THE PHOENIX
Book, Job and Newspaper
STEAM PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT

Let our just Censures Attend the True Event.
BY J. A. SELBY. COLUMBIA, S. C., WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 21, 1873. VOL. IX—NO. 52.

Common Carriers.—There is a contrary of decisions by the courts as to common carriers, in different parts of the country, from time to time; hence the Illinois Legislature is making a mistake on the subject, Common carriers, under a new bill, which has passed one branch of that body, and will probably become a law, are forbidden to evade or lessen any of their responsibility under the common law by any provisions or stipulations printed on the receipts given for property they may take in charge for transportation. This bill, if the report of its provisions should prove correct, will enunciate wholesome doctrine in reference to freight transportation which will be very welcome to the community.

A Pittsburg physician has been sued for $10,000 for drawing the kidney for a broken leg too tight. When his attention was called to the fact, he paid no attention to it. If physicians have to pay $10,000 for errors of judgment they will be likely to advance their fees.
