The Charleston News

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1872.

IT WILL be seen by the official announce ment, printed in another column, that THE CHARLESTON DAILY NEWS "is designated as "the newspaper for the publication of all "legal notices, and official advertisements, "for the County of Charleston, under the "act of February 22d, 1870, entitled an act "to regulate the publication of all legal and "public notices."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Now that the elections are over some two hundred employees have been discharged from the Washington Navy Yard. -The silk weavers' strike at Paterson, N. J. is about over, all the employers but one having conceded the old wages to the work-

-A genuine small-pox scare is prevalent in East Tennessee, and our exchanges from Bristol and Jonesboro' are filled with account of its ravages and the preventive measure adopted by the local authorities.

The President, last Monday, appointed Samuel F. Philips, late assistant United States district attorney in the Ku-Klux trials in North Carolina, to the office of solicitor-general, lately vacated by the resignation of Colonel

-The Criminal Court of Memphis has begun on the gambling houses, and a number of proprietors and players have been arrested. The mayor of the city has also begn arrested for violating the gambling laws by issuing licenses to the houses.

The "oldest inhabitant" in Eastern Texas has never seen such a dry season as this. Small streams that were never known to cease running before are now nearly dried up, and Trinity is so low that it can be forded in many places by horsemen and crossed by footmen on logs and rocks.

-The Presbytery of Louisville have deposed the Rev. Gilbert H. Robertson, of that city, from his functions as a Presbyterian minister, upon conviction before the Presbytery of the sins of drankenness, adultery and lying. The vote stood three for suspension, and nineteen for deposition.

-A large meeting of cotton merchants was held at the Savannah Cotton Exchange last Monday afternoon to take into consideration the transportation of freight from and to the various commercial channels, during the prevalence of the horse disease, and committees were appointed, consisting of three cotton sellers and a like number of buyers. Also steamship agents and railroad superintendents were requested to meet at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce for consultation. female voters seems likely to get into trouble. A hard-hearted United States Commissioner at Rochester has issued warrants for the arrest of Miss Susan B. Anthony and her fourteen female companions, who deposi ted their ballots as citizens of the United States at the late election. The poll inspectors appear to have been struck with a momentary panic when confronted by Miss Anthony and her intrepid band, and seem to have suddenly forgotten that the disputed word "person" was, in the Constitution, a term of limited application. It remains to be seen whether Commissioner Storrs will be able to retain his attitude of adamantine severity when these fifteen ladies appear before him, in grim and terrible array, in his own court. -The President has recently been arranging the points for his message, but has not yet commenced writing it. Some of the contents of the document can be inferred from his recent private utterances, and it is sale to say that it will be more liberal in its tone, especially towards the South, than his former messages, the recent vote in that section being an indication of a better feeling than heretofore towards the general government, while the press is more moderate in its utterances, not aking into account the popular majority of the entire country. The recent pardon of Appleton Oaksmith is regarded by Southern gentlemen as showing them a more friendly policy, and as foreshadowing the executive action relative to some of the Ku-Klux prisoners now serving out their sentences in the Albany penitentiary.

-The Cat Show at the Crystal Palace in London is generally spoken of in the newspapers of that city. Each cat is enclosed in a neat wire-work cage, with a plenty of room for the biggest of them. In each cage is a cashion for the inmate to repose upon. They are well supplied with both meat and milk. The number exhibited, including kittens, is nearly four hundred. They are divided into four great classes, with prizes ranging from two guiness to five shillings, including shorthaired, long-haired, and cats belonging exclusively to workingmen. These are again divided into forty-eight classes, beginning with the short-haired tortolseshell he-cat and going through all the varieties of brown tabbles, blue or silver tabbies, black and whites, pure white and unusual colors. Among the interesting animals in the show is an ocelot. or young tiger-cat. There is a tortoiseshell he-cat valued by his owner at fifty pounds. A tortoiseshell he-cat short-haired is something entirely new-cats of that marking being almost invariably "shes." No. 95 is valued by his owners, two maiden ladies, at five hundred pounds. To crown all, there is a cat weighing twenty-two pounds without his

-The owners of vicious dogs and proprietors of loaded guns and pistols laving around loose have hitherto epioyed a perfect immunity from all legal pains and penalties; the former, for r cussedness, and the latter for their criminal carelessness. It is, therefore, pleasing to note the fact that two juries-one in New York and one in Baltimore—have recently been found whose heads are level as to canines and loaded fire-arms. In New York Mr. Gale is the paternal parent of a little girl and the owner of a revolver. Had the two aright!

been kept apart Mr. Gale would have saved just seven hundred and fifty dollars, that being the amount of damages allowed by the jury, a few days since, to Mr. Hoffman, whose oody was perforated with buckshot from Mr. Gale's six-shooter while Mr. Gale's little daughter was fooling with it. In Baltimore Mr. Herman Simon has or had a number of vicious dogs on his premises, and the hungry pack attempted a few weeks since to lunch on little girl named Mary, the daughter of one W. D. Brooks. Mr. Brooks thereupon brought uit to recover for loss of services of his daughter, and another action to recover damages for injuries to the little girl by the dog bites. Mr. Simon's defence was that he was not the owner of the dogs, which belonged to his gardener, on the same premises, where the little girl Mary was in the habit of going every day for milk, which was sold by the gardene on his own account. The jury thought that 'too thin," and returned a verdict of one hundred dollars damages in the first case, and two hundred dollars in the second, which was dog cheap considering the circumstances

A Foreshadowing of the Policy of the Moses Administration.

At length an appeal has been made to the Courts in a manner which promises to the people some measure of protection agains illegal taxation and the improper applica tion of the public money. THE NEWS has always held that the taxpayers, by a wise and vigorous policy, could hold the lawmakers in check, and compel the Executive officials to observe the letter and spirit of the laws and the constitution. This contemplated no resistance to a tax legally levied, for proper purposes; but a want of organization, and of confidence in the courts, caused the people to remain passive. Again and again has this paper said that the people had no right to assume, without trying the experiment, that the courts would deny them any fit remedy, and the course of Judge Melton warrants and justifies the warning so given. There was no action by any committee or junta. Two Reputlican officials, with the new administration at their back, are doing the work, and surely, whatever their politics, their race The first step was taken by Mr. F. L. Cardozo, a native colored man, who is the present Secretary of State and the State Treasurer elect. Upon his petition, Judge Melton granted an injunction restraining the State Treasurer and County Treasurers from applying the proceeds of the tax levy just made to any other purposes than those specified in the appropriation bill of March 13th, 1872. This secured the legal expenditure of the taxes as collected. The defenders of the public purse now advanced their lines, and applied to Judge Melton for an order enjoining the County Auditors and Treasurers from levying, and collecting, the taxes ordered to be levied by Comptroller Neagle, in his circular of the 14th Instant. They based their application upon the grounds that the tax is unconstitutional, and that the Comptroller has no warrant in law for the levying of any tax for the payment of interest upon the State debt. The injunction was granted by Judge Melton on Monday. Two points are thus secured. If the injunction last granted be continued, and we trust that it will be, there any tax levy under the existing laws. And even if that injunction can be dissolved, the people have the assurance that, so far as the Courts can direct and control, the proceeds of the tax levy will be applied to the legitimate, if extravagant, expenses of the current year.

The latest intelligence with regard to the tax embroglio will be found in our news and telegraphic columns. There the people will find what information they need as to the progress of a cause in which every man in South Carolina who makes an honest living, or who has a dollar's worth of honestlyearned property, is acutely interested. Whatever may come of it, we heartily congratulate the people on the progress that has been made in the vindication of their rights as citizens. This is a question which goes far beyond parties and political platforms. And surely it will be a good omen to those who, with THE NEWS, refused to support the hypocritical Bolters in the late canvass, that two of the officers elect upon the Regular Radical ticket are the head and front of the peaceful and constitutional movement against theft and wrong. This is not all. The injunctions already obtained and the proceedings already instituted, for the defence of the People against the Rings, foreshadow the financial policy of Governor Moses and his colleagues. These measures are approved of, and pushed on by, the new administration-a fact which recalcitrant County Audi tors and Treasurers will do well to bear in mind. Surely a better time is coming!

That Swindling Scrip.

The probable and pleasant rumor come to us from Columbia that Judge Melton has issued an order sustaining the decision of Judge Willard, of the Supreme Court, in the matter of the Blue Ridge Scrip. Judge Willard decided that the issue of the scrip was in violation of the Constitution. The case, in a different shape, was brought up in the Circuit Court, and the report is now that a similar decision has been rendered. This, we take it, will give a quietus to one of the biggest swindles which even South Carolina has known. Some good men financial innocents, will suffer, but the people will reap the benefit. There is reason for believing that the Rings are about to be smashed. Things are working

There was a serious, if not vital, error in the article of THE NEWS, in which it was suggested that the tax authorized by the Joint Resolution of March 13, 1872, was nessarily for the year ending October 31, 1872. The appropriation act of March 23, 1869, which had been overlooked, authorzes and directs the Auditor of the State to levy, and cause to be collected, a sufficient per centum of taxes to raise the money ap propriated in the act. This adds another to the yearly tax levies, and places the Comptroller-General in this dilemma: the new tax is for the year ending October 31, 1872, in which case it cannot be levied for the reason that a tax for that year has already been levied and collected; or the tax is for the year ending October 31, 1873, in which case the joint resolution of March 13, 1872, (which provides that the levy in ques tion shall be to meet the expenses of the government for the fiscal year commencing November 1, 1871,) is wrongly worded, and is of no more force than so much wast

We say, Well-done to the citizens who had the sagacity to discover the blundering of the officials, and the plack and patriot ism to bring them, at once, before the

also an excellent sedative, or Nervous Antidote, producing natural refreshing sleep in cases of nervous irritation, exhaustion or excitement in persons of either sex. Price $1.

Having used in my family RISLEY'S PHILOTO-KEN and EXTRACT BUCHU, and observed their invariable efficacy in cases among my fr ends for a number of years, I consider each a most excel-lent remedy for the purposes recommended; and besides, in my own case, the Philotuken proved a
