Special Notices.

To Patients.—The almost daily receipt of voluntary testimonials from every part of the country, from physicians, clergymen, old and young, male and female, is sufficient to convince the most skeptical that Dr. TUTT'S EXpectorant is the most valuable Lung Disease of the age; many wonderful cures have been performed by it, as may be seen by hundreds of certificates in the hands of the proprietor. Try it and you will doubt no longer.

BANDRIDGE, Ga., September 24, 1869.
Mr. L. H. M. TUTT—Dear Friend: Enclosed please find post office order for five dollars, and I shall have to apologize for not writing to you before. I have been quite sick, and very busy when well, therefore neglected to do so. You will please send me two more bottles of your Expecto-rant. It is certainly a splendid thing for a cough; it has cured me effectively of my cough, and also several others to whom I gave it. With a thousand thanks for the medicine you sent me, I remain your sincere friend,
E. C. SOOTT.

Annual Meeting of the South Carolina Railroad Company and of the South-western Railroad Bank. Now known as, that I, FRANKLIN J. MOSES, Jr., Governor of the State of South Carolina, in order that justice may be done, and the majesty of the law vindicated, do hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS for the apprehension and delivery, in any jail in this State, of the said Amos Pipkin, with proof to convict. The said Amos Pipkin is about five feet high, of black complexion, has black eyes and hair, is thick set, and speaks somewhat rapidly. When he effected his escape, he had in his possession about sixty-five dollars in currency, and being a desperate character, is doubtless armed with two revolvers and a dirk knife. The course which the murderer will in all probability pursue, lies through the parishes of Christ Church [where the murder was committed,] and Saint James' Sanctos, and Georgetown County, towards the North-eastern Railroad, in the direction of Wilmington, North Carolina, and from that city by boat to Kingston, North Carolina, at which place his nearest relatives now reside. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed, at Columbia, this SEVENTH DAY OF MARCH, A. D. 1873, and in the ninety-seventh year of the independence of the United States of America. By the Governor. F. J. MOSES, JR. H. E. HAYNE, Secretary of State. Mar 9
