Bethesda Fountain, the latest glory of the New York Central Park, was public-ly unveiled Saturday afternoon, in the presence of a very large number of citizens. This work of art is, from models designed and executed at Rome by Miss Emma Stebbins, daughter of Henry G. Stebbins, President of the Board of Park Commissioners. The design of the fountain was suggested to Miss Stebbins by the passage in Scripture describing the pool of Bethesda. the pool of Bethesda.

THE LAST OF THE LINE.—The Washington Star remarks that Chief Justice Chase was the last of his line; that neither he nor his brothers—who all died before him—left any male descendants, and that therefore his branch of the family name will become extinct. The same may be said of his two illustrious predecessors, Judges Taney and Marshall, and this makes of the matter a Marshall, and this makes of the matter a cnrious coincidenca.

Bishop Deggett, of Virginia, is to preside over the District Conference for the Montgomery District of the Alabama Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, which will convene at Tuskegee, on Thursday, the 5th instant.

A Michigan lady, named Dinkelspell, said she couldn't live with such a horrid name any longer. She, therefore, the other day, married a Mr. Gusdoferchen.
