

THE EXECUTION OF FOUR PRINCES.—There are rumors that three or four princesses of Spain and two servants have been accused of stealing gold chains, diamonds and other precious stones. The gold chains, diamonds and other precious stones that were attached to the king's sword have been taken away, and imitation stones had replaced them. These depredations, it is rumored, were made during the late reign, but have only recently been discovered. Some say those accused of the theft have received ninety lashes each. The servants are to be executed and the princesses, disposed of as the law provides for persons of their rank, if found really guilty of the theft. Others say the ladies of rank who are implicated are being tried, and it is not yet known what their punishment will be. If there is any basis for the rumors, and the princesses should be implicated and found guilty, their sentences will doubtless be death. The execution of princes and princesses would be at some prominent temple. They would be bound and fastened in a bag, a block of chanwood of triangular shape would be placed on the ground, and the fastened body turned face downwards so as to bring the neck below the chin on the triangular block. At a given signal the first executioner, after raising his chanwood cudgel, would strike the fatal blow on the back of the neck, and the three other executioners, similarly armed, would continue their blows upon the body until it entirely ceased to quiver. The bag containing the body would then be weighted and thrown into the river. This, it is stated, is the way in which His Royal Highness, Kroma Luang Rak Kouasat, was executed in 1849.—India Statesman.

Pack has indeed nearly put his girde about the earth. It has already been announced to our readers that the mayor of Adelaide, Australia, and the mayor of New York exchanged greetings by telegraph on Friday. The Boston leather men turn over $90,000,000 a year in boots and shoes. Their losses by the fire won't be one-tenth of it.
