Lava-Lingen. In Klamath, when the sin was low.
The laws beds held Mr. Lo.
Who dared to fight, and wouldn't go.
For all the peace commissioners.

In truth, it was a gallant eight, To see three thousand men of might, With guns and cannons day and night, Fight fifty dirty Indians.

For every flot of lava bed
They threm a pound of blasing lead,
A ten for every Medec dead,
In three weeks rearing battery.

Fire, Gillem, all thy cannons brave, Till Ecar-fuced Charley in his cave And Captain Jack shall find a grave, With all his bloody chivalry:

We'll bless you when you've killed them all, The men and women, great and small, And not a babe is left to squall F Its hatred of our rictory.

For this is freedom's chosen land,
The heritage of all that's grand,
And the millenium's at hand,
With a few more scalps for cinctury.

As the ocean has washed away some fifteen feet of the bluff at Long Branch in the last seven or eight months, it is estimated that in the next ten years it will have destroyed the present site of the hotels. The course of the Atlantic threatens to be very destructive to the sea-fronts recently purchased at extravaonly to be used as a medicine, and always according to directions.

Temperance Bitters

They are the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. They act upon a diseased liver, and stimulate to such a degree that a healthy action is at once brought about. As a remedy to which Women are especially subject it is superseding every other stimulant. As a Spring and furnimer Tonic they have no equal. They are a mild and gentle Purgative as well as Tonic. They purify the blood. They are a splendid Appetizer. They make the weakstrong. They purify and invigorate. They cure Dyspepsia, Constitution and Headache. They are as a specific in all species of disorders which undermine the beddily strength and break down the animal spirits.
