THE STRONG-MINDED.—Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton has started on a new hobby in the woman's rights movement. She repudiates the half-way bloomer costume, and goes in for an entire similarity in the dress of the sexes. She says: "The true idea is for the sexes to dress as nearly alike as possible. We have seen several ladies dressed precisely like gentlemen, who appeared far more elegant and graceful than any real man we ever saw. A young lady in Fifth Avenue, dressed in male costume for years, traveling all over Europe and this country. She says it would have been impossible to have seen and known as much of life in woman's attire, and to have felt the independence and security she did, had her sex been proclaimed before all Israel her sex been proclaimed before all Israel and the sun. There are many good reasons for adopting male costume. First, it is the most convenient dress that can be invented; second, in it woman should secure equal wages with man for the same work; third, a concealment of sex could protect our young girls from those terrible outrages from brutal men reported in all our daily papers."

FREE TRADE.—We are not quite certain that in the "new order of things" the South is going to be the especial champion of free trade, but now that the question has been mooted whether free trade is an article of the Democratic creed the New York. creed, the New York World prints a historical statement showing what is the record of the party on the subject:

Democratic, 1837 to 1842, average tariff, 39 per cent. Whigs, 1842 to 1846, average tariff, 35 per cent.

Democratic, 1846 to 1850, average tariff, 24 per cent. Whigs, 1850 to 1855, average tariff, 26 per cent.

Democrats, 1857 to 1861, average tariff,

19 per cent. Republicans, 1862 to 1864, average tariff, 42 per cent.

Republicans, 1864 to 1869, average tariff, 48 per cent.

A SMART CHILD .- A good story comes from Rome, In preparation for the Coumenical Council, the Pope ordered from his architect certain embellishments, the plan of which was brought for his inspection by that gentleman's little boy. Charmed by the plan, the Pope opened a drawer full of gold, and said to the child, "Take a handful of coin as a reward for the beauty of your father's work." "Holy Father," replied the child, "take it out for me; your hand is bigger than mine." Pius IX. could not help smiling, and obeyed the child.

OLD BANK BILLS, Old Bank Stock, City Coupons, Mutilated Currency, By D. GAMBRILL, Main street.

To the People of South Carolina:

The above Company was organized in 1866, in consequence of the wholesale forfeiture of Southern policies by Northern companies. The Southern policies by Northern companies. The unparalleled success of the enterprise has forced several of these companies to restore their Southern policies, from the fact that they could not operate in our midst without the appearance of honesty.

We keep all our money at home to build up our impoverished country-every dollar of premium being safely invested in the State from which it is derived. The institution is purely Southern, and hence should appeal Company and r with great force to the patriotism and sympathy of every Southern heart.

July 9 thy of every Southern heart.

'Tis not our purpose to make war on other companies, but to exhibit the special advantages offered by this purely Southern Company-founded on patriotism and solid wealth. Its ratio of assets to liabilities—the true test of a company's strength, is second to none on this continent-being nearly 800 to 100.

Whenever and wherever we have presented the claims of this Company, it has not only enlisted the sympathies of our people, but has also secured their hearty co-operation. We have secured 500 policies in Soxth Carolina since the 10th of February. We number among our Directors Gen. Wade Hampton and Col. Wm. Johnston, gentlemen well known to every citizen of South Carolina. We appeal personally to the people of South Carolina to assist in pushing forward this deservedly popular Southern institution.

J. H. MILLER. General Agent Southern Life Insurance Co. B. W. LAWTON, State Agent.
