A remarkable fish story has just come from India: "A native, while catching fish in a tank, put the head of one in his month and bit it, as the fish was rather troublesome in the matter of wriggling. Suddenly one of the sharp points in the back fin stuck in his hand, he opened his month to call for help, and the fish, giving a quick plunge, jumped down his throat and there firm ly stuck. It was only taken out, and by small pieces, after he had been carried to the hospital. He was so exhausted that he died as soon as it was removed."

The father and mother of the girl and boy who went over Niagara Falls, some time since, have settled near Youngstown, that they may be near the burial place of their unfortunate children.

Col. Wm. K. De Graffenreid, of Macon, Ga., died last Saturday.
