LOCAL LACONICS.

-The train from Savannah, which was due in this city at seven o'clock, last evening, did not arrive until nine. It was detained by heavy freights. -The bed-room of a gentleman living in Broad street, near THE NEWS office, has been entered twice recently by a thief, who carried off nine new shirts the first time, and two valuable coats the second time.

-The Bolters held caucuses in various parts of the city last evening. One was held at Garrett Byrnes's store, on the corner of Hase and East Bay streets, and another at Peter Ashe's house, in Berresford street. .

-Bobert Simons, a colored boy about eight years old, was arrested and carried to the Detective office, yesterday, charged with steal ing two revolvers from Mr. William Cochrane. He acknowledged the theft, but would no tell what he had done with the revolvers.

THE WEATHER.

The fine weather of the week preceding Sunday last began on that afternoon to show signs of a coming change, and by Monday morning had given place to genuine equinoctial weather. The rain commenced at halfpast seven o'clock on Mond ty morning, and a varying fall continued with sittle intermission until night. The wind at the same time was quite fresh, and kept shifting to and fro from east to south with the characteristic feverishness of the equinox. But it was not until midnight on Monday that the rain began in real good earnest. From that time until seven A. M. yesterday it came down as If all the reservoirs above had suddenly broken loose. The streets everywhere bore marks yesterday morning of having been flooded the night previous, and several were partly submerged until the day was far advanced. The total rainfall from half-past seven A. M. Monday to twelve M. yesterday was 2 55-100 inches. Of this amount 1 73-100 inches fell between midnight Monday and seven o'clock yesterday morning. Between seven A. M. and twelve M. yesterday the fall was 5 4-100 inches. Hard showers continued to fall at short intervals throughout the day.

The range of the thermometer yester day at the drug store of Mr. Joseph Black man, on the south side of Broad street, was as follows : 8 A. M., 74; 10 A. M., 77; 12 M. 80; 2 P. M., 80; 4 P. M., 79; 6 P. M., 78; 8 P. M. 71:

IMPORTATION OF BLOODED STOCK .- Among

the large cargo of the steamship Charleston, which arrived here yesterday, was a lot of twenty-four horses, including several fine blooded animals, imported from Canada by Colonel D. Wyatt Aiken, secretary of the State Agricultural Society. The horses have been purchased by Colonel Aiken and Major J. K. Vance, of Cokesbury, during a trip to Canada made for that purpose, and in addition to net ting a handsome profit to the enterprising importers, it is believed that the venture will renit in the material improvement of the strain of South Carolina horses.

THE "TRUE REPUBLICANS.-"The county nominating convention of the Bowen-Tominson faction in Charleston County is to be held this morning in Hibernian Hall, the trouble to begin at ten o'clock. The candidates to be nominated are for the following offices: Sheriff, clerk of court, judge of probate, school commissioner, coroner, three county commis sioners, State senator and eighteen representatives. For these twenty-seven nominations there are about seventy aspirants, and the contest is expected to be a lively one. It is reported that the leaders of the Bowenites contemplate the nomination of several prominent conservative citizens among their legislative candidates.

A PUSHING FIRM,-The enterprising dry goods firm of Furchgott, Benedict & Co. are hard at work, night and day, arranging their new stock of goods, which is coming in by every steamer, at their new and elegant quarters, No. 275 King street. The upper floors of the store were lighted up for the first time on Monday night, and presented a very bright and cheerful appearance. Elegant gas fixtures designed for the first floor are daily expected to arrive from New York. The store will comprise three departments, the retail department on the first floor; the carpet, matting and oil cioth department on the second floor, and the wholesale department on the third floor. All three departments have been handsomely and conveniently fitted up, and each is especially adapted for the purpose to which it will be devoted. The arrangement of the retail department is not yet complete, but will be finished in a day or two. The removal will have been completed by Saturday evening, and the store will be open to the public on Monday morning.

CHANGE OF SAILING DAY TO NEW YORK. The steamship South Carolina will be dispatched for New York this day at four o'clock, instead of on Thursday, as heretofore adver tised. Shippers and passengers will note the change.

STEAMSHIP ACTIVITY. -The activity now pre vailing in the movement of freight between Charleston and the various Northern ports s unprecedented in the history of the city. All the lines of steamers are overcrowded with business, and the vessels of the Adger line are doing almost double duty, being turned about and forwarded just as soon as it is possible to take in their freight. The Charleston arrive yesterday after a smooth and quick passage bringing perhaps the largest steamship load ever brought into this harbor; and the Manhattan sails to-day at noon. Immense freights are being carried by these vessels both ways and, as for passenger accommodations, we can do the visitors to the North no greater kindness than to recommend them to the courteous attention of Captain Woodhull and his excellent officers.
