A Visit to Charleston by a Patriot Manof-War-Was she the Fannie !

On Friday last, about eighteen miles from the bar, the pilot boat Perry was spoken by a apparently manned and armed for action. On communicating with the steamer, it was understood that an officer with dispatches desired to come to town, and an agreement having been made, the passenger was taken on board the Perry and reached here on Friday evening, and was accommodated at the Charleston Hotel. The matter remained quiet until Saturday, when the officer was visited and gave the following information: His name is J. Auguste Chauveaux, second lieutenant of the Cuban steam gunboat Pioneer, commanded by Captain Francis L. Norton; first lieutenant, James T. Hattricks; sailing master, Roscoe H. Cain; boatswain, Bernard Johnson.

The Pioneer is armed with two thirty-pounder Parrots and one eighteen-inch French rifle gan, with a fine crew of able-bodied men. This steamer, it is reported, has been cruising for some time in the inlets and off the coast of the eastern end of Cuba, and was last from Cape Maysi. There were no late battles reported on the island, but the lieutenant is of the opinion that the Spaniards will finally be driven off by the revolutionary forces. Important dispatches were brought here, which will be sent North to the friends of the Cuban

Lieutenant Chauveaux was found to be courteons but reticent as to the movements of the steamer. He left yesterday morning on the Northeastern train on his way to New

A suspicion is entertained that the Pioneer buster Fannie, which recently cleared from Baltimore and was chased on the night of the 7th instant by the revenue cutter Northerner until she was lost sight of, about seventy-five miles south of Fortress Monroe, as was reperted in the telegraphic columns of THE News last Saturday morping.

WOFFORD COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT. - Presi dent Jeter, whom we beg to thank for a pass over his road, informs us that visitors to the Wofford College commencement will go and return over the Spartanburg and Union Railroad at one fare.

Pionic.-The teachers and children of St. Joseph's Sunday-School have their picnic at the Schutzenpla z to-day, and they, with their guests, are requested to be punctually at the depot. The cars will leave Ann street at 8.30

CRUMBS .- Edgar P. Ricker is among the last class of graduates from the Annapolis Naval Academy, and has been transferred to the Tallapoosa as a cadet midshipman.

The time for receiving estimates for converting the city court-room into officers' apartments has been extended until next Saturday. THE NEW YORK FRUIT MARKET .- The Daily Bulletin of Saturday, June 15, says: There is a fair inquiry for strawberries a about Sal4c per quart. Cherries are plenty and sell from 7a8c for poor, up to 15.18e for fancy. Gooseherries unchanged at $2 50a$3 per bushel. Florida watermelous sold to-day at $25a$35 per 100, according to size.

CAPTAIN TREZEVANT.—The Columbia Phoenix is in error in saying that this gentleman was unconditionally discharged by Judge Bryan The case was referred back to Commissioner Boozer to take further testimony, and Captain Trezevant was admitted to ball in the sum of three thousand dollars, to appear upon the return of the additional testimony.

IN ADMIRALTY .- The case of James McNeill et al., seamen, against the ship Robena, libel for wages, was heard last Friday by Judge Bryan, who decided that each party should pay his own costs, and that the libeliants should recover each from ninety-sine dollars and eight cents for the wages due him.

OUR STEAMSHIP TRADE .- The activity in the freight and passenger traffic of the Northern bound steamers still exhibits a large trade notwithstanding the advancing character of the season; and the Manhattan, of the Adger line, departed on Saturday with near one hundred passengers, about 7000 packages of potatoes and vegetables, 520 bal-s cotton, and some 400 tierces, barrels and bales of rice, domestics and sundries. The Falcon, of the Raltimore line, left on the same day with 800 crates vegetables, 354 barrels rosin, 117 tierces rice, 300 sacks ground prosphate, and a general assortment of other products.

Bolls and Blooms .- Mr. Jacob Levin, of Camden, informs us that Representative Garey has eight acres of cotton two feet high with fitteen forms to the stalk.

Mr. Pinkussohn, of Galnesville, Fla., sends us two boils of cotton fully matured-one of sea island and one of upland. These were raised on the plantation of Rain & Beattle, near Gainesville. The cotton crop in Florida is in a fine condition, but corn is ruined by the

The first cotton bloom of the season, received at THE NEWS office, came from the plantation of Captain Geo. Habenicht, on James Island. It was handed in on Tuesday last.

Coming to Lips .- Late on Saturday night a report was prevalent that a man had been killed in a house near the corner of State and Queen streets. The proprietor of the house, who went to the Guardhouse, was detained there until the affair could be slitted, but early yesterday morning the murdered individual made his appearance, with a smile upon his face and one of his eyes in deep mourning. The whole affair grew out of a small but excited discussion with their fists between the parties, and they were all discharged subject to the warrant of Trial Justice A. M. Mackey. The supposed corpse and his executioner left on the best of terms, and the matter is probably arranged to the satisfaction of all concerned by this time.

CLUES AND STARS .- Charity Limehouse, a light-headed dame with mahogany features, could not recover in one night from the effects of her intemperance, and was sent to the Old Folks' Home.

Robert Kugley, lodged at half-past twelve Saturday morning, at the request of his wife, for being drunk and raising the evil spirit in his house in Line street, was fined one dollar, and ordered to give bonds for one hundred dollars to keep the peace for one year. B. Dobson, lodged for making night hideous and disturbing the peace, under the influence of liquor, in Tradd street, was delivered over to the warrant of Trial Justice Lovett, by whom he was tried, found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs or go to jail for thirty days. A Newfoundland dog, found astray in Tradd street, is apt to go the way of all flesh unless called for by the owner. Mary Ann Johnson, Sarah Wilson and Eugenia Singleton, three colored girls, were found at an early hour Saturday morning sleeping on the pavement in an alley on King street. They were taken to the Guardhouse, and not having any regular means of subsistence, were sent to the House of Correction tor twenty days.

THE SAVANNAH SCHUTZENFEST.

Departure of the Charleston Delegation-Arrangements for Their Recep-

The visiting delegation from the German R fle Club, of Charleston, to the schutzenfest nah Geseilschaft, leit yesterday afternoon by the Savannah and Charleston Railroad. The club assembled at two P. M., at their headquarters in Lindstedt's Hall, and escorted the delegation through Calhoun, President and Mill streets to the depot, with the handsome German flag of the club flying at the head of the procession, and Metz's Band dis-coursing martial music. The following is a list of the delegates, who were all dressed in the full uniform of the club: Officers: A. Melchers, president; G. Logermann, vice-president; W. Semken, F. Heins, directors; D. Goetgen, flag-bearer. Members: H. B. Rhode; H. Kuck, W. Mollenhauer, F. Kressel, A. F. Meyer, L. Cramer, C. W. Wiecking, F. J. Meyer, A. G. Whitney, W. Knobeloch, C. Berbusse, J. A. Amme, H. B. Schroder, J. A. Moroso, H. U. Buesch, G. Dreyer, R. Roth, Dr. C. L. Meyer, G. Oppel, John Wulbern, J. J. Borger, L. Elias, W. Fisher, A. W. Williams, D. Lillenthal, J. H. Happoldt, J. D. Osterboltz.

The arrangements in Savannah for the comfort of the Charleston delegation include a reception at the railroad depot, and a collation at the hall of the Germania Fire Company. The Charlestonians will be entertained during their stay in Savannah at the Planter's Hotel, and every arrangement has been made for their accommodation and enjoyment of the sports of the three days. The programme for the fest is copied from the one adapted on the reis none other than the supposed Cuban fill- cent similar occasion in this city, and the address of welcome this morning by President Elsinger, of the Savannah Club, will be re sponded to by Captain Melchers. Altogether, the arrangements seem to indicate a most enlovable season.

> WE beg to acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to the sixty-ninth anniversary celebration of the Euphradian Society, of the University of South Carolina, and to the final celebration of the Clarlosophic Society. The orator of the Euphradian is Mr. John P. Arthur, of Columbia, and of the Clariosophic, Mr. W. F. Wright, of Anderson.

THE REPUBLICAN MASS MERTING .- A large assemblage is expected this afternoon at the Batiery on the occasion of the mass meeting of Republicans in favor of the nomination of Judge Willard, of the Supreme Court, for the office of Governor. A number of effective speakers have been announced, and there is every prospect of an orderly and interested

THE WEATHER .- Yesterday morning the weather was as pleasant as could be desired, but toward evening the clouds began to pile up in the western horizon, and at about four o'clock the city was visited with a heavy fall of rain, accompanied by slight and distant flashes of lightning, which only had the effect of laying the dust and clearing the atmosphere, and was followed by a beautiful moonlight evening.

GREAT CONVENIENCE FOR SULLIVAN'S ISLAND Wilson & Brother, the pushing and indefatigable King street grocers, announce in THE NEWS, this morning, that they will deliver groceries to their customers on Sullivan's Island free of charge at their summer homes. Not only this, but they will carefully execute orders for and deliver goods not in their line. The islanders, considering this accommodation, and also the uniform excellence and cheapness of Wilsons's groceries, will vote the great Charleston Tea Store "an institution."

THE INFERIOR COURT .- The following named jurors have been drawn to serve for the July its to ninety-eight dollars and fifty-eight term of the Criminal Court: Abram W. Smith, Richard Venning, Benjamin Falken, H. Judge Moore, Samuel Francis, Ezekiel Rivers, John B. Abbott, H. Bonaparte, Richard Dixon, Andrew Hamilton, July Carter, W. S. DeHay, James M. Wane, John Wallace, Thomas E. Dixon, G. Izard, John Walker, Frank Scott, James Lesesne, Hector Jefferson, Isaac Hartwell, Alexander Brown, Marcus Ellington, Osborne Parker, Edward Logan, Isaac Weston, R. L. McCants, R. Tomlinson, Risbon Green, P. Lesesne, Samuel Glover, H. H. Hunter, H. L. Bell, Andrew Aliston, John Amonia and W. H. Sinkler.

> INSTALLATION SERVICES .- The installation of the Rev. G. R. Brackett, as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, took place last evening, and proved to be a most interesting and impressive ceremony. The venerable church was well filled with a large congregation, comprising nearly all the members of the society, together with a large number of visitors from other churches. The opening services were conducted by the Rev. J. L. Girardeau, D. D., of the Glebe street Church, who preached an eloquent seamon from the text in the first Epistle of St. John, 2d chapter, 20th verse: "But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things." He explained that the Holy One referred to was undoubtedly the Saviour, and the unction intended was evidently the presence of the Holy Ghost, and deduced a striking lesson of the powers and responsibilities of the gospel ministry. The constitutional questions to the new pastor were propounded by the venerable Dr. Smythe, now retiring after forty years of devoted service in this church, and the charge to the people was delivered by the Rev. C. S. Vedder, of the French Protestant (Huguenot) Church.

New York Rice Market.

New York June 15.

The Dally Bulletin says: The general tone of the market remains steady, and holders refrain from making any free offerings of stock. The amount available, however, is fully equal to the current outlet with a little to spare, and it is probable that customers in search of somewhat larger parcels would be quite welcome. Domestic stock and foreign duty paid are best sustained, odd lots in nond being now and then available at a little off for former extremes Saies of 250 bags Rangoon 6%47%c, 100 bags Patna 7%c, and 30 tos Uai olina at 949%c.

New York Hay Market.

New York, June 15.

The Daily Builetin says: Ship lag grades continue to settle down, each day showing a reduction of about 5c per 100 ibs. The finer qualities are in moderate request, but also are off a trifle. Salt hay is not plenty and continues high. Straw is a little more steady than hay at the moment.

Boston Market.

Boston, June 12.

Coffee.—There has been quite an active demand for Java, and the sales include some 7a8000 mats at 19½a22c per ib, gold, io bond, and this description is now firm at 20c and upwards, with a stock concentrated in a few hands.
