A gentleman took the following despatch to a telegraph office: "I announce with grief the death of Uncle James. Come quick to the death of Uncle James. We are his heirs. John Black." The clerk, having counted the words, said: "There are two words too many, sir." "All right, cut out 'with grief.'"

The publishers of the Maryville Bulletin have instituted suit against the telegraphic editor of the Cincinnati Commercial for infringing upon their patented invention of the phrase, "winter lingers in the lap of spring." Damages placed at $1,000,000. The Bulletin feels certain of recovering the entire amount.
