Small Things.

A traveler through a dusty road
Strewed acorns on the lea,
And one took root and sprouted up,
Aud grew into a tree;
Love sought its shade at evening time,
To breathe its early yows,
And age was pleased in heats of noon
To bask beneath its boughs;
The dormouse loved its dangling twig,
The birds sweet music bore;
It stood a glory in its place,
A blessing evermore.
A little spring had lost its way

A little spring had lost its way

A little spring had lost its way
Among the grass and fern;
A passing stranger scooped a well,
Where weary men might turn;
He walled it in, and hung with care
A ladle at the brink;
He thought not of the deed he did,
But judged that the toil might drink.
He passed again—and lo! the well,
By summers never dried,
Had cooled ten thousand parching tongues,
And saved a life beside!

A dreamer dropped a random thought,
'Twas old, and yet 'twas new—
Asimple fancy of the brain,
But strong in being true;
It shone upon a genial mind,
And lo! its light became
A lamp of life, a beacon ray,
A menitary flame;
The thought was small—its iscues great,
A watch-fire on a hill;
It shed its radiance far a down,
And cheers the valley still.

Ana oneers the valley still.

A nameless man, amid a crowd
That thronged the daily mart,
Let fall a word of hope and love,
Unstudied, from the heart;
A whisper on the tunnit thrown—
A transitory breath—
It raised a brother from the duet,
It saved a soul from death.
O germi O founti O word of lovel
O thought at random cast!
Yo were but little at the first,
But mighty at the last, But mighty at the last.

Misspacen Convidence.—The case of Miss Shortwell, who was introduced to a "gentleman" by the "gentlemanly clerk" of a New York hotel, and entrusted her new acquaintance with the care of her trunk, which contained bonds to the value of $25,000, and which she found, on arrival at Chicago, were missing. on arrival at Chicago, were missing, added to the fact that the bonds did not belong to her, but were placed in her care to be delivered to another person, adds to the catalogue of cases of "misplaced confidence" which are so often beneated to placed confidence which are so often brought to the notice of the public through the press of the country. On this subject, the Philadelphia Ledger truthfully remarks:

"To all country people visiting large cities—to all travelers thrown into pro-cities—to all travelers thrown into promiscuous company in hotels or on railway trains—there is no safer rule than to be wary of the 'plausible strangers' who make approaches in money matters. Listen to them, but trust them not—they're fooling you. If a stranger asks you to let him have ten dollars for five minutes, and offers you a thousand dollars. you to let him have ten dollars for five minutes, and offers you a thousand dollar draft to hold as security, don't do it; you can buy a barrel full of such drafts at five cents a pound. If the 'good fellow' you have just got acquainted with at the hotel or in the cars has a pressing bill to pay, but, unfortunately, has nothing less than a hundred dollar note, and the man with the hill has no change, don't take any part in that operation either, even if the 'good fellow' hands you over a pocket-book full of hundred dollar notes as security. In all'such cases, ramember that honest people never ask strangers or new acquaintances to lend money, to exchange watches, to help them to pay bills, or to do anything of that sort. Ninety-nine times in a hundred, the man who does it is a knave, and as such de ware of him. For the and as such, beware of him. For the fate of the lady who carried $25,000 in bonds in her trunk, and then handed the trunk over to the care of a 'gentleman,' she had just been introduced to, man, she had just been introduced to, zost people will feel sorry, but they will, nevertheless, be of the opinion that she was so dreadfully verdant that she does not even read the newspapers."

(CAPITAL $1,000,000.) SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO.

This Guano is now so well known in all the Southern States for its remarkable effects as an agency for increasing the products of labor, as not to require special recommendation from us. Its use for seven years past has established its character for reliable excellence. The large fixed capital invested by the company in this trade affords the surest guarantee of the continued excellence of this Guano.

The supplies put into market this season are, as heretofore, prepared under the personal superintendence of Dr. St. Julian Ravenel, Chemist of the Company, at Charlesten, S. C., hence planters may rest assured that its quality and composition are precisely the same as that heretofore sold.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring Gray on Faded Hair to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical Hair Dressing ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says: "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the Best Preparation for its intended purposes."
