LOCAL LACONICS.

-C. H. Moise, E-q , of the editorial staff of the Sumter Watchman, is in Charleston, and called at THE NEWS office yesterday.

-Mayor Wagener was confined to his house yesterday by a slight indisposition. Alderman O'Neill acted Mayor in his stead.

-Daniel Grant and his wife, Mary Grant, were arrested yesterday afternoon for disorderly conduct and fighting on the corner of Tradd and Church streets.

-A pardon was issued on Wednesday to George Sylvester Wright, of this State, who was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for a violation of the enforcement act.

-The regular steam packet Virginia, for Philadelphia, will be dispatched from Brown's wharf, this afternoon, at two o'clock, taking out a full cargo of cotton, rice, naval stores, &c .Shippers will be punctual.

-The payment of interest on city stock will be commenced at the city treasurer's office on Monday. For the first five days thereafter priority will be given to stockholders desiring to use their interest in payment of taxes.

-John A. Wilson, arrested by the detective on Thursday last, on suspicion of having stolen one hundred dollars from the captain of a hark in the harbor, was acquitted yesterday by Trial Justice Howard.

-A new evening paper, to be called The Daily Evening Bulletin, will begin publication ou Monday. The proprietors are J. W. Delano & Co., and Mr. G. W. Delano is editor. The prospectus is printed elsewhere. Edward Reeves, a little white boy who had runaway from home and shipped as a cabin boy on board the bark Algeria about to sail for Liverpool, was arrested yesterday by the detectives and returned to his parents.

-The verdict of the jury of inquest, in the case of Henry Bonneau, colored, who died on Thursday from the effects of a wound inflicted by James S. Stocker, was death from accidental shooting.

-A celored boy entered the cigar store of Mr. C. E. Surau, on King street, near George, early yesterday morning, in the clerk's absence and made off with some small change and a box of cigars.

-A chimney in Chapel street, near Alexander, took fi'e on Thursday evening, causing some excitement among the residents of that locality. The fire was extinguished before any damage could result.

-The Washington Light Infantry meet every Monday evening at half-past 7 o'clock, preparing for the 22d of February. Numbers of the ex-members, who have "done parading," are joining as contributing members, and thus they help forward the young club.

DEATH OF A COLORED DIVINE.

The funeral services of the Bev. Edward Lawrence, colored, who died on Thursday, were performed at the Morris street colored Baptist Church, yesterday, by the Rev. Jacob Legare. The services were attended by the entire colored clergy of the city, and a large congregation. The deceased clergyman was about sixty-eight years old, and an industrious and respected man. He pursued the occupation of a painter and glazier, and was at one

The Week of Prayer-United Services. The week of prayer at the beginning of the New Year was marked by attendance and interest so great as to justify the belief that the month may be appropriately concluded by a series of night services, with preaching by ministers of the various evangelical denominations. The following order of exercises was unanimously adopted by the Charleston Clerical Union, at their first meeting in their new room, on Monday of the present week. The Rip Van Winkle-The Rush for Seats. There is an unprecedented rush to secure seats for the three representations of Rip Van Winkle, which will be given at the Academy on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. The fame of Jefferson has spread far and near, and it is very evident that all Charleston is going to see him. They who desire to have anything more than standing room will do well to call at the box office betimes this morning.

AMUSEMENTS.

Janauschek's Deborah. The second appearance of Madame Janaus chek in Deborah drew a large audience to the Academy of Music last night. The strong points of the play were loudly applauded, and fadame Janauschek was called before the curtain at the conclusion of the third act. At the matinee to-day Madame Japauschel appears in the dual role of Lady Dedlock and the French maid in the dramatized version of Bleak House. At night, Madame Janau schek will make her final appearance this season. Macbeth will be given, with Madame Janauschek as Lady Macbeth. This will bring to an end an engagement which has been a source of high intellectual pleasure to the citizens of Charleston, and has, no doubt, brought the dramatic treasury to high water

Dear Sir-Your samples of "Meat Juice" were received through the politeness of your sgent, and used very freely during the summer in cho-iera infantum, low forms of fever and other dis-eases peculiar to this climate. I cheerfully add my testimony to its dietetic value, and regard your "Meat Preparation" of great benefit, not only in infantic, but also in aduit practice. It is with pleasure that I can recommend its use to the profession generally from past experience and the happy results in my practice. Vary respectfully, &c., ROBERT LEBRY, M. I find that as soon as they lose their appetite and com-mence to deteriorate generally, your Preparations admin stered is well retained and most often en-joyed by the little sufferes. They improve rapidly in health and strength. Other preparations are not so easily tolerated, on account of their un-plea-ant door and taste. THE PALMETTO GUARD RIFLE CLUB.

The new caps ordered by this company were on exhibition yesterday at Messrs. Johnson & Brown's, King street, through whom they were ordered. The uniform of the Palmettoes is a gray irock coat and pants, with green facing, and the cap will make the uniform accord in both color and taste. It is of the style known as the fatigue cap, and is of gray cloth with a green cord around the band and up each side. A gilt wreath enclosing the letters "P. G." ornaments the front of the cap, and renders it the neatest thing in the military line that is worn in the city. The Palmetto Guard can trace their record to the far ante-bellum period when, in the pomp and panoply of the glorious militia, they were the wonder of all beholders. The Bifile Club, though clad in a sober suit of gray, has the same esprit de corps that actuated its progenitor, and will make an appearance at the coming parade creditable to the honored name it bears.

WASHINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY CEL-EBRATION.

At a late meeting of the Carolina Rifle Club, it was determined that an escort should be offered to the Washington Light Infantry Rifle Club on their approaching celebration on the 22d of February.

This club, the oldest organization of the kind in this city except the German Rifle Club, was founded during the summer of 1869, and is entitled to the credit of having introduced into this community a social feature, which now has become a very important and interesting addition to our public amusements, and serves as a vent for the ebuilition of the military spirit natural to Carolinians. Under the leadership of Major Theodors G. Barker, its first president, it has always been, and still is, an active participant in sports of the fest and the field, and numbers among its members some of the best amateur shots in the city. As we are informed that they intend making their appearance in a new uniform, on the occasion above alluded to, we feel sure that they will present a fine appearsace and promote materially the success of the lete.
