

Stand Together.

It is the same in religion, society and politics. You must stand together, if you are to accomplish anything great or useful. The cross is as much the symbol of union, as of suffering and faith.

And is it not the same in politics? Are the great interests involved in Government less worthy of exclusion and combination than the interests of society?

"Stand together," people of the South! Government, society, God—all call upon you to "stand together."

it. "Stand together" for your civilization, your liberties and your God; and this mighty and glorious country will yet be one of the greatest and freest people the sun has ever shone upon.

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY INVOKED FOR THE MODOCS BY THE PEACE TALKERS.—A number of letters has been received from Quakers and other friends of the Indian peace policy throughout the country, asking Executive clemency in behalf of the Modoc Indians lately on trial for the murder of General Canby.

THE DUTCH WAR IN SUMATRA.—It has been ascertained from a naval officer just returned from the East, that all the tribes of the Northern portion of Sumatra heretofore tributary to the Dutch have joined the Sultan of Acheen.

FRENCH AND SPANISH INTRIGUES.—In addition to the other embarrassments and perils of the Spanish Republic, it is now threatened with an insidious influence on the side of France.

PUT AGREEMENTS IN WRITING.—How many misunderstandings arise from the loose ways in which business matters are talked over; and when each party puts his own construction, the matter is dismissed by each with the words, "All right—all right!"

A white girl of Washington, of respectable parentage and handsome, has eloped with a colored wagon driver.

Thrilling Account of a Fight Between the Sioux and Pawnees.

PAWNEE RESERVE, PLATTE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, August 12.—The following thrilling account of the awful battle between the Sioux and Pawnees, near the Republican River, is from a correspondent, who took part in the fight:

At daylight, on the morning of August 5, the Pawnees, numbering about 400, including squaws and children, broke their camp on the Republican, near Frenchman's Fork, twenty-five miles West of Red Willow, and started on the trail due North in the direction of a herd of buffaloes which the scouts had seen the day previous.

Free man's Journal.

A COMMERCIAL CONUNDRUM.—The following from the cashier of a Southern bank has been often answered in these columns:

SOUTH CAROLINA, August 15, 1873. EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL OF COMMERCE: An answer in your columns to the question put below would, I am sure, be considered final, if not satisfactory, to any one who reads the Journal of Commerce.

REPLY.—Where a note or draft is payable "in exchange on New York," the tender of any first class sight bill on this city is legal and sufficient.

THE BLACK CROOK.—The New York correspondent of the Charleston News says: The theatrical critics are lost in a whirlwind of adjectives.

PHENIXIANA.—"Smothered Venus" is a new dish, and, in spite of its name, it's only beefsteak and onions.

When an editor wishes to view a man on all sides, he interviews him. In these times we fight for ideas, and newspapers are our fortress.

HOUSEWIVES.—A grand safeguard for doing right is to hate all that is wrong. A truly Christian heart is ever ready to make allowances for the weaknesses of humanity.

CITY MATTERS.—Subscribe for the PHENIX—don't depend on borrowing.

The weather, yesterday, was all that could be desired—clear and pleasant. The summer tourists are beginning to return—every train brings a delegation.

The Southern Express Company has rented Mrs. Hinrichson's store, on Richardson street, nearly opposite the PHENIX office, and will use it as their main office.

Ex-United States Marshal Johnson contradicts, by telegraph, the report, copied from the Charleston News and published in the PHENIX, that he had been jailed in Charleston.
