Better than Gold.

Better than grandeur, better than gold, Than rank and titles a thousand fold, Is a healthy body and mind at ease, and simple pleasures that always please; A heart that can feel for another's woe, and share ite joys with a genial glow, With sympathies large enough to enfold All men as brothers, is better than gold. Better than gold is a conscience clear, Though toiling for bread in an humble sphere.

Doubly blessed with content and health;
Untried by the lust of cares of wealth;
Lewly living and lefty thought
Adorn and enneble a poor man's cot,
For minds and morals in nature's plain
Are the genuins tests of a gentleman.

Better than gold is the sweet repose Of the sone of toil when their labors close; Better than gold is the poor man's sleep, And the balm that drops on his slumbers deep,

Bring sleeping draughts to the sching bed
Where luxury pillows its downy head,
His slieple opiate deems
A shorter road to the land of dreams.

Better than gold is a thinking mind,
That in the realm of books can find
A treasure surpassing Australian ore,
And live with the great and good of yore,
The sage's lord and the poet's lay,
The glories of the empire pass away,
The world's great dream will thus enfold,
And yield a pleasure better than gold.

Better than gold is a peaceful home,
When all the fireside character come,
The shrine of love, the heaven of life,
Hallowed by mother, or sleter, or wife;
However humble the home may be,
Or tried with sorrow with Heaven's decree,
The blessings that never were bought nor sold.

And centred there, are better than gold.

APPLICABLE.—A king once interrogated his philosopher, as to the state of the weather, and being afterward better informed by a countryman, (who said he got the information from his jackass,) immediately discharged the philosopher, purchased said jackass, and placed it in the position of the philosopher, and ever afterwards every jackass wants an office. Some fools (?) even go so far as to say that none but asses get there.

A Practical Joke.—A play called "Three Years in a Man Trap" is extensively advertised in city street cars by hand-bills in large letters. A wag out out the words "Man Trap," in bold type, and fastened it to the bustle of a young woman, and she went sailing down the street, unable for a time to imagine why it was that every gentleman got out of it was that every gentleman got out of her path so nimbly.

There was some smiling at the an-nouncement of the reasons why the French opera company remains in Boston next week to bring out "Orpheus in Hell."

wheeler house, columbia, s. c.

THE undersigned, for many years (he hopes favorably) known to the community of Columbia, S. C., and to the traveling public generally, begs to inform his friends and the public that he has leased for a term of years the building just creeted at the corner of Main and Plain streets, (opposite R. C. Shiver & Co.'s Dry Goeds Store,) which will open this day as a first class Hotel and Restaurant, to be known as the "WHEELER HOUSE," and trusts he will receive the patronage of his friends and the traveling public in aid of his enterprise. Neither expense nor trouble has been spared to provide all modern conveniencies, and great pains have been taken to secure the best, most reliable and courteous help in all the departments, whilst the general management will be under his own supervision and receive his undivided attention. A special feature of this establishment will be the opening of a fine suite of rooms for the accommodation of Ladies, where Meals and Oysters will be served at all hours.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
COLUMBIA, S. C., March 21, 1873.
The attention of the citizens of Columbia is called to the following extract from a city ordinance in relation to shade trees. No one has a right to destroy, or in any way to mutilate the shade trees in the city, and any infringement of the ordinance in relation thereto will be punished by fine, as provided by law: "Section 15. Be it further ordained, That if any person shall cut down, kill or wilfully damage any tree, natural or transplanted, growing in the streets of Columbia, or shall wilfully destroy, injure or remove any post, railing or bex, used or erected for protecting such trees or the sidewalks, such person shall be subject to a pensity not exceeding forty-five dollars for each and every offence."
