

Local Items.

CITY MATRONS.—The price of single copies of the Phoenix is...

We are authorized to state that delegates in attendance upon the meeting of the Patrons of Husbandry...

The weather, New Year's day, was more like spring than winter. Yesterday, however, a drizzly rain set in...

Mr. George Symmers remembered the bird spiritually on New Year's day. We thank him kindly.

The Columbia Methodist Female College—President S. B. Jones—opened on Wednesday with forty boarders.

Professor LyBrand's Silver Cornet Band celebrated the New Year by furnishing capital music in different portions of the city.

Mr. Wash. Rishbourg, while hunting on the 1st, accidentally discharged his gun into his body, near the arm-pit.

Messrs. Kinnard & Wiley are prepared to furnish their patrons with the latest styles of clothing and gent's furnishing goods.

Mr. E. R. Stokes, the veteran and venerable book-binder, is making himself more generally known by issuing a series of New Year cards.

At a meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company, held on Monday evening last, the following officers were elected for the present year.

In the Supreme Court, yesterday, the point was argued, has a Judge of Probate authority to grant, on the application of the personal representative of the deceased...

Emancipation Day—January 1—was celebrated by a parade of the different colored military companies.

Capt. F. W. Dawson, of the Charleston News, and Gillespie, of the Southern Express Company, are in the city.

Persons having in their possession articles of furniture belonging to the Columbia Female College, are requested to return them immediately.

We are authorized by the Board of Trade to state that they have secured the services of lawyers to resist the collection of the license tax imposed by the Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Columbia.

There will be four eclipses this year—two of the sun and two of the moon. The only one the people of this country are interested in will be a total eclipse of the moon...

Colonel Cad. Jones has taken editorial control of the Rook Hill Lantern.

SUPREME COURT, THURSDAY, January 2.—The Court met at 10 A. M. Present—Chief Justice Moses and Associate Justices Wright and Willard.

The State of South Carolina ex rel. R. O. Shiver et al., vs. Solomon L. Hoge, Comptroller-General. Petition for mandamus. Attorney-General Melton moved for further time in which to file return.

Scott, Williams & Co., respondents, vs. Joseph Crews, appellant, and the same vs. the same. Appeal abandoned.

B. McNamee, appellant, vs. A. G. Waterbury et al., respondents. Mr. Chamberlain for appellant. Mr. Bacon for respondents. Mr. Carroll on same side.

George W. Patterson, survivor, respondent, vs. the South Carolina Railroad Company, appellant. Mr. Chamberlain for appellant. Mr. Monteith for respondents.

At 3 P. M., the Court adjourned until Friday, 3d, at 10 A. M.

MAIL ARRANGEMENTS.—The Northern mail opens 6.30 A. M. and 8.00 P. M.; closes 8 P. M. and 11.00 A. M.

PHENIXIANA.—Anybody can soil the reputation of any individual, however pure and chaste, by uttering a suspicion that his enemies will believe and his friends never hear of. No reputation can refute a sneer, nor any human skill prevent mischief.

He that reads and thinks, acquires knowledge. He that "has no time to read," loses one of life's greatest blessings and enjoyments, and will find when his physical abilities are exhausted, he has no mental treasures away to compensate for the loss.

The dearest object to a man should be his wife, but it is not unfrequently her clothes.

Cincinnati couples can go to the Rev. Mr. Youm for matrimony, and to Lawyer Severance for divorce.

It is brushwood; judgment is timber. The first makes the brightest flame, but the other gives the most lasting heat.

Flowers are the alphabet of the angels, wherein they write on hills and plains mysterious truths.

Venus will be the evening star until May 4th.

The latest styles wedding and visiting cards and envelopes, tastily printed, can be obtained at the PHENIX office.

Old newspapers for sale at PHENIX office, at fifty cents a hundred.

"Happy" Cal Wagner's Minstrels performed in Irwin's Hall, last evening. The house was well filled, notwithstanding the ugly weather.

PROTECT YOUR HEALTH.—Cold and moisture combined have a torporizing effect upon the bodily organs, and the digestive and secretory processes are apt to be more tardily performed in winter than in the fall.

Emancipation Day—January 1—was celebrated by a parade of the different colored military companies.

Capt. F. W. Dawson, of the Charleston News, and Gillespie, of the Southern Express Company, are in the city.

Persons having in their possession articles of furniture belonging to the Columbia Female College, are requested to return them immediately.

We are authorized by the Board of Trade to state that they have secured the services of lawyers to resist the collection of the license tax imposed by the Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Columbia.

There will be four eclipses this year—two of the sun and two of the moon. The only one the people of this country are interested in will be a total eclipse of the moon...

Colonel Cad. Jones has taken editorial control of the Rook Hill Lantern.

SUPREME COURT, THURSDAY, January 2.—The Court met at 10 A. M. Present—Chief Justice Moses and Associate Justices Wright and Willard.

The State of South Carolina ex rel. R. O. Shiver et al., vs. Solomon L. Hoge, Comptroller-General. Petition for mandamus. Attorney-General Melton moved for further time in which to file return.

Scott, Williams & Co., respondents, vs. Joseph Crews, appellant, and the same vs. the same. Appeal abandoned.

B. McNamee, appellant, vs. A. G. Waterbury et al., respondents. Mr. Chamberlain for appellant. Mr. Bacon for respondents. Mr. Carroll on same side.

George W. Patterson, survivor, respondent, vs. the South Carolina Railroad Company, appellant. Mr. Chamberlain for appellant. Mr. Monteith for respondents.

At 3 P. M., the Court adjourned until Friday, 3d, at 10 A. M.

BERLIN, January 1.—Proseutions have been instituted against the Roman Catholic journal in this city...

LONDON, January 1.—The log of the steamship Minnesota, which arrived at Liverpool Tuesday last, from New York, shows that her cargo of cotton, was on fire when the vessel was five days out from the latter port.

New York, January 1.—A Times New Orleans despatch says that it is rumored that there will be an attempt made to inaugurate the McEnery State officials on the 9th instant, and trouble is anticipated.

The World says that several of the sub-committees of the Louisiana delegation are still in this city, and are daily receiving assurances that the people of the North are beginning to thoroughly understand their cause and the situation of affairs in Louisiana.

A despatch from Washington to the Tribune says that some Louisiana Liberals are now in this city discussing the shortest way out of the political muddle in that State.

GALESBURG, January 1.—Eight of the finest stores on Metropolitan block have been burned. Loss $100,000. The opera house was saved by demolishing adjoining houses.

BOSTON, January 1.—A fire broke out in the granite building, 281 Washington street, destroying $50,000 worth of property.

A Newport special states that the schooner Louisa A., from Hayti for Boston, put in there last night with the loss of her deck load, and reports that on the 20th of December saw an unknown ship of 1,000 tons on fire, but no crew or boats could be seen.

New York, January 1.—The Fifth Avenue Theatre, situated on Twenty-fourth street, adjoining the Fifth Avenue Hotel, was burned to the ground soon after the matinee performance this afternoon.

The Herold's Washington despatch says: It appears that Attorney-General Williams has been used as a cover for the usurpation by Federal bayonets in the Louisiana trouble.

BALTIMORE, January 1.—By the falling of a scaffolding at the Liberty Copper Mines, in Frederick County, Md., yesterday, twenty-six miners were precipitated several hundred feet into a pit.

New York, January 1.—The weather is clear and cold this morning. The streets are in good condition, the slush having frozen. All stores and places of business are closed, everybody intent upon enjoying holiday in making calls.

Mr. J. S. Adams, Emigrant Commissioner for Florida, who disappeared on Saturday last, has returned to his hotel in Jersey City.

A. T. Stewart has presented $1,000 to the fund for disabled firemen.

The last accident of the year was the explosion of a soda water fountain at Nays' factory, on Rose street, last night. One man was injured and the building badly damaged.

WASHINGTON, January 1.—Gen. B. B. Simmes, bearer of the vote of the electoral college of Louisiana, has arrived here and delivered his packages. It is understood that the vote he bears for President is blank, and that for Vice-President is Grant Brown.

HALIFAX, January 1.—The brig Britannia has been wrecked in Cow Bay. The crew were saved. The schooner Anna Laura has been lost near Point Alconic. The crew were saved.

RALPH, January 1.—Gov. Tod R. Caldwell and the other State officers were inaugurated to-day. Upon taking the oath, Gov. Caldwell said, in substance: "In assuming this high and responsible office, believe me I will ever make it a point of my duty to take care of the interests of the people of North Carolina."

Boston, January 2.—The organization of the Legislature indicates that Boutwell will be the Senator to succeed Sumner.

MACON, GA., January 2.—The State Emigration Convention is in night session. Hon. James F. Long was elected permanent President. 200 delegates are present.

New York, January 2.—Evening.—The Government bought no bonds to-day.

Madeline C. Battle, of Alabama, has brought suit in the United States Circuit Court of this District, against the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of this city, to recover $10,000—the amount her husband's life was insured for.

WASHINGTON, January 1.—The reception at the White House to-day fully equaled in the splendor of its details than of any former occasion. The ceremonies commenced with the reception of the diplomatic corps, which formality was executed by Secretary Fish.

The Ministers, resplendent in full court costume, and many of them accompanied by the ladies of their families, were headed by Blaque Bay, the Dean of the corps, followed by Sir Edward Thornton, and all were presented in the Legations Baron Lederer, Austrian Minister; Carl Heyre, Peruvian Minister and lady; Count Corti, Italian Minister; Senor Moriscal, Mexican Minister; Mr. Kard Von Schlozer, German Minister; Counselor Borger, Brazilian Minister and lady; Admiral Felodo de Boruabe, Spanish Minister; Baron Olfenberg, Russian Minister; the Marquis de Noailles, French Minister; Senor Martin, Colombian Minister; Senor Dardon, Minister from Guatemala; Mr. Delfosse, the Belgian Minister; Gen. Gorloff, General Agent of Russia, residing in New York; Mr. Stenerson, the Swedish Minister; the Chevalier Lobo, Portuguese Minister; Mr. Preston, Haytian Minister; Mr. Westernberg, Minister from Netherlands; Mr. Mori, Charge d'Affaires, Japan; Senor Gonzales Errazuriz, Charge d'Affaires, Chili; Senor Dardon, Charge d'Affaires, Denmark.

The Right Honorable Russel Gurney, British Claims Commissioner, and lady, were also received with the diplomatic corps. The army and navy were largely represented, and presented a brilliant appearance.

GALESBURG, January 1.—Eight of the finest stores on Metropolitan block have been burned. Loss $100,000. The opera house was saved by demolishing adjoining houses.

BOSTON, January 1.—A fire broke out in the granite building, 281 Washington street, destroying $50,000 worth of property.

A Newport special states that the schooner Louisa A., from Hayti for Boston, put in there last night with the loss of her deck load, and reports that on the 20th of December saw an unknown ship of 1,000 tons on fire, but no crew or boats could be seen.

New York, January 1.—The Fifth Avenue Theatre, situated on Twenty-fourth street, adjoining the Fifth Avenue Hotel, was burned to the ground soon after the matinee performance this afternoon.

The Herold's Washington despatch says: It appears that Attorney-General Williams has been used as a cover for the usurpation by Federal bayonets in the Louisiana trouble.

BALTIMORE, January 1.—By the falling of a scaffolding at the Liberty Copper Mines, in Frederick County, Md., yesterday, twenty-six miners were precipitated several hundred feet into a pit.

New York, January 1.—The weather is clear and cold this morning. The streets are in good condition, the slush having frozen. All stores and places of business are closed, everybody intent upon enjoying holiday in making calls.

Mr. J. S. Adams, Emigrant Commissioner for Florida, who disappeared on Saturday last, has returned to his hotel in Jersey City.

A. T. Stewart has presented $1,000 to the fund for disabled firemen.

The last accident of the year was the explosion of a soda water fountain at Nays' factory, on Rose street, last night. One man was injured and the building badly damaged.

WASHINGTON, January 1.—Gen. B. B. Simmes, bearer of the vote of the electoral college of Louisiana, has arrived here and delivered his packages. It is understood that the vote he bears for President is blank, and that for Vice-President is Grant Brown.

HALIFAX, January 1.—The brig Britannia has been wrecked in Cow Bay. The crew were saved. The schooner Anna Laura has been lost near Point Alconic. The crew were saved.

RALPH, January 1.—Gov. Tod R. Caldwell and the other State officers were inaugurated to-day. Upon taking the oath, Gov. Caldwell said, in substance: "In assuming this high and responsible office, believe me I will ever make it a point of my duty to take care of the interests of the people of North Carolina."

Boston, January 2.—The organization of the Legislature indicates that Boutwell will be the Senator to succeed Sumner.

MACON, GA., January 2.—The State Emigration Convention is in night session. Hon. James F. Long was elected permanent President. 200 delegates are present.

New York, January 2.—Evening.—The Government bought no bonds to-day.

Madeline C. Battle, of Alabama, has brought suit in the United States Circuit Court of this District, against the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of this city, to recover $10,000—the amount her husband's life was insured for.

WASHINGTON, January 1.—The reception at the White House to-day fully equaled in the splendor of its details than of any former occasion. The ceremonies commenced with the reception of the diplomatic corps, which formality was executed by Secretary Fish.

The Ministers, resplendent in full court costume, and many of them accompanied by the ladies of their families, were headed by Blaque Bay, the Dean of the corps, followed by Sir Edward Thornton, and all were presented in the Legations Baron Lederer, Austrian Minister; Carl Heyre, Peruvian Minister and lady; Count Corti, Italian Minister; Senor Moriscal, Mexican Minister; Mr. Kard Von Schlozer, German Minister; Counselor Borger, Brazilian Minister and lady; Admiral Felodo de Boruabe, Spanish Minister; Baron Olfenberg, Russian Minister; the Marquis de Noailles, French Minister; Senor Martin, Colombian Minister; Senor Dardon, Minister from Guatemala; Mr. Delfosse, the Belgian Minister; Gen. Gorloff, General Agent of Russia, residing in New York; Mr. Stenerson, the Swedish Minister; the Chevalier Lobo, Portuguese Minister; Mr. Preston, Haytian Minister; Mr. Westernberg, Minister from Netherlands; Mr. Mori, Charge d'Affaires, Japan; Senor Gonzales Errazuriz, Charge d'Affaires, Chili; Senor Dardon, Charge d'Affaires, Denmark.

The Right Honorable Russel Gurney, British Claims Commissioner, and lady, were also received with the diplomatic corps. The army and navy were largely represented, and presented a brilliant appearance. Judges of Supreme Court and Court of Claims, members of Congress, veteran soldiers and oldest inhabitants paid their respects, as usual. At 1 o'clock, the public reception took place, and the entire ceremonies terminated at 2 P. M.

WASHINGTON, January 2.—Cotton quiet—mildling 20 1/2; receipts 948 bales; sales 300; stock 10,418.

NEW ORLEANS, January 2.—Cotton in fair demand—good ordinary 18 1/2; low middling 19 1/2; receipts 2,340 bales; sales 4,000; stock 162,140.

troops in Havana, numbering 400, commanded by General Chinchilla, went to Holguin on Saturday. The volunteer, consequently, again mount guard on the fortifications at the city. Acting Captain-General Ceballos has a judge advocate to investigate the recent operations at Holguin. The journals say that only five officers and four privates were killed at Holguin. The insurgents carried off the regimental chest. The insurgent sympathizers say the rebels will soon hold an election for the purpose of displacing Cespedes, with Ignacio Agramonte as President. Their object is to create a favorable impression abroad, and avail themselves of Agramonte's superior abilities and energy.

On the night of the 22d instant, the insurgents attacked the town of Magranon, but were repulsed by the troops—not, however, before they had burned eight houses in the town. On the night of the 28th instant, the gens d'armes repulsed a body of insurgents, who were marching to attack the fortified Spanish camp of Maragnan.

ATLANTA, January 2.—The up and down passenger trains collided on the Macon and Western Railroad, thirty-seven miles from this city, this morning. Eight negroes killed; and ten or twelve negroes and three whites injured. Three cars and the engine were wrecked. Their wardrobe and piano were on board. The troops were unhurt. Patti was active in relief to the wounded. The negroes were emigrating to Mississippi.

CINCINNATI, January 2.—A gorge at Henderson, Ky., and Rookport, Ind., broke to-day, with trifling damage.

WASHINGTON, January 2.—Sumner had a bad night. He is better this morning. The statement of public debt for the past month shows an increase of $1,684,307.80. The payments during the past month have been very heavy and the receipts light. The coin balance in the Treasury is $73,359,275.74, and the currency balance $8,876,573.52. The special deposit of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of indebtedness is $25,370,000, and the coin certificates are $23,263,000.

Probabilities.—For New England, Easterly to Southerly winds, cloudy weather and rain. For the Middle States, Easterly to Southerly winds, veering to Southerly and Westerly, cloudy weather and rain. For the South Atlantic States, Southerly to Westerly winds, cloudy weather and rain. For the Gulf States, winds veering to Westerly and North-westerly, falling temperature and clearing weather. From Kansas and Missouri to Minnesota and Lake Superior, Westerly to Northerly winds, rising barometer, falling temperature and clear and clearing weather, these conditions extending Southward and Eastward over Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio and Michigan. The low barometer over Northern Illinois will move North-eastward over Lake Huron into Canada.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. LONDON, January 2.—Noon.—Consols 91 3/4 @ 91 3/4. 5s 90.

LIVERPOOL, January 2.—Noon.—Holiday. NEW YORK, January 2.—Noon.—Stocks dull. Gold dull, at 12. Money tight, at 1/2 @ 1/2 and interest per day. Exchange—long 9 1/4; short 10 1/2. Governments dull but firm. State bonds dull but steady. Cotton quiet; sales 260 bales—uplands 20 1/2; Orleans 21. Flour, wheat and corn steady. Pork quiet—mess 13.00. Lard quiet—steam 7 3/4 @ 7 3/4. Freight quiet.

P. M.—Cotton quiet and firm; sales 1,686 bales—uplands 20 1/2; Orleans 21 1/2. Flour quiet but steady. Whiskey heavy and lower, at 96. Wheat a shade firmer and in moderate demand. Corn steady. Rice dull, at 8 @ 8 1/2. Pork firmer, at 13.50. Lard firm, at 7 3/4 @ 8 1/4. Freight steady. Cotton—net receipts 797 bales; gross 5,497. Sales of futures to-day 9,360 bales: January 19-16, 19 3/4; February 19 1/2; March 20-16, 20 1/2; April 20 1/2; May 20 1-16, 20 1/2; June 20 1/2. Money stringent, at 1-16 @ 3-16 commission. Sterling 9 1/2 @ 9 1/2. Gold 11 3/4 @ 11 3/4. Governments—little doing. States dull but steady.

LOUISVILLE, January 2.—Flour in fair demand and firm—extra family 6.75. Corn firm and unchanged. Provisions in fair demand and steady. Pork 12.00. Bacon—shoulders 5; sides 7 1/2 @ 8, packed. Lard 7 1/2 @ 8 1/2. Whiskey firm, at 89.

CINCINNATI, January 2.—Flour and corn unchanged. Pork dull. Lard—kettle rendered 7 1/2 @ 7 1/2; steam 7-1-16 @ 7 1/2; auction sales of 700 tierces at 7.75 per cwt. Bacon steady and unchanged. Whiskey firm, at 88.

AUGUSTA, January 2.—Cotton quiet and steady—middling 18 1/2; receipts 1,215 bales; sales 1,017.

BALTIMORE, January 2.—Cotton quiet—middling 20; receipts 948 bales; sales 300; stock 10,418.

NEW ORLEANS, January 2.—Cotton in fair demand—good ordinary 18 1/2; low middling 19 1/2; receipts 2,340 bales; sales 4,000; stock 162,140.

GALVESTON, January 2.—Cotton quiet—good ordinary 17 1/2 @ 17 1/2; receipts 2,419 bales; sales 800; stock 68,793.

NONFOLK, January 2.—Nothing doing in cotton—low middling 18 1/2; receipts 1,076 bales; stock 1,107.

CHARLESTON, January 2.—Cotton firm; stock light—middling 19 1/2; receipts 2,007 bales; sales 600; stock 42,982.

BOSTON, January 2.—Cotton quiet—middling 20 1/2; receipts 5,827 bales; sales 300; stock 6,000.

PHILADELPHIA, January 2.—Cotton quiet—middling 20 1/2.

SAVANNAH, January 2.—Cotton quiet; good grades scarce—middling 19 1/2; receipts 4,036 bales; sales 475; stock 86,446.

WILMINGTON, January 2.—Cotton firm—middling 19 1/2; receipts 87 bales; sales 17; stock 3,364.

MOBILE, January 2.—Good grades of cotton firm; low grades easier—good ordinary 18 1/2; low middling 19 1/2; receipts 1,609 bales; sales 1,000; stock 41,880.

Deaths in Charleston for the week ending 23th ult., 16—whites 6, colored 10.

COLUMBIA, S. C., January 2, 1873.

The public are cautioned not to negotiate for cash an order on the Land Commissioner, given by R. O. DeLoach, and in my favor, or in any way trade for same, as he holds this paper without my authority, and payment being stopped by me.

Mr. Budds has had no connection with this house for the last four months.

WM. GORMAN, Columbia Hotel.

Furniture Sale. BY D. C. PEIXOTTO & SONS. THIS (Friday) MORNING, at 10 o'clock, we will sell, at our Auction Store, without reserve, Sundry articles of FURNITURE, consisting of Chairs, Tables, Bedsteads, Mattresses, Lounges, Banchos, &c.

1 Ormiston Silk Rep Parlor Set, 6 Green Rep Parlor Chairs. 6 No. 1 Carpets, And many other useful articles in house-keeping. Terms cash. Jan 3

BY JACOB LEVIN. ON MONDAY MORNING, 6th instant, I will sell, before the Court House, at 10 o'clock, One acre LOT, situated on the East by Barhamville road, and fronting thereon 104 feet 4 inches, commencing from North-east corner of Ford Cooper's lot, and North by 12 feet wide, separating this lot from lands of Gruber, and fronting on this lane 417 feet 4 inches, and West by lands of Ellen Fair Campbell.

On the premises is a good COTTAGE BUILDING, with necessary out-buildings, &c. TERMS OF SALE—Cash. Sale positive. Jan 3

BY D. C. PEIXOTTO & SONS. ON MONDAY MORNING NEXT, sale-day, at 11 o'clock, we will sell, in front of the Court House, All that LOT, with DWELLING and OUT-BUILDINGS thereon, situated on the corner of Pennington and Main streets, formerly known as the FENTON HOUSE. Said lot measures front on Richardson street 104 feet, more or less, and runs back 190 feet, more or less.

TERMS OF SALE—One-half cash; balance in six and twelve months; secured by bond and mortgage, bearing interest at seven per cent. per annum; purchasers to pay for papers; property to be insured and policy to be assigned. The above property will be sold at the risk of the former purchaser, he failing to comply. Title perfect. Jan 1

To Rent. A FOUR-ROOM COTTAGE HOUSE. Apply at this Office. Jan 2

A New Law Firm. ELLIOTT & TRADEWELL, No. 6 Law Bldg. R. B. ELLIOTT. JAMES D. TRADEWELL. Jan 3

Notice of Copartnership. WE, the undersigned, have this day entered into copartnership for the purpose of carrying on an extensive CIGAR AND TOBACCO TRADE. Our means are ample, and our efforts to please will be more than doubled. The success of the "INDIAN GIRL," since her advent in Columbia has been unparalleled in the Cigar trade. This can be accounted for only by the superiority of the stock, and the low prices at which goods are sold. We hope for a continuation of the favors of the public, which we will always strive to deserve. The style of the new firm will be PERRY & SLAWSON. J. B. PERRY. J. B. SLAWSON. Jan 3

A CHANCE TO DRAW THE CAPITAL PRIZE!

We open this date a fresh lot of No. 1 BLANKETS, of very superior quality. Also, a full line of BALMORAL and BOULEVARD SKIRTS, Brown and Bleached Domestic Prints, &c.

As the season is advancing, we offer these, together with other goods in the DRY GOODS line, at unusually low figures, and as the rush upon us is tremendous, the chances are, unless you call soon, you will lose the prize.

PORTER & STEELE. Jan 3

Citizens' Savings Bank of S. C. ALL SAVINGS DEPOSITS made in this bank on or before the 5th day of each calendar month will bear interest for that month as if deposited on the 1st instant.

Coal! Coal!! Coal!!! TONS of that famous post-off An-thracite COAL is now offered for sale. English long ton, 2,240 pounds. Terms—cash. Apply to B. A. REEDMAN, Dec 24 Inv. Coal and Wood Dealer.

Stolen. TWO large Walnut Gilt Framed PICTURES of LEE and JACKSON. Ten dollars reward will be paid for the recovery of the same. H. SOYNER, Proprietor National Hotel. Dec 31

Business Men, Take Notice! ALL persons are notified that by terms of City Ordinance, all BUSINESS LICENSES are required to be paid before the 6th proximo. These rules will be strictly enforced. CHAS. L. BARNUM, City Treasurer. Dec 31

To Rent. ONE-HALF of a good DWELLING HOUSE, to a small family. Inquire at Dexter Street, Assembly street. Dec 28 C