

THE PHOENIX,
Published Daily and Tri-Weekly,
THE GLEANER,
Every Wednesday Morning,
BY JULIAN A. SELBY,
Editor and Proprietor,
Office on Richardson St., near Taylor.

The Phoenix is the oldest Daily Paper in South Carolina, has the largest circulation in the upper portion of the State, and has been regularly issued since its inception—March 21, 1865.

Book and Job Printing of every description faithfully attended to.

Daily, six months, $1 00; Tri-Weekly, 2 50; Weekly, 1 50.

Inserted in the Daily at 75 cents per square for the first and 50 cents each subsequent insertion. Long advertisements at the week, month or year, at reasonable rates.

The Angel of Sleep.
He droops his plumed snow-soft wings,
He waves his balmy hand,
And wide the gate of slumber swings,
That guards to shadowy land,
Forgot in Time, the sentinel
That stands outside the door;
The gloomy train of oars as well
That clogged our steps before.
O'er of oblivion's river,
Thy draughts are sweet and deep;
For Memory slumbers on her throne,
Rocked by the angel, Sleep.

The New York Herald, speaking of the frequency of suicides in that city, says that it is more common there than any other crime, and that the mortality list shows that ten out of eleven of those who commit it are Americans or Germans. The Irish rarely take their own lives, owing, perhaps, to their greater buoyancy and elasticity of spirits.

A Fond du Lac (Wis.) youth who was shot through the head a year ago, is not a whit the worse for it, which shows that there is some advantage in not being overburdened with brains under certain circumstances.

An honest lover in Massachusetts has given to his prospective father-in-law a load of wood to replace that consumed during his evening "sparking" visits last winter.
