se her eyes are softly brown, My dove, who quietly hath flown
To me as to her haven!
Because her hair is soft, and laid
Madonna-wise in simple braid, And letty as the raven?

Because her lips are sweet to touch, Not chill, nor flery overmuch, But softly warm as roses. Dear lips that chasten while they move, Lips that a man may dare to love, Till earthly love time closes?

Because her hand is soft and white, Because her hand is solt and white, Of touch so tender and so light, That where her slender finger Doth fall or move, the man to whom The guards of Eden whispered "Come P Beneath its spell might linger?

Because her heart is woman-soft. So true, so tender, that I oft
Do marvel that a treasure.
So rich, so rare, to me should fall,
Whose sole desert—so small, so an is-loving past all measure ?

Because she has such store of moods, So archly smiles, so staidly broods, So lovingly caresses; So that my heart may never tire Of monotone or may never tire Than she, my love, possesses ?

Ah me! what know or what care ! ? Or what hath love to do with "why!"
How simple is the reason!
I love her—for she is my love,
And shall while stars shall shine above,
And season follow season.

THE CAMPAIGN NEWS.

Graeley Against Grant-A Paper for the People.

The Presidential Campaign for 1872 has opened. It will be the most exciting that the country has ever known. The issues involved are extraordinary in character, and come directly home to every citizen. The overthrow of Grant and the election of Greeley mean Honesty and Reform in the National Administration, the triumph of Law and the restoration of Peace and Harmony throughout our land, and a return to the fundamental principles of government which prevailed in the better days of the Re-

The most intense interest will naturally be felt in the progress and result of the struggle, especially in the South, where the material prosperity of the people and their relief from organized persecution and robbery are involved. We mean that THE CHARLESTON NEWS shall at this juncture in no respect fail to deserve the favor which has been accorded to it as an earnest, enterprising and outspoken chronicle of the events of the day. And, in order to place our several editions within the reach of all, we offer them for the period of four months, covering the interval from this time until after the election, at the following low

The inventor believes that it will revolutionize the whole wagon business. Experiments have been made with one roughly constructed, only four feet in diameter, which was ireighted with 2300 pounds of iround seven men on the outside, which was carried easily over level roads by one horse. The tracks were rough and the entire model imperfect, but the experiment greatly encouraged the inventor, who has applied for a patent and will have a working model on exhibition at the State fair. The trouble so far has been to give the thing a name which will be descriptive of its construction and use. Many have been suggested. Among them, "revolving sled," "barrel railroad," "cylindrical wagon," "drum coach," "road-cylinder." Like all inventors, "Billy" is laughed at for the quaint novelty of his in-

THE AUGUST CONVENTION. A Sensible Discussion of the Situation

The Columbia Carolinian agrees with THE CHARAESTON News in regarding the State Convention, called by the Anderson meeting, as impolitic, if it be practicable. The Carolinian says:

Our views on the subject of party organization have been given before, and we have as yet seen no reason to change them. If anything is to be effected for the improvement or reformation of our affairs in this state, it must reformation of our affairs in this state, it must be accomplished by drawing together whatever is good and true of both parties, and uniting them in a common effort. The Democrats representing but a small majority of the voting population, while they are a powerful reserve force if brought in to turn the tide of battle in the event of a division of the present contestants, can reasonably expect only a crushing defeat if these contestants are united against them. Any movement at this time on crushing deleat if these contestants are unter against them. Any movement at this time on the part of this minority looking to a party organization for the purpose of nominating a State ticket, will bring about just such a re-sult, and is to be deprecated. Local organi-zation, with a view to directing the strength of the Conservative forces which may exist in of the Conservative forces which may exist in any county in an effort to reform, is not obnoxious to the same objection, and is not only proper but desirable, and should be therefore encouraged. These forces should be kept well in hand as the time may come, and that soon, when they may do effective service in the redemption of the State from the present dynasty of robbers.

But we repeat, much damage may be done by demonstrations which, at this stage of the contest, may have the effect of consolidating the factions, which gave strong evidence rethe factions, which gave strong evidence re-cently of violent and irre-concliable antagon-ism. We would not conceal the thought that ism. We would not conceal the thought that we expect Democrats to succeed, not as a party, but as citizens, by a union and co-operation with their fellow-citizens of other party names. Whenever such a union can be effected reform will result. Because the proposed convention, having such a purpose as is expressed in the resolution quoted, will not yend to aid such a union, we deem it impoliis expressed in the resolution quoted, will not used to aid such a union, we deem it impolitic, even if it was practicable, to hold it at the time proposed. We do not believe any considerable number of our people are in the humor for such an experiment, and, unless there was a larger representation in such a convention, it would prove to be only an exhibition of weakness, damaging and demoralizing to those whom it is designed to aid.

DR. RUFUS BRATTON.

He Escapes and . Recaptured.

[From the Columbia Union.] A gentleman on from the North reports to us that as Mr. Hester, the well-known United States detective, was returning from Canada, having in charge Dr. Bratton, of whom so much has been written and said, a little episode occurred which has not been mentioned heretofore. It seems, from the report, that when the couple had reached Aquia Creek, Bratton dodged the detective, and eluded him in the general rush and turmoil consequent on the transfer of passengers. To find him at the time proved impossible, and Mr. Hester, thereupon, concluded to wait upon the wharf all night, first making a hasty trip through the train to satisfy himself that Bratton was not on board.
