DR. H. BAER, No. 131 Meeting street. FAITY THE TENDER BABE!

Give it not the deadly compound known as soothing Syrap. A certain popular article of this named as launched thousands of helpless innoceants into an early grave. This has been proven repeatedly, and beyond the shadow of a doubt, for which reason it is cendemned by the majority of physicians.

Seeing the necessity for an article of this sort, entirely free from opiats, and other injurious drugs, Dr. Baer has put up the MESSES. DOWIE, MOISE & DAVIS, CHARLESTON, S. C.—Dear Sirs: I regard MOISE'S FEVER AND AGUE PILLS as a certain cure, and a biessing to all living in the melarious districts of the south, and particularly in the everglades of our State.

Very respectfully, yours,

Lingstree, S. C., December 31, 1870.

MR. B. F. MOISE, ORALLESTON, S. C.—Dear Siri I have used your FEVER AND AGCE PILLS in my practice this fall, and have never in the first instance failed to relieve my patients. I have now frequent calls in my drug store for them, and now frequent calls in my drug store for them, and CTATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

OHARLESTON, S. C., October 22, 1872.

To Commissioners of Election for Union County:

Whereas Hen. H. W. DUNGAN, who, at a general election held Gotober, 1870, was chosen a member of the Senate for the Election District of Union County, to serve for the term of fear years, has, since Said election, deceased; and whereas the Constitution of the State of South Carolina directs that in such case a Writ of Election shall be issued by the President of the Senate, for the purpose of filling the vacancy thus occasioned for the remainder of the term for which the member so deceased was elected to serve; now therefore you, and each of you, are hereby required, after due advertisement, and with strict regard to all the provisions of the Constitution and laws of said State touching your duty in such case, to hold an election for a member of the Senate for the Election District aforesaid, to serve fer the remainder of the term for which the said Hon. H. W. DUNGAN was elected, the poils to be opened at the various places of election in the said District, on Turspay, the fifth day of November, 1872, by the various sets of managers for those places, and the counting of the votes cast, and the declaration of the result of the election, to be in accordance with the provisions of the Act approved March, 1870, entitled "An Act to provide for the General Elections, and the manner of conducing the same." and the Act of 1872, amendatory thereof. This writ, together with a certified copy of your return of election, to be held under it, have before the Senate at its next meeting after the election.

CHARLESTON, S. C., October 22, 1872.

SIGNALS OF DANGER.—DISEASE, blke the rathesnake, usually gives fair warning before it strikes. A fairing appetite, a forred tongue, nansea, headache, want of proper action in the bowels, feverishness, lassitude, nervousness and uneasy feeling in the atomach, &c., are all symptomatic of a coming attack of indigestion, bullousness, colic, fever, or some other positive form of disease. When thus menaced, resort immediately to CHARLESTON, S. C., October 22, 1872.
To Commissioners of Elections for Chester County:
Whereas, Hon. LUCIUS WIMBUSH, who at a general election held October, 1870, was chosen a nember of the Senate for the election district of Chester County, to serve for the term of four years, has since said election deceased, and whereas, the Constitution of the State of South Carolina directs that in such case a Writ of Election shall be issued by the President of the Senate, for the purpose of filling the vacancy thus occasioned, for the remainder of the term for which the member so deceased was elected to serve; now, therefore, you and each of you are hereby required, after due advertisement, and with strict regard to all the provisions of the Constitution and laws of said State, touching your duty in such case, to hold an election for a member of the Senate for the Flection District aforesaid, to serve for the remainder of the term for which the said Hon. Lucius Wimbush was elected; the polls to be opened at the various places of election, in the said district, on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1872, by the various sets of Managers for those places; and the counting of the votes cast, and the declaration of the result of the election to be its accordance with the provisions of the Act approved March, 1870 entitled "An Act to provide for the general elections and the manner of conducting the same." and the Act of 1872, amendatory theteof. This writ, together with a certified copy of your return of election to be held under it, have before the Senate at its next meeting after the election.
