"Tis Mid-night.
 'Tis mid-night, and the setting sun
 Is rising in the far, far West;
 The rapid rivers slowly run;
 The frog is on his downy nest;
 The penny goat, and pigmy cow,
 Hilarious hop from bough to bough.

In point of coolness, few things, and in the way of telegraphing, nothing ever surpassed the despatch which young Walworth sent to his uncle. Going straight from the room which was the scene of the murder, at the Sturtevant Hotel, to the telegraph office, he there despatched the following message to his uncle: "Sturtevant House, New York—J. Hardin, Chicago, Illinois: I have shot and killed father. Frank H. Walworth."

IMPORTATION OF RICE.—Rice imported from India and China is, according to the decision of the Treasury Department, subject to the duty applied to cleaned rice in all cases where the raw material has been changed or partially cleaned by processes in vogue in those two countries.

Out of 683 children received into a foundling hospital in Montreal, last year, 642 died. Montreal needs a Charles Dickens to write up that hospital. It savors strongly of Dotheboys Hall.
