The Cold Water Man.
By JOHN G. SAYS.
There lived an honest fisherman—
I knew him passing well—
Who dwelt hard by a little pond,
Within a little dell.
All day that fisherman would sit
Upon an ancient log,
And gaze into the water, like
Some sedentary frog.
A cunning fisherman was he,
His angles all were right;
And when he scratched his aged poll,
You'd know he'd got a bite.
To sharm the fish he'd never spoke;
Although his voice was fine;
He found the most convenient way
Was just to "drop a line."
And many a "waggone" of the pond,
If made to speak to-day,
Would own, with grief, this angler had
A "mighty" taking way.
One day, while fishing on the log,
He mourned his want of luck—
When, suddenly, he felt a bite,
And jorking—caught a duck!
Alas! that day the fisherman
Had taken too much grog;
And being but a landman, too,
He couldn't "keep the log."
In vain he strove with all his might,
And tried to gain the shore;
Down, down he went, to feed the fish,
He'd baited off before!
The moral of this mournful tale
To all is plain and clear;
A single "drop too much" of rum
May make a watery bier.
And he who will not "sign the pledge"
And keep his promise fast,
May be, in spite of fate, a stark
Cold-water man at last.

THE LATE HANGING.—Everybody does not read the papers. A buyer from a Western town entered one of our wholesale establishments on the 21st ult., and the salesman in attendance, by way of starting conversation, remarked:
"Well, Foster and McElhenny have gone up."
"You don't say so!" said the provincial, with a wise look. "Failed or suspended?"
"Suspended," responded the clerk, taking in the situation.
"What forced 'em to that?" asked the other.
"The sheriff put in an execution," was the dry response.
"Ah, well," said Rural, wisely wagging his head. "There'll be a lot more of you fellows goin' the same way, if you don't look out."
[Boston Commercial Bulletin.]

The Danbury News says it was an elegant trowsen the daughter of the Khedive of Egypt had, not elegant trowsers, as another item had it.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver and bowels. They are a mild purgative, and an excellent vegetable. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever, which serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the obstructions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. The impurities of the system are expelled, and the blood purified, which change, when reckoned on the vast majority of cases, can hardly be computed. The sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, on occasional use.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which they cure rapidly:
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion; Listlessness, Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action, and remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses, to produce the effect of a drastic purgative.
For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills make him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Ayer's Ague Cure,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and, indeed, all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

NO one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.
That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER AND AGUE from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its promontory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of everybody; and in bilious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE prevails, everybody should have it, and use it freely, both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral; consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.
Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Biliousness, Catarrh, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons traveling, or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure; and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.
For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity, and producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines fail.
