NEWS OF THE DAY.

-The specie shipments from New York on Saturday amounted to $346,226. -Fires are raging in the pineries along Puget Sound and are doing great damage.

-Efforts to compromise the Kilpatrick-Jen kins Jennings libel suit have failed. The case. however, will not go to trial until next term. -Susan B. Anthony announces positively that she does not like Horace Greeley. Horace says he can stand it as long as she can. The New York Bank Statement shows a week 0,254,668.

-The Board of Trade of Chicago unanimous ly adopted the resolutions offered Thursday in reference to illegal insurance by the proprietor of the Iowa elevator.

-The members of the French band take only two meals a day, at which each man, according to contract, has a pint of claret. They drink neither tea nor coffee.

-Governor Caldwell, of North Carolina, on Thursday last, issued his warrant upon the tressury for six thousand dollars in favor of young Wishart, and the other gallant young men of Robeson County engaged in the daring accomplishment, for killing the outlaw, Tom . . .. -Six hundred Communist prisoners, who, since their conviction, have teen incarcerated in the military prison on the Island of Aix, sailed from France, on Friday, on the transport Garonne for New Zealand, where they are to serve out the sentence imposed upon -It was lately reported that Gustave Dore was enamored of Miss Nilsson, and had been jilted by her. It is now reported that she neverlifted him, and that he never saw her but once. The importance of the whole subject is ar from impressive, and, as the lady is now married, we would suggest that it be dropped as matter for a newspaper item.

-Anderson, the alleged bank swindler, was rought before Judge Schley, at Savannah, on Tuesday, in order the his counsel might argue a motion for the reduction of his bail from five thousand to two thousand dollars. After hearing the argument, the judge ordered the ball reduced to two thousand dollars. Anderson could not give it, however, and was returned to jail. -Over fifty of the heaviest shoe manufacturing concerns in I was have pladged themselves not to employ any persons controlled by the Crispin associations after Saturday. The Crispins, on their part, have voted to withdraw from the Lynn's Savings Bank all the money standing to their credit, amounting in the aggregate to about $1,500,000, which sum, the Crispins claim, is largely controlled by the manufacturers.

-A Paris letter writer says: "We have a society of 'blood-drinkers' here-not the wildest wretches of the Commune, but quiet, order-living citizens. The abattoir of Paris is situated at La Villette. At ten o'clock in the morning the slaughtering of the animals commences. It is at this moment invalids suffering from impoverished blood or consumption answer the ringing of a bell, step into a room, where they are served with a glassful of the life blood of sheep and oxen, hot and even steaming. It is said excellent results have followed this strange cure. There is also fitted up in this place a bath-room where persons-children especially-suffering from weak limbs or general debility, can take a dip in the water in which the tripe has been boiled for the market. This latter mode of treat ment I have witnessed." -The burning of Niji-Novgorod at this time is equivalent to the destruction of a great commercial city. The annual fair, which has been in progress at that place for more than a month, is the only great relic of the ancient system of trade, and in its magnitude it is a representative of the combined industry of the Russian Empire. Quiet and almost deserted during the other months of the year, in midsummer Niji-Novgorod attracts merchants and caravans, buyers and sollers, from all portions of that vast country, and for many weeks the town is rich with the accumulated wealth of the nation's industry and alive with traffic. It is at this season that the fire is sweeping along the banks of the Volga, and, according to reports over the cable, threatening to wipe out the town itself and the large fair grounds with their buildings and booths. Already the loss of merchandise and goods is immense. and it appears doubtful whether the incomplete appliences for fighting the fire will be effectual in staying its course. Although such a conflagration in a city would result in more immediate local damage, the loss by this burning of the great Russian fair mart will be widely felt among the traders of the empire. -There appears to be an epidemic of sulcide among young ladies this season. Last week two attempts at self-destruction were made in New York, one successfully, by ladies, and on Tuesday another occurred in the same city. The person in this case is Miss Eliza Simpson, a school teacher, of Washington, D. C. She was seen to leap into the North River at the Cortland Street Ferry, by officer Thomas, who promptly jumped in after her, and by great exertion rescued her after she had sunk for the second time. They were both pulled up on the pler by bystanders. The woman had fainted, and in that condition was removed on a public prosecutor? stretcher to the station-house, where the usual stimulants were applied, and atter a short time she recovered and was taken to the hospital. There she revived still further and gave her name, and expressed great disappointmert at having been prevented from drowning. On being questioned as to her motive she answered, "O, I have disgraced my poor father." The matron asked her if her father was living, and she replied. "O, yes, the poor old man is still living;" and she burs out into sobs. She is in a most critical condition from the shock. She only volunteered the above confession, and no one pressed her to explain her remark. Miss Simpson is exceedingly prepossessing in appearance. -In an interview with a reporter of the Philadelphia Telegraph, Colonel Alexander K. their local interests.

McClure expressed his conviction that Merrimon has been elected Governor of North Carolina by at least five thousand majority, and that, although the certificate of election will be given to Caldwell, the Legislature will investigate the matter, and give it to Merrimon. "The returns first sent by the Grant men from the strong negro counties," sald he, "elected Merrimon, but from day to day they sent 'revised returns,' and had to increase the majorities three or four times to count Caldwell in. Five of the eight n -- ars of Congress and both branches of the Legislature, securing a Greeley United States senator would be a substantial victory for the Liberals, even if the Governor had been fairly lost by a few hundred, after the Radical majority of nearly ten thousand in the State last year; but with palpable fraud added to palpable defeat, the cause of Grant is now hopeless, not only in North Carolina but in the whole South, excepting probably South Carolina." In the same interview Colonel McClure stated that Governor Curtin would return about the first of September, and after he had retired with dignity from his mission, would declare himself or the presidency. As yet no one was authorized to state his political position. In response to the reporter's inquiry if he considered it possible that Governor Curtin would support Grant, Colonel McClure said : "Yes, it is possible, there being no law against it. Napoleon could have stumped France for the Bourbon King on his escape from Elba, but he didn't. Had he done so, he would not have had iriend in France."

The Anderson Meeting.

A mass meeting of citizens "who are op. posed to the administration of the Federal "and State governments" was held at Anderson Courthouse on Monday last. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the Liberal candidates and platform, and calling for a State Convention, to be held in Columbia on the 28th instant, "for the purpose of or-'ganizing for the Presidential election, and "considering what action should be taken "in regard to the State elections."

We do not think it practicable to hold such a convention at the time proposed. The only day upon which the citizens of the several counties habitually visit the county seats is the first Monday in the month, and, except in extraordinary cases, county meetcourthouse coteries. This is not a style of class of inebriates, especially in large cities, meeting to be desired. It is indispensable to harmonious and successful action that be full in numbers and thoroughly representative in character. Between this time and the 28th instant, such a convention, could not, in our opinion, ise organized. There are other objections which may not have been considered. The Conservative citizens of the State, if the newspapers correctly represent public opinion, had made up their minds to avoid conventions, to eschew national politics and to run no Democratic State ticket. They consented to appoint delegates to the Baltimore Convention, in order to show their hearty interest in the Liberal movement; and they expect to have an opportunity, in due time, of voting for Horace Greeley. But they de sired that the nomination of the Greeley electoral ticket should come from the Repub lican side, and they declared their determi nation to vote for whatever trustworthy and madica for outlet omore of publican Reformers might nominate. It is now proposed to adopt an entirely different policy, and it is not worth while to make a leap in the dark. The Anderson meeting is sure to be regarded as a Democratic meeting, and the Intelligencer speaks of the proposed convention as "the Democratic Con-"vention." This will not inspire confidence. It is true that the meeting calls for "an organization of the friends of the Lib eral candidates for President and Vice-"President;" and it is expressly said that the August convention shall consider "what "action should be taken in regard to the "State elections." But we all know that the Republicans are shy of any movement which the Democrats begin, and that it is extremely difficult to keep a State conven tion, once assembled, from nominating a full ticket.

We advise, therefore, that the matter of holding a State convention be postponed for two or three weeks. The Executive Committees of the Liberal Republican and Democratic parties can hold meetings in Columbia on Wednesday week, and, after a full conference, determine whether to recommend the calling of a joint convention. Should the convention be called, the counties can elect delegates on the sales-day in September, and the convention can assemble a few days later. In this way, both organizations will exert their entire strength, and the convention will be a representation of all the elements of opposition to the State and Federal administrations. Otherwise, i will be Liberal in name, and Democratic in fact. The delay, also, will afford time for sounding the public mind. We are not yet convinced that a guerilla war would not accomplish more real good than a movement all along the line. Now is the time for the progressive people of the State to speak out and say what they wish to have done.

Radical Tyranny.

On Wadmalaw Island there is a colored man named Boykin who declines to support either Bowen or Mackey for Sheriff of Charleston County. No sooner had be said so than he was attacked by both Mackeyites and Bowenites, who compelled him to flee for his life. Was not this a conspiracy to intimidate Boykin in the exercise of his rights as a voter? Was it not an attempt to coerce him mito supporting Mackey or Bowen? This is a fit case-if our contemporary, the Courier, is correctly informedfor a Ku-Klux indictment. Where is the

The Marion Meeting.

The explanation of the Crescent makes it evident that we misunderstood the object of the meeting of citizens held in Marion last Monday. That object was the making of arrangements for the holding of a county nominating convention on sales-day in Sep tember. To this, we, at least, see no earthly objection. What we do advise against is any intemperate action looking to the aomi nation of a State Democratic ticket. To win, we must wait. But, in the meantime, the counties will, of course, look sharply to

GOLDEN SORROW. By Mrs. Cachel Hoey. New York: Harper & Brothers. This is a spirited and exciting California story, the plot of which hinges upon the wrongful possession and use of property which, in the end, is given to the hero, who. establishes his claim. The characters are strongly drawn, and the incidents so deftly woven together, that the average novelreader will be apt to find this particular Sorrow a great pleasure. WHO WOULD HAVE THOUGHT IT? Philadel-phia: J. B. Lippincott & Co.

Those who are fond of the highly wrought, sensational school of fiction, and are not faetidious as to taste, style, or probability, have here a book which ought to please them. The heroine is a brunette beauty, so very Spanish in complexion as to expose her to the suspicion of African descent. Indian cupidity, a fabulous fortune of uncut diamonds, opals and emeralds, Massachusetts intrigues, a pretended marriage, some war scenes, with a dash of politics, form the kaleidoscopic and incongruous features of the tale.

Saving the Sonkers.

A special commission or the British Parliament have recently been engaged in investigating the subject of drunkenness and recommend reformatories of two classes-private for those who are willing and able to pay, and public for impecuaious patients. By this system habitual inebriates may be committed to reformatories by the courts on physicians' cerlificates the same as lunatics to the insane asylum. This goes further than the American system which contemplate voluntary patients and private reformatories only. The proposed English system is better because it is more sweeping, and for the reason that it provides for the protection of society from the more dangerous class of drunkards-the crimina make no provision, and who cannot be got rid of except through a conviction in the courts a State Convention, if such be held, shall for some criminal offence. It is generally admitted that drinking prompts the commission of at least three-fourths of our crime, and it eems desirable that some general law should be made by which all habitual drunkards, and particularly those of the criminal class, could be arrested and placed in reformatories antil such time as they gave evidence of reforma tion. Those in public reformatories who are unable to pay their way should be made to work in order to render the institutions selfsupporting, or at least partially so. The proposed English system is doubtless the best that could be recommended, and, if adopted, its

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 17, 1872.

Messrs. Dowik, Moiss & Davis:

Genllemen—I have used a number of bottles of your Collier's kemedy for Horses, and from my experience believe it to be the best Liniment ever offered to the public. I have had for the past eleven years a stubborn case of Salt kheum or Tetter on my lead and arm, which has been NEW CATALOGUE, No. 28. STUDIES IN POETRY AND PHILOSOPHY, by J.

or Tetter on my head and arm, which has been treated by the most skilled Physicians of Georgia land, $2 50. e Desert of the Exolus, Journeyings on Foot of Collier's Remedy has effectually cared me.

A. WILSON,
Proprietor Livery Stables, No. 148 Meeting street, Opposite Pavilion Hotel.

ISAAC COLLIER, Esq., Giasgow C. H., Barren CO., Ky.

Itake great pleasure in recommending Collier's Remedy as an almost indispensable article, and very valuable to all who own or have charge of stock. It is the best I have ever used for Sprains, Sores, or Galis oa Horses. Some of the men connected with the Company have used it for severe Burns and Sores as well as Rheumatic Pains, and for Bruis-8, &c., and all say it acts like magic. In Scratches on Horses it is invaluable. We use no other Liniment.

For Adams's Express Company.

F. A. MINOR, of York County, S. C., writes us, under date of October, 1869, as follows: "My horse was considered worthles, (his case was Spavin) but since the free use of your Coiller's Remedy I have sold him for $160. Your remedy is doing wonders up here on man and beast. Messix, Down Endows Sold State of Gentlemen—The box of drugs ordered on 31st May not arrived yet. We are anxiously awaiting it, particularly the Collier's Remedy. We have t, particularly the Collier's Remedy. We have had twenty calls for it in the last twenty days it is decidedly the best medicine that ever was
