

DOWIE, MOISE & DAVIS, WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS, CHARLESTON, S. C.

We beg to call the attention of Druggists, Physicians and Country Merchants to our large and complete stock of Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Paints, Oils, Dyestuffs, Patent Medicines, Glassware, Window Glass, Druggists' Sundries and all Goods usually kept in a FIRST-CLASS WHOLESALE DRUG WAREHOUSE.

THE DOLLAR REWARD SOAP!

THE ONLY SOAP IN THE WORLD THAT WASHES FLANNELS WITHOUT SHRINKING THEM. Washes with hot, cold, hard, soft, or salt water. Removes Pitch, Tar, Paint, Grease, Printers' Ink, Sweet, Leather or Fruit stains. Superior to Goshall Soap for Toilet purposes.

DOWIE, MOISE & DAVIS,

AGENTS FOR CHARLESTON, S. C.

Sewing Machines.

GROVER & BAKERS HIGHEST PREMIUM ELASTIC STITCH FAMILY SEWING MACHINES.

Beauty and Elasticity of Stitch. Perfection and Simplicity of Machinery. Using both Threads directly from the spools. No fastening of seams by hand. The seam retains its beauty and firmness after washing and ironing.

SALE ROOMS, NO. 279 KING STREET, KINSMAN BROS.

SINGER STILL TRIUMPHANT!

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS AND DIPLOMA AWARDED TO SINGER SEWING MACHINE AT THE GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION AT ATLANTA, GA., OCTOBER, 1871, FOR BEST FAMILY MACHINE.

EXAMINE OUR MACHINES.

H. D. HAWLEY,

J. CLARK BEDELL,

RESIDENT AGENT, CHARLESTON, S. C.

OFFICE AND SALESROOM NO. 136 KING STREET.

Clothing and Furnishing Goods.

ELEGANT SUPPLY OF SPRING CLOTHING,

NOW OFFERED BY WM. MATTHESEN CORNER OF KING AND WENTWORTH STS.

CHEVIOT DERBY SUITS,

AT FROM $15 TO $35 PER SUIT, SUITABLE FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES.

BOYS', YOUTHS' AND CHILDREN'S SUITS,

OF NEW STYLES, HANDSOMELY MADE FOR ALL AGES AND IN VARIETY OF QUALITIES.

FURNISHING GOODS.

SILK SCARFS, TIES AND BOWS, of Novel Patterns and Styles. GLOVES, SUSPENDERS, HANKERCHIEFS, &c. &c. &c.

TAILORING DEPARTMENT

Supplied with a beautiful assortment of SCOTCH, ENGLISH, FRENCH AND AMERICAN CLOTHS, COATINGS, DIAGONALS AND FANCY CASSIMERES, which will be made up to order in best style, at moderate prices.

WE LIVE AND LEARN, DIE AND FORGET ALL.

THE SOUTHERN DYE HOUSE, No. 359 KING STREET, Dyes and Cleans by means of steam, Gentlemen's Ladies and Children's Clothes. Fine Lace and Lace Curries cleaned and done up with the Soft or Manufacturers' Finish; Lace and Orape.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Items of Interest from the Churches of the State and City.

The past week has been one of especial significance and interest in religious matters. Beginning with the bright festival of Easter, marking the change from the death of winter to the new life of spring, it has also been crowded with incidents each possessing in itself much local interest, and all denoting the renewed preparations of the church militant for another year of battle for the faith.

Citadel Square Baptist Church.

Interesting services will be held in this church to-morrow (Sunday) evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, on the occasion of taking a public farewell of the Rev. N. B. Williams, missionary elect of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, who, with his wife and her sister, is about to set out for his field of labor, Canton, in China.

Methodist Quarterly Conference.

The quarterly meeting of the Cokesbury District will begin to-day in the Methodist church at Abbeville. Rev. H. M. Wood, presiding elder, will conduct the worship at eleven o'clock. The quarterly conference will be held in the church at eight o'clock P. M. On Sunday there will be a love-feast at nine o'clock.

Columbia Bible Society.

The anniversary meeting of the Columbia Bible Society was held last Monday evening at the Baptist church in that city. A crowded audience testified an unusual interest in the subject, and were held in wrapt attention by the oratorical preacher of the occasion, Rev. J. L. Brynolds, D. D., whose sermon was a masterly and beautiful defence of the Bible.

THE IRISH RIFLE CLUB.

This newly organized and representative body of citizen soldiers have had an agreeable surprise in the shape of a donation of two hundred dollars made by some of our public spirited citizens, who wish that the club may increase in numbers and efficiency. We hope to see one hundred men out on the next parade.

FIRE.—At a quarter past three o'clock yesterday morning an attempt was made to fire a house in Charlotte street, Market street, by some unknown incendiary, who broke into an unoccupied apartment, the tenants of which are in jail, and placing a box of shavings, and, on the floor, set fire to it and left.

TURKEYS AND DUCKS.—Early yesterday morning a colored boy named Daniel Middleton was arrested at the corner of Smith and Vanderhorst streets with a pair of turkeys and two pair of ducks, which he was suspected of having stolen.

A Protracted Meeting.

Religious services were begun at the Methodist Church, in Sumner, on Saturday last, and protracted until Wednesday. Revs. S. A. Weber, of Bishopville, G. H. Wells, of Timonville, and A. J. Stafford, of Liberty Chapel, assisted the presiding elder, Rev. W. H. Fleming, and the pastor in charge, Rev. J. M. Carlisle, in the conduct of this meeting.

The State Sunday School Convention.

Much interest is manifested in the approaching Union Sunday School Convention to be held in this city on Wednesday the 15th proximo, some of the Sunday schools throughout the State having already elected their delegates, while many others have called special meetings for this purpose.

ORDINATION SERVICES.

The ordination of Rev. Edwin C. Rice to the work of the Gospel ministry will take place in the Baptist Church of Greenville to-morrow. Dr. William Williams, of the Theological Seminary, will preach the ordination sermon. Mr. Rice is now a student at the Theological Seminary.

MASONIC STATISTICS.—There are now in the State of South Carolina one hundred and forty nine chartered lodges of Free and Accepted Masons in active working order.

HOME AGAIN.—The Columbia Union says that in the general upsetting of things upon the arrival of the Federal troops in 1865, a sword belonging to one of the masters of the way from the Columbia Chapter was carried away.

THE ODD FELLOWS' CELEBRATION.—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows are making extensive preparations for a becoming celebration of the fifty-third anniversary of the introduction of their order in America, on the 26th of this month, and to judge by the programme, a grand affair may be expected.

CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, TORYK, L.E.

Wardens—A. Howard and W. B. Wilson. Vestrymen—J. S. R. Thomson, W. B. Metts.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, RICHLAND.

Wardens—T. E. Clarkson, Jr., Dr. W. W. Keith, Vestrymen—Geo. T. Wickes, T. B. Clarkson, Sr., J. S. Hanahan, A. Shoobert, Richard Singleton.

CHRIST CHURCH, GREENVILLE.

Wardens—C. Markley and Dr. H. R. Rutledge. Vestrymen—E. P. Jones, Thos. M. Cox, E. B. Bacon, Hamlin Beattie and Dr. O. S. Irvine.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, WINNSBORO.

Wardens—A. A. Galliard, DuBoise Eggleston. Vestrymen—W. B. Robertson, W. M. Dwight, Dr. C. H. Ladd, Pierre Baot and T. Ross Robertson, vice J. M. Daly.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, FLORENCE.

Wardens—H. A. Robertson, secretary and treasurer; Jos. H. Johnson. Vestrymen—Dr. Morton Waring, Charleston; John W. Galliard, C. E. Jarrot, D. W. Haines, E. H. Mellichamp.

PERSONAL.—Mr. G. W. Quintard, of New York, the president of the New York and Charleston Steamship Company, is staying at the Charleston Hotel.

Booth at the Academy.

The sale of seats for the engagement of Mr. Junius Brutus Booth will begin at the Academy at 9 o'clock this morning. The price of admission is only one dollar. Reserved seats twenty-five cents extra.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Second Night of the Blonde Barleques. Another crowded and fashionable audience greeted Miss Thompson and her graceful satellites at their second performance at the Academy of Music last evening. The favorable impressions of the previous evening were more than confirmed, and the troupe achieved another decided triumph.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.

Trial of a Mutiny Case—A Batch of Revenue Indictments. The United States Circuit Court was occupied yesterday with the trial of John Barman, alias Richard Lawrie, on a charge of revolt. It appeared that these seamen belonged to the American vessel Maritima Booker, commanded by Captain Cutler, and that on the 26th day of last January, while the vessel was lying in Charleston harbor, they refused to work or to obey the orders of Captain Cutler, whereupon the captain signalled a revenue cutter, which came alongside and took off the refractory seamen. They were defended by G. Lamb Bult, Esq., by assignment of the court, and no violence having been proved against them the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and they were discharged.

THE LADIES FUEL SOCIETY.

The regular monthly meeting held yesterday morning at the depository, in Chalmers street, this society closed its charitable work for the season. From the reports of the distributors for the various wards it was shown that about eleven hundred dollars worth of fuel had been distributed among the poor of the city, in many cases gratuitously and in others at one-half of the actual cost.

Hotel Arrivals—April 4.

PAVILION HOTEL. T. W. Davis, J. H. Morgan, J. T. Stuart, Greenville; F. G. Burrows, Memphis; Captain O. P. Waeeler, Boston; John Nettles, North-eastern Railroad; J. Cameron, St. Louis; J. C. Ferrell, Atlanta; A. Morgan, Georgetown.

CHARLESTON HOTEL.

Charles A. Larendon, J. M. Walker, Georgia; D. B. Van Houten and wife, A. Smith, B. S. Howard, E. W. Jessup, W. L. Jessup and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Litchfield, New York; H. Jones, South Carolina; J. P. Brien, T. Jeter and wife, Mrs. Carmon, Pennsylvania; G. S. Trezevant, T. J. LaMoite, Mrs. Glover, son and servant, Miss Whitner, Columbia; H. Conrad and family, Winchester; M. H. Hawes, J. A. Gool, D. Baker, Savannah; J. B. Dawkins, Gainesville, Fla.; J. Rosenthal, Baltimore; Mrs. J. L. Carrington, Mrs. Marshall, Richmond; A. E. Tapplet, Georgetown; H. N. Raymond, Mrs. M. N. Raymond, Cleveland; M. W. Garrison, Alabama.

MILLS HOUSE.

W. S. Williams and wife, Edgefield; H. H. Benner, United States Army; Mrs. Clarke, M. Daniels, New Jersey; G. Collier, C. Cottrell, D. M. Waldock, A. Smith, P. S. Howard, M. N. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Van Valkenberg, Miss Annie Van Valkenberg, Miss Emmie Van Valkenberg, Master Allen Van Valkenberg, New York; Mrs. E. Higgins, Richmond; D. Baker, Savannah.

A CORRECTION.—Mr. A. E. Philippi denies emphatically that he was the person who informed on Messrs. Law & Doscher for violating the internal revenue laws.

THE PEOPLE'S SAVINGS INSTITUTION.

This institution will begin business in the People's Bank building on the 15th instant, when it will receive deposits, upon which it will allow six per cent interest. All of the profits are divided every fifth year among the depositors.

THE DEAD FOUNDLING.—The inquest over the body of the baby, which died the day after it was found at the gate of the Orphanhouse, was concluded yesterday. The jury found that it came to its death from exposure, and that the person who left it exposed to the weather was accessory to its death.

A MUSICAL LECTURE.—At a meeting of St. Patrick's Brass Band, held last evening, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: P. F. Gleason, president; F. J. McGary, vice-president; N. G. Duffy, secretary; T. J. Sheehan, treasurer. Committee on letters—M. Conners, M. Powers, Geo. Cleary, M. Barry.

A FREIGHTING FREAK.—Fifty packages of coffee and sugar, consigned to Columbia, Ga., were received in Charleston from Baltimore last week, to be forwarded to their destination by way of Fernandina, Fla. This is pretty good evidence that the Columbus merchants are determined to flank the Central Railroad of Georgia, even if the South Carolina Railroad declines to be a party to the transaction.

HARD HITTING.—E. Heyward and Peter Sommers, two colored men, quarrelled last evening in a bar-room on East Bay, near Elliott street, and the former picked up a brickbat and lunged it at Sommers, striking him in the head and inflicting an ugly cut. The wounded man was knocked senseless, and was taken to the Guardhouse bleeding profusely. Heyward was also arrested, but denies that he flung the brick. He is held for examination.

THE YOUNG AMERICA BALL.—The third annual ball of the Young America Steam Fire Engine Company took place last evening, at the Hibernian Hall, and was a brilliant affair. The hall was beautifully draped with flags, which, with the pendant decorations of moss gracing the splendid chandeliers, formed a striking and picturesque feature of the tout ensemble of the scene.

BISHOP PERISCO.—The Savannah Republican learns that this prelate has gone to New York for the purpose of attending, by special invitation, the consecration of the Catholic Church which has just been finished on Fifth avenue in that city, and to perform the grandest part of the ceremony in the consecration, which takes place to-morrow. The church is said to be a magnificent structure, and the consecration to be of an imposing character.

CRIMES.—T. J. LaMoite, Esq., of the South Carolina, is in town.

THE CITADEL POST BAND gave a delightful concert last evening in the vestibule of the Mills House.

THE OFFICES of the Western Union Telegraph Company displayed emblems of mourning yesterday out of respect to the memory of Professor Morse.

THE GOVERNOR has appointed the following named additional trial justices: John E. Brezale, of Anderson county; J. G. Gatlin, of Darlington county, and Rev. W. J. Parker, of Spartanburg county.

MR. A. J. WHITE, Jr., of this city, who was for some time past in the office of the Gas Company, has recently received the appointment of purser on the steamship James Adger, Captain T. J. Lockwood.

IMPORTANT MASONIC APPOINTMENTS.—At the last session of the Grand Lodge of South Carolina an amendment to the constitution was adopted, which provides for the division of this jurisdiction into ten Masonic Districts, and the appointment by the grand master of district deputy grand masters, whose duties and powers are defined by the amendment.

OF THE PRISONERS confined at Yorkville, J. M. Kirkpatrick and J. B. Kirkpatrick were discharged on bail last Saturday, leaving twenty yet in jail. J. S. Miller, whose term of imprisonment expired on the 28th ultimo, was discharged on that day.

THE FOLLOWING are the names of the prisoners from Laurens County who were brought to Columbia on Thursday, as noticed in our special dispatches yesterday: John Ellison, R. W. Ellison, Samuel Bolt, R. L. Potter, W. F. Falney, J. Enright, B. T. Balem, C. West, J. A. Leland, A. W. Teague, T. McCoy, James Huggins, Alexander McArley, W. E. Beach, R. E. Richardson, W. E. Crish, H. W. Andrews, Dr. W. Anderson, John T. Cray, Beauford Meddows, Henry Suber, E. Young, R. Williams, S. Pearson, S. Fritz, R. R. Blackiey, A. Mack, S. Oliver, J. Crampton, S. West, William Johnson, William Irby, William Adair, Osborn Bishop, George H. Davis, and Charles Pettit.

THE ARRESTS made are not for Ku-Klux outrages proper, but on account of the riot which occurred at Laurens Courthouse in 1870.

THE KU KLUX PRISONERS.—In addition to those previously reported, the following citizens of Chester County have been arrested and committed to jail by the United States authorities: J. C. Cornwell, W. A. Cornwell, G. C. Crosby, Curtis Jamison, D. Hardwick, H. D. Hardwick, and John Dallas. Mr. Crosby was subsequently released.

There are nine prisoners in the Chester County jail.

OF THE PRISONERS confined at Yorkville, J. M. Kirkpatrick and J. B. Kirkpatrick were discharged on bail last Saturday, leaving twenty yet in jail. J. S. Miller, whose term of imprisonment expired on the 28th ultimo, was discharged on that day.

THE FOLLOWING are the names of the prisoners from Laurens County who were brought to Columbia on Thursday, as noticed in our special dispatches yesterday: John Ellison, R. W. Ellison, Samuel Bolt, R. L. Potter, W. F. Falney, J. Enright, B. T. Balem, C. West, J. A. Leland, A. W. Teague, T. McCoy, James Huggins, Alexander McArley, W. E. Beach, R. E. Richardson, W. E. Crish, H. W. Andrews, Dr. W. Anderson, John T. Cray, Beauford Meddows, Henry Suber, E. Young, R. Williams, S. Pearson, S. Fritz, R. R. Blackiey, A. Mack, S. Oliver, J. Crampton, S. West, William Johnson, William Irby, William Adair, Osborn Bishop, George H. Davis, and Charles Pettit.

THE ARRESTS made are not for Ku-Klux outrages proper, but on account of the riot which occurred at Laurens Courthouse in 1870.

THE KU KLUX PRISONERS.—In addition to those previously reported, the following citizens of Chester County have been arrested and committed to jail by the United States authorities: J. C. Cornwell, W. A. Cornwell, G. C. Crosby, Curtis Jamison, D. Hardwick, H. D. Hardwick, and John Dallas. Mr. Crosby was subsequently released.

There are nine prisoners in the Chester County jail.

OF THE PRISONERS confined at Yorkville, J. M. Kirkpatrick and J. B. Kirkpatrick were discharged on bail last Saturday, leaving twenty yet in jail. J. S. Miller, whose term of imprisonment expired on the 28th ultimo, was discharged on that day.

THE FOLLOWING are the names of the prisoners from Laurens County who were brought to Columbia on Thursday, as noticed in our special dispatches yesterday: John Ellison, R. W. Ellison, Samuel Bolt, R. L. Potter, W. F. Falney, J. Enright, B. T. Balem, C. West, J. A. Leland, A. W. Teague, T. McCoy, James Huggins, Alexander McArley, W. E. Beach, R. E. Richardson, W. E. Crish, H. W. Andrews, Dr. W. Anderson, John T. Cray, Beauford Meddows, Henry Suber, E. Young, R. Williams, S. Pearson, S. Fritz, R. R. Blackiey, A. Mack, S. Oliver, J. Crampton, S. West, William Johnson, William Irby, William Adair, Osborn Bishop, George H. Davis, and Charles Pettit.

THE ARRESTS made are not for Ku-Klux outrages proper, but on account of the riot which occurred at Laurens Courthouse in 1870.

THE KU KLUX PRISONERS.—In addition to those previously reported, the following citizens of Chester County have been arrested and committed to jail by the United States authorities: J. C. Cornwell, W. A. Cornwell, G. C. Crosby, Curtis Jamison, D. Hardwick, H. D. Hardwick, and John Dallas. Mr. Crosby was subsequently released.

There are nine prisoners in the Chester County jail.

OF THE PRISONERS confined at Yorkville, J. M. Kirkpatrick and J. B. Kirkpatrick were discharged on bail last Saturday, leaving twenty yet in jail. J. S. Miller, whose term of imprisonment expired on the 28th ultimo, was discharged on that day.

THE FOLLOWING are the names of the prisoners from Laurens County who were brought to Columbia on Thursday, as noticed in our special dispatches yesterday: John Ellison, R. W. Ellison, Samuel Bolt, R. L. Potter, W. F. Falney, J. Enright, B. T. Balem, C. West, J. A. Leland, A. W. Teague, T. McCoy, James Huggins, Alexander McArley, W. E. Beach, R. E. Richardson, W. E. Crish, H. W. Andrews, Dr. W. Anderson, John T. Cray, Beauford Meddows, Henry Suber, E. Young, R. Williams, S. Pearson, S. Fritz, R. R. Blackiey, A. Mack, S. Oliver, J. Crampton, S. West, William Johnson, William Irby, William Adair, Osborn Bishop, George H. Davis, and Charles Pettit.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.

Trial of a Mutiny Case—A Batch of Revenue Indictments. The United States Circuit Court was occupied yesterday with the trial of John Barman, alias Richard Lawrie, on a charge of revolt. It appeared that these seamen belonged to the American vessel Maritima Booker, commanded by Captain Cutler, and that on the 26th day of last January, while the vessel was lying in Charleston harbor, they refused to work or to obey the orders of Captain Cutler, whereupon the captain signalled a revenue cutter, which came alongside and took off the refractory seamen. They were defended by G. Lamb Bult, Esq., by assignment of the court, and no violence having been proved against them the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and they were discharged.

THE LADIES FUEL SOCIETY.

The regular monthly meeting held yesterday morning at the depository, in Chalmers street, this society closed its charitable work for the season. From the reports of the distributors for the various wards it was shown that about eleven hundred dollars worth of fuel had been distributed among the poor of the city, in many cases gratuitously and in others at one-half of the actual cost.

Hotel Arrivals—April 4.

PAVILION HOTEL. T. W. Davis, J. H. Morgan, J. T. Stuart, Greenville; F. G. Burrows, Memphis; Captain O. P. Waeeler, Boston; John Nettles, North-eastern Railroad; J. Cameron, St. Louis; J. C. Ferrell, Atlanta; A. Morgan, Georgetown.

CHARLESTON HOTEL.

Charles A. Larendon, J. M. Walker, Georgia; D. B. Van Houten and wife, A. Smith, B. S. Howard, E. W. Jessup, W. L. Jessup and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Litchfield, New York; H. Jones, South Carolina; J. P. Brien, T. Jeter and wife, Mrs. Carmon, Pennsylvania; G. S. Trezevant, T. J. LaMoite, Mrs. Glover, son and servant, Miss Whitner, Columbia; H. Conrad and family, Winchester; M. H. Hawes, J. A. Gool, D. Baker, Savannah; J. B. Dawkins, Gainesville, Fla.; J. Rosenthal, Baltimore; Mrs. J. L. Carrington, Mrs. Marshall, Richmond; A. E. Tapplet, Georgetown; H. N. Raymond, Mrs. M. N. Raymond, Cleveland; M. W. Garrison, Alabama.

MILLS HOUSE.

W. S. Williams and wife, Edgefield; H. H. Benner, United States Army; Mrs. Clarke, M. Daniels, New Jersey; G. Collier, C. Cottrell, D. M. Waldock, A. Smith, P. S. Howard, M. N. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Van Valkenberg, Miss Annie Van Valkenberg, Miss Emmie Van Valkenberg, Master Allen Van Valkenberg, New York; Mrs. E. Higgins, Richmond; D. Baker, Savannah.

A CORRECTION.—Mr. A. E. Philippi denies emphatically that he was the person who informed on Messrs. Law & Doscher for violating the internal revenue laws.

THE PEOPLE'S SAVINGS INSTITUTION.

This institution will begin business in the People's Bank building on the 15th instant, when it will receive deposits, upon which it will allow six per cent interest. All of the profits are divided every fifth year among the depositors.

THE DEAD FOUNDLING.—The inquest over the body of the baby, which died the day after it was found at the gate of the Orphanhouse, was concluded yesterday. The jury found that it came to its death from exposure, and that the person who left it exposed to the weather was accessory to its death.

A MUSICAL LECTURE.—At a meeting of St. Patrick's Brass Band, held last evening, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: P. F. Gleason, president; F. J. McGary, vice-president; N. G. Duffy, secretary; T. J. Sheehan, treasurer. Committee on letters—M. Conners, M. Powers, Geo. Cleary, M. Barry.

A FREIGHTING FREAK.—Fifty packages of coffee and sugar, consigned to Columbia, Ga., were received in Charleston from Baltimore last week, to be forwarded to their destination by way of Fernandina, Fla. This is pretty good evidence that the Columbus merchants are determined to flank the Central Railroad of Georgia, even if the South Carolina Railroad declines to be a party to the transaction.

HARD HITTING.—E. Heyward and Peter Sommers, two colored men, quarrelled last evening in a bar-room on East Bay, near Elliott street, and the former picked up a brickbat and lunged it at Sommers, striking him in the head and inflicting an ugly cut. The wounded man was knocked senseless, and was taken to the Guardhouse bleeding profusely. Heyward was also arrested, but denies that he flung the brick. He is held for examination.

THE YOUNG AMERICA BALL.—The third annual ball of the Young America Steam Fire Engine Company took place last evening, at the Hibernian Hall, and was a brilliant affair. The hall was beautifully draped with flags, which, with the pendant decorations of moss gracing the splendid chandeliers, formed a striking and picturesque feature of the tout ensemble of the scene.

BISHOP PERISCO.—The Savannah Republican learns that this prelate has gone to New York for the purpose of attending, by special invitation, the consecration of the Catholic Church which has just been finished on Fifth avenue in that city, and to perform the grandest part of the ceremony in the consecration, which takes place to-morrow. The church is said to be a magnificent structure, and the consecration to be of an imposing character.

CRIMES.—T. J. LaMoite, Esq., of the South Carolina, is in town.

THE CITADEL POST BAND gave a delightful concert last evening in the vestibule of the Mills House.

THE OFFICES of the Western Union Telegraph Company displayed emblems of mourning yesterday out of respect to the memory of Professor Morse.

THE GOVERNOR has appointed the following named additional trial justices: John E. Brezale, of Anderson county; J. G. Gatlin, of Darlington county, and Rev. W. J. Parker, of Spartanburg county.

MR. A. J. WHITE, Jr., of this city, who was for some time past in the office of the Gas Company, has recently received the appointment of purser on the steamship James Adger, Captain T. J. Lockwood.

IMPORTANT MASONIC APPOINTMENTS.—At the last session of the Grand Lodge of South Carolina an amendment to the constitution was adopted, which provides for the division of this jurisdiction into ten Masonic Districts, and the appointment by the grand master of district deputy grand masters, whose duties and powers are defined by the amendment.

OF THE PRISONERS confined at Yorkville, J. M. Kirkpatrick and J. B. Kirkpatrick were discharged on bail last Saturday, leaving twenty yet in jail. J. S. Miller, whose term of imprisonment expired on the 28th ultimo, was discharged on that day.

THE FOLLOWING are the names of the prisoners from Laurens County who were brought to Columbia on Thursday, as noticed in our special dispatches yesterday: John Ellison, R. W. Ellison, Samuel Bolt, R. L. Potter, W. F. Falney, J. Enright, B. T. Balem, C. West, J. A. Leland, A. W. Teague, T. McCoy, James Huggins, Alexander McArley, W. E. Beach, R. E. Richardson, W. E. Crish, H. W. Andrews, Dr. W. Anderson, John T. Cray, Beauford Meddows, Henry Suber, E. Young, R. Williams, S. Pearson, S. Fritz, R. R. Blackiey, A. Mack, S. Oliver, J. Crampton, S. West, William Johnson, William Irby, William Adair, Osborn Bishop, George H. Davis, and Charles Pettit.

THE ARRESTS made are not for Ku-Klux outrages proper, but on account of the riot which occurred at Laurens Courthouse in 1870.

THE KU KLUX PRISONERS.—In addition to those previously reported, the following citizens of Chester County have been arrested and committed to jail by the United States authorities: J. C. Cornwell, W. A. Cornwell, G. C. Crosby, Curtis Jamison, D. Hardwick, H. D. Hardwick, and John Dallas. Mr. Crosby was subsequently released.

There are nine prisoners in the Chester County jail.

OF THE PRISONERS confined at Yorkville, J. M. Kirkpatrick and J. B. Kirkpatrick were discharged on bail last Saturday, leaving twenty yet in jail. J. S. Miller, whose term of imprisonment expired on the 28th ultimo, was discharged on that day.

THE FOLLOWING are the names of the prisoners from Laurens County who were brought to Columbia on Thursday, as noticed in our special dispatches yesterday: John Ellison, R. W. Ellison, Samuel Bolt, R. L. Potter, W. F. Falney, J. Enright, B. T. Balem, C. West, J. A. Leland, A. W. Teague, T. McCoy, James Huggins, Alexander McArley, W. E. Beach, R. E. Richardson, W. E. Crish, H. W. Andrews, Dr. W. Anderson, John T. Cray, Beauford Meddows, Henry Suber, E. Young, R. Williams, S. Pearson, S. Fritz, R. R. Blackiey, A. Mack, S. Oliver, J. Crampton, S. West, William Johnson, William Irby, William Adair, Osborn Bishop, George H. Davis, and Charles Pettit.

THE ARRESTS made are not for Ku-Klux outrages proper, but on account of the riot which occurred at Laurens Courthouse in 1870.

THE KU KLUX PRISONERS.—In addition to those previously reported, the following citizens of Chester County have been