SOUTHERN LIFE ASSURANCE.—The Ex contive Committee of the Southern Life Assurance Company have issued an address stating details regarding the business of life insurance. A case which is likely to call forth all the emotional resources of a French jury is told as follows: A young may, having accepted a challenge from a noted duel-ist, goes home and tells his mother all about it. The good lady rushes off distracted to the house of the duelist, whom she finds practicing with a pistol in his garden, and what is worse, hitting the mark every time. She implores his mercy, but is coldly repulsed by the marksman, who declares his intention to kill her son. Thereupon, in her wrath and terror, the wood to be the mark the wood to be the mark that the wood to be the mark that the wood to be the woo and terror, the poor woman snatched up a pistol and shoots the dualist dead. The chances are that she will be accquitted, and, indeed, it is difficult to imagine any case which offers more genuine extenua-

It was six or seven hundred yards in width, but was of extraordinary violence. We are assured that many of the stones weighed a pound, and that, four days afterwards, at the old Christmas place, three miles from Warrenton, an ice house could have been filled with the hail that was lying about. It split the shingles of Mr. Austin Plummer's house, killed his cattle, and stripped the forests and fields bare as mid-winter. Nothing like it was ever seen before in that section.

WHAT A STATE'S RIGHTS ARE WORTH TO MR. FOX'S RELATIVES-A FORTUNE Won.-In 1864, Charles Fox, a bachelor since its establishment since the war—it being the first company organized after the war—and that its ratio of assets to its liabilities will compare favorably with other companies, and also that it is other companies, and also that it is the war. He died about three years ago. Several nephews and nieces contested the will, on the ground that Mr. Fox was not will, on the ground that Mr. Fox was not of sound mind. After a tedious trial, Surrogate Hutchings admitted the instrument to probate, deciding that the testator was of sound mind; but while holding that the bequest of the personal estate to the United States Government was valid, the devise of the real estate was void, since the United States Government could not take land by devise in this State. From this decision the Government appealed to the general term of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals. Within a few days the Court of Appeals have given their decision, sustaining Surrogate Hutchings in all his conclusions.

By this decision the nephews and nieces, now living in a tenement, with barely the necessaries of life, come into possession of about $150,000 of real estate, and are raised from poverty to comparative affluence. - New York Sun.

POLYANDRY IN THE SANDWICH ISLANDS. The census return of these islands for 1872 shows a fearful decline among the native population-a decrease at the rate of about 1,200 a year. Taxes for the Construction of Rail-ROADS DECEMBED Unobestitutional. The Supreme Court of Ohio has pronounced unconstitutional a law of that State empowering communities to leve taxes for the donetruction of radicodd.
