Merchant of Venice, Act IV, Scene I.

Say what you will while yet I live— Heap maledictions on my head; I do not care, I will not grieve; But wrong me not when I am dead.

My feet have walked in venom's place,

Along the path of asps I tread; Then curse me in my living face, But "speak me fair" when I am dead.

Above my heart the grass will wave, "The violet blossom o'er my head; • Stand thou in peace upon my grave, And wrong me not when I am dead.

[From the Marion Crescent.]

General Wade Hampton and several other prominent gentlemen, composing the last State central committee, have issued a call for a convention of the Democratic party to be held in Columbia, on the 11th day of June next. This is the necessary sequence of the action of the national Democratic committee, calling the National Convention in Buttimore, and we are pleased to see it so early. It set-calling the National Convention in Baltimore, and we are pleased to see it so early. It settles the question, so far as South Carolina is concerned, as to the policy of Southern participation in national politics. The Columbia Convention is one of vast importance to us, and our people should be careful in selecting delegates to represent them. Let none but those in whose patriotism and sound judgment we can implicitly rely assume our responsibilities.

Let the Convention be Full.

put in a claim at Washington for Felici from bayonets and robbery. Moreover, it is due to the rank and file of the party that they shall not be turned loose by their leaders in this crisis—that they should be called together and instructed as to how and why they must go about the political redemption of the State. We sincerely hope that the representation at the Democratic Convention, to meet on the 11th of next June in Columbia, will be full, and that their action will be energetic; that Allow me to give you the true history of that matter as I recently learned it in New York, from a gen tleman who knew all about it. Mrs. Davis went to New York to consult Charles O'Conor, Mr. Davis's counsel, as to the best manner of effecting his release from prison. Mr. O'Conor told her that in his opinion there was but one way that it could be done, and that was to get the representative man of the Republican party to sign his bond. Mrs. Davis inquired who that man was. Mr. O'Conor replied that it was Horace Greeley. She then asked him if he would not see Mr. Greeley and get him to do it. He replied that he had no influence with Mr. Greeley, and that she was the proper person to see him. She said she would go and see him. She went to his office, sent in her card and was invited into his private office. She said to him: "Mr. Greeley, my husband is conflued in a casemate at Fortress Monroe. He has been there for many long, weary months. He is a feeble old man, and he is gradually sinking under his rigorous imprisonment. He will die 4 the remains there much longer. General Kershaw says that we ought not to take any hand in the matter—that is, reap all the benefits we can by not acting as a party, and take none of the responsibility. We think that if we fail to work openly and earnestly together for our own redemption, we shall not merit success. Whereas if we do recognize, "as a party," what course it is best to pursue and exert all our individual and party influence to induce others actively to adopt that course, then and then only shall we merit success, and with justice put in a claim at Washington for relief from bayonets and robbery. CLEAR AND HARMLESS AS WA-TER-NATTANS'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY FOR THE HAIR.—A perfectly clear preparation in one bottle, as easily applied as water, for restoring to gray hair its natural color and youthful appear ance, to eradicate and prevent dandruff, to promote the growth of the hair and stop its falling out. It is entirely harmless, and perfectly free from any poisonous substance, and will therefore take the place of all the dirty and unpleasant preparations now in use. Numerous testimonia's have been sent us from many of our most prominent citizens, some of which are subjoined. In everything in which the articles now in use are objectionable, CRYSTAL DISCOVERY is perfect. It is warranted to contain neither Sugar of Lead, Sulphur or Nitrate of Silver, it does not soil the clothes or scalp, is agreeably perfumed, and makes one of the best dressings for the Hair in use. It restores the color of the Hair "more per fect and uniformly than any other preparation, and always does so in from three to ten days, virtually feeding the roots of the Hair with all the nourishing qualities necessary to its growth and induces a new growth of the Hair mere posttively than anything else. The application of this won terful discovery also produces a pleasant and cooling effect on the scalp and gives the Hair a pleasing and elegant appearance. Price $1 a ARTHUR NATTANS, bottle.

CORDIAL, FOR INFANTS TEETHING.

This is the best Medicine for Infants and young Ohlidren ever offered to the rubile. It is carefully prepared from the best Drugs according to a prescription furnished by a distinguished German Physician of large and successiul practice, and has been tried and approved by many of our best physicians. It is specially adopted to the diseases incident to childhood during the trying period of Teething, and recommends itself for the cure of Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colle, Griping in the Bowels, Summer Complaint, &c. It contains no Anodyne or other injurious Drug, and should, therefore, be preferred to the soothing Syrups that now flood the market, which are known to contain Opium, and are, there ore, more or less injurious. Thousands of children are murdered annually by soothing Syrups; m some cases, this fact has been published in the newspapers, where the physician in attendance so stated in his death

The Southern Country has been so flooded with Bitters and Tonics, all professing to be panaceas for every disease that 'nesh is heir to," that it is with some diffidence we place our OLD CAROLINA BITTERS before the public. We feel emboldened to do so, however, from the marked favor they have met with the past five years, and the continued demand from every section of the country where they have been once introduced, is evidence that they possess some merit.

But are compounded by an Experienced Chemist, and contain some of the very best Tonics found in the Pharmacopæa, blended with select indigenous roots and herbs, together forming a most delightful Toule, and can be taken with perfect safety by the old and young. The delicate female, suffering from prostration and nervous debility, will find in the "OLD CAROLINA BITTERS" a remedy that will gradually atrengthen the system, invigorate the spirits and restore bloom to the pale cheek. We have never offered our litters as:a Cure for all Diseases, but, as a Reliable Tonic, they have no equal in general debility of the system resulting from Intermittent, Typhoid, Malarial and Nervous Fevers. Taken in small doses, the Carolina Bitters will be found highly beneficial, and the patient will find himself with altered feelings after he has taken a few bottes. Try it once and you will be convinced. For sale by all Druggists and Grecers, and at Wholesale by the Manufacturers, ON ACCOUNT AND RISK OF FORMER THIS DAY, the 23d instant, at 11 o'clock will
