THE CAROLINAS TO PARADE .- At a well at tended meeting of the Carolina Rifle Club held at their hall last Tuesday evening, the invitation of the Irish Rifle Club to participate in their parade and festival was unanimously accepted.

THE COTTON POOL -A large number o merchants met at the counting-rooms of Messrs. Porcher & Henry, yesterday, and handed in their estimates of the crop of 1871-72. More than fifty estimates were made most of them running under three million bales. Estimates will also be received this

BRINGING THE SEXTONS, TO BOOK .- The city registrar gives notice, in another column, of his determination to strictly enforce the ordi- hall. nance which requires all sextons and hearse keepers to deliver to him each day the certificates of all burials occurring on that day. The penalty for violating this ordinance is a fine of fifty dollars for each offence.

SALES AT AUCTION .- The fine collection of chromos at the office of Leitch & Bruns was offered for sale yesterday at auction. About one-third of the lot were sold. Many handsome ones still remain, and the inspection of purchasers is invited.

The United States marshal sold yesterday a auction in front of the United States Courthouse, fifty-three boxes at manufactured to bacco, varying in quality at from thirty-five to sixty cents per pound.

SAILING OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA .- When the thermometer gets up into the "elgaties" winter visitors leave Dixie for home, and such splendid deck accommodations as are to be had on the Iron Line attract crowds of passengers, coming southward in the fall and returning in this city on the steamship for New York en merchant and business man should have his the spring. Captain Beckett sailed yenterday route for Hanover. They will take with t. ... card printed on his envelopes. morning at 8.30 with every possible berth engaged, and applications are being received which is now almost completed by the welldaily by mail and wire for rooms on the Georgia, hence on the 29th, at ten o'clock A M. The South Carolina took out a large freight, in cluding seven hundred bales cotton.

CLUBS AND STARS.—The delinquents at the Mayor's matinee yesterday included one deinquent scavenger, who was fined ten dol-lars; one case of drunk and disorderly, for which two dollars fine was imposed, and one estray, in the shape of a black mare, which cost the owner one dollar to recover.

Policeman Goulding yesterday morning arrested two colored boys, named Ned Gray and Jacob Singleton, for stealing a cap from John. son hat store on King street, opposite Hasel. The prisoners viciously resisted the arrest, and the policeman was severely scratched and bitten on the arm, rendering medical attention

FOR THE AGRICULTURAL CONGRESS,-The committees from the old South Carolina Agricultural Society of this city and from the State Agricultural Society, left the city last evening by the South Carolina Railroad, on the 7.20 train, en route for St. Louis, to attend the National Agricultural Congress, which meets in that city on Monday, the 27th instant. The committees are composed of gentlemen of high standing and culture, many of whom have had long practical experience in agricultural matters. The committee from the South Carolina Society consist of Messrs. William M. Lawton and James G. Holmes, Jr., both of this city, and that from the State Society of Colonel A. D. Frederick and Mr. A. M. Felder, of Orangeburg, and Messrs. D. Wyatt Aiken and Thomas Woodward, of Fairfield,

Church, Queen street, for the benefit of the church by Lleutenant-Governor Ransier, Mr. W. J. McKinlay and others. Letters directed to Miss C. L. Johnson and Hall last evening, accompanying it as usual with a desultory lecture. To-night a repelition will take place, with a few variations and the usual distribution of presents.

LECTURE.-The Right Rev. P. N. Lynch, D. D., will deliver a lecture in St. Joseph's Church at eight o'clock next Sunday evening on the "Temporal Power of the Pope." The subject is one which, in the present state of affairs in Europe, must be of interest to every one, and in, the hands of the Bishop, cannot fail to be both instructive and entertaining. Tickets of admission fifty cents.

"FISH GUANO."-A cargo of fish guano arrived at Brown's wharf and was being landed yesterday, when the matter was reported to the board of health. The latter immediately issued orders to stop the landing of the cargo, but these were not received until too late prevent. Consignors and consignees will remember hereafter during the season they will not be allowed to land cargoes of this nature at any of the city docks.

BROKE UP IN A Row .- The Radical rural ready-relief convention, which was warranted to cure all evils and heal all wounds existing among the various factions of the Radical country party, assembled last evening at Mount Pleasant, pursuant to call. What transpired within is doubtful; but after a stormy session, wherein the Mackeyites and the Bowesites were striving for the upper hand, the convention broke up in confusion, and the various delegations went their way, highly excited and very much disgusted. What next?

AT LAST .- The stunted, dingy, old onestory brick building, No. 273 King street, and popularly known as the residence of the King treet hermit, was attacked by certain energetic sacreligious workmen yesterday, and a part of its front knocked down. The owner of the premises, Mr. Claussen, is about to erect a substantial brick store in its stead. The work of pulling down and erecting is in the hands of Mr. John H. Devereux, who will doubtless see that the present old ark is replaced by something neat and presentable.

A GALLANT ACT .- The New York correspon dent of the Savannah Advertiser writes: I am informed of a gallant act performed in mid ocean by Captain Berry, of the steamship

Charleston, which piles between the port by that name and this city. While he was stand-ing on the promenade deck a little child in the arms of its nurse either sprang or fell over-board. As quick as thought the noble fellow board. As quick as thought the noble fellow tollowed, and almost beforeithe little one touch-ed the water he had the child in his arms and safe. Being an excellent swimmer, he sus-tained himself until the steamer was stopped and boats came to the rescue.

PREPARING .- The rifles of the Irish Volunteer Rifle Club arrived yesterday, and were distributed last evening at the Hibernian Hall. The guns are short Enfields of superior make. The club afterwards had a drill in the lower of King and Society streets. The St. Patrick's Brass Band are practicing nightly at the Cathedral premises, and will be up to the mark on the 27th.

THE WEATHER.—The rainy and threatening weather of yesterday cleared off beautifully in the evening, with a prospect of some pleasant days ahead. In the afternoon, just before the sun went down, a magnificent rainbow appeared in the east, with another not quite as well defined above it. The arch was perfect and continuous, and as large as possible, the bow only disappearing as the sun sank below the horizon. Later in the evening every cloud disappeared, and the night was one of uncommon beauty.

THE HANOVER SCHUTZENFEST .- On Saturday afternoon at four o'clock the delegation from the Charleston Schutzengesellschaft leaves as a present from their club a gold med known artist, Mr. W. Fisher. The present is a very handsome one, and the Zeitung in peaking of it in the highest terms concludes by re marking that "this work of art will loubtless elicit great admiration in Germany. Besides this medal Mr. A. D. Lorentz sends over a huge drinking horn, and Mr. J. C. H. Claussen a twenty dollar gold piece as prizes at the festival in Hanover.

PRIZES FOR THE FESTIVAL .- At the last meeting of the German Bifle Club a resolution was adopted, giving to the Irish Rifle Club a present worth seventy-five dollars, to be shot for at their festival on the 27th and 28th instants. The kind of present has not been determined, but has been left to the choice of a committee. The following additional articles have been received by the Irish Rifle Club, to be shot for: From Mrs. H. Armstrong, King street, white ostrich plume: from Mr. W. J. Trim, King street, embroidered table cover; from Messre. J. H. Lawton & Co. King street, a gentleman's walking coat; from Mr. F. Von Santen, King street, a rubber coat: from Mr. Michael Storen, a silver goblet; from Mr. R. White. No. 88 Hasel street, a walnut card table; from Messrs. Cavanaugh & Welsh. Meeting street, two pleces lacquerware.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL FESTIVAL .- The ladies of Grace Church, Wentworth street, have determined that the flourishing Sunday-school connected with that chuch shall be provided with a suitable Sunday-school building on the lot of land on Glebe street already obtainted for that purpose, and in aid of this laudable project a very enjoyable ice cream and strawberry festival was given last evening at the Ryan Villa from which a very respectable sum! of money was realized. The spacious and beautifu grounds were thrown open at five o'clock but at that hour the drizzling fall of rain threatened to cause a partial failure of the festival, and the visitors arrived but slowly. Before sunset, however, the clouds gave way, the evening proved after all a delightful one, and throngs of visitors soon poured into the place, assuring the success of the enterprise beyond peradventure. The services of the Post Band were kindly volunteered for the occasion, and their charming music added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening, which was very pleasantly spent by the hundreds of visitors in a variety of refined amusements for which these elegant grounds are so admirably ad ed.

GUYOT'S TAR

Mr Guyot has succeeded in depriving tar of its insupportable sourness and bitterness, and in rendering it very soluble. Profiting by this happy discovery, he prepares a concentrated liqueur of tar, which in a small volume contains a large proportion of the active principle.

Guyot's tar possesses all the advantages of ordinary tar-water without any of its draw-backs A glass of excellent tar-water without any disagreeable taste may be instantaneously obtained by pouring a teaspoonful into a Any one can thus prepare his glass of tarwater at the moment he requires it, thus economizing time, facilitating carriage and obviating the disagreeable necessity of hand-
