasperating character. The one redeeming feature of the opera is Nilsson, and the one striking scene the last one, where Ophelia weaves garlands and distributes rosemary, and then floats down among the rushes to her death. The audience was very large, and Mile. Nilsson was greeted with even an exceptional enthusiasm, enormous quantities of flowers were showered at her feet, and among the tributes was a large floral crown, on which two beautiful tame doves were perched. This fairly overcame the artiste, and she klased the cooing objects in the sight of the assembled multitude. This act was followed by ear-piercing and glovesplitting applause. Mile. Nilsson sails for Euope early in May. The proceeds of her American trip are said to have been $400,000, and no one grudges her the money either. -"Gath," the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, writes: "I observe, in the statistics of immigration for 1871, that, while the immense number of three hundred and twenty thousand souls came into this country, yet still ninety-two thousand left it; and the fact that a great per cent. of these were people who had once come out from the old country is shown by the fact that fifty-four thousand of them went to Europe in the steer age. There is evidently a reflex movement to a considerable extent, in the matter of immigration, due, without doubt, to the enormous price of living here, and the fact that twenty five bushels of wheat will not buy a common coat. Cloth, taxed sixty per cent.; buttons, forty per cent.; braid, sixty per cent.; lining, sixty per cent., and padding, one hundred per cent., offset the twenty-five bushels of wheat. Add to this one hundred per cent. duty on raw wool, fifty per cent. on the machinery which spins it, and sixty per cent. protection on the made-up fabric. And with all this, wool is only thirty cents, while, before it got protection, it brought fifty cents a pound."

For Sale, Cheap!

Our Columbia correspondent telegraphs that the delegates from this State to the Philadelphia Convention are about to visit Washington and demand the removal of several government officers. This arrange ment was made when the delegates were chosen. Their plan is to offer President Grant the solld vote of the delegation, if he will remove all the respectable Federal officials in South Carolina and appoint the creatures of the Scott Ring. We shall soon see whether General Grant is ready, with the fall knowledge of the whole country, to sell his official patronage to secure his reelection.

The Japs.

The Washington toadies are delighted with the Japs. These are courteous, intelligent, speak English fluently, admire American beauty, have unpronounceable names, and bear high-sounding titles. The members of the embassy are equally at home when replying to a Congressional delegation, sliding down banisters, or swallowing soup with their heads where their feet ought to be. They are assiduously interviewed by newspaper men. They and their country are bedaubed with nattery. All the tomfoolery which was practiced when the Chinese big-wigs visited the United States is noisily repeating itself. But the keen Asiatics have an eye to business. They see all that is worth seeing, and learn what they care to learn. The President welcomes them to his official residence. Colleges re-The privileges of West Point are granted

This is the way in which the Japs are tion of Christian servility? The latest news from Japan is the reply. At Nagasaki the native Christians are slain by the hundred. A high Japanese official is the head tormen-Tubular Bridge Company, and authorizes it to tor, and puts the Christian converts to death construct a lunnel, or fron tube, across the by batches. Sixty-seven recently perished in one lot.' Starvation, imprisonment without light or clothing, exposure on frozen ponds, and the forcing of burning coals into the mouth, are among the favorite modes of torture. It is stated that the foreign consuls in Japan have already informed their respective governments of these atrocities, and it is boped that the British Government will interfere.

We shall be told, we suppose, that the barbarities of the Japanese are none of our business, and that we have no right to require them to be tolerant and humane, if it s their sweet pleasure to be bloodthirsty and ferocious. But the Japanese Government, in sending ambassadors to the United States, expects to be recognized as a member of the great family of civilized nations. opportunity is an excellent one. Iwakuri and his colleagues are quick of comprehension, and an official remonstrance on the part of the government would cause them to realize the fact that they will not be treated as a civilized nation while the bloody work their domestic policy or tacitly admit that Messrs. Duffie & Chapman, of Columbia will soon publish the latest work of the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, a Compendium of United States History, designed for schools. colleges, and general readers. The volume will be divided into two books, Colonial history and Federal history, and will consist of about five hundred pages.
