BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, October 1.—Continued heavy rains have damaged the cotton crop throughout the entire lower Rio Grande Valley. Worms have appeared on a number of plantations in this vicinity, doing much damage. The lowlands are covered with several inches of water, stopping the work of gathering the crop. The charge of the Voss Publico, that armed United States soldiers had again invaded Mexico, is untrue. When the steambot Little Fleta stranded on the Mexican bank of the Rio Grande, Army Paymaster Nichols was a passenger, with a guard of United States soldiers, who assisted in saving the cargo and guarded it and the paymaster's safe after landing it from the wreck. RALEIGH, N. C., October 1.—The first Ku Klux trial before the State Courts came off before Judge Watts, at Johnson County Superior Court, this week, and resulted in the conviction of the parties of the murder of two men—one white, the other colored. They went disguised to the colored man's house and whipped him to death on the 6th of September. They were convicted to-day, and sentenced to be hanged on the 13th of November. Over 3,000 articles have been entered for exhibition in the coming State Fair, which commences on the 13th instant. Hon. D. W. Voorhees, the orator of the society, will reach here on the 15th. The citizens are making preparations for the accommodation of the large crowd of visitors that is expected. BUFFALO, October 2.—Millard Fillmore opened the International Exposition. D. Bedford, of New Orleans, followed. The audience is very large. ST. LOUIS, October 1.—Cashier Stevens, of the St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company, is missing, with $6,500 from the safe. His accounts appear correct, and his friends do not believe he embezzled the funds. In Nashville, on Wednesday, the second day of the Blood Horse Association races, the first race, two mile heats, was won by Arizans, beating Lampie, Carrington and Duster—time 3:46, 3:44, 3:44. The second race, mile heats, was won by Quartermaster, beating Survey, Florence, Emer Florence and Lady Greenfield. NEW YORK, October 1.—Mid-night.—A visit to the different savings banks in this city, to-day, shows that all fears on the part of depositors have vanished, and large numbers who draw out their money last week have returned it. There are about $13,000,000 in greenbacks in the vaults, which, when all signs of any run are passed, will be distributed through other channels. NEW YORK, October 2.—The Danforth Locomotive Works is working on half time. They have plenty of money in bank, but can't get a check cashed. John C. Heenan is fatally sick, with hemorrhage of the lungs. 386 delegates to the Evangelical Convention, which assembles to-morrow, have arrived. G. B. Grinnell & Co., brokers and bankers, have suspended. Paton & Co., one of the oldest dry goods houses of New York, have temporarily suspended. MEMPHIS, October 2.—Twenty yellow fever interments yesterday. The First National Bank has resumed. LOUISVILLE, October 2.—A meeting of Hebrews subscribed $1,200 for Memphis and Shreveport. The Planters' Bank, People's Bank and Louisville City National Bank withdrew from the clearance house, on the ground that there was no necessity for a combination, and the clearing house was abolished by mutual consent. FORT KLAMATH, October 2.—The erection of the galleys for the Modocs has commenced. They will hang from one beam, in public, on Friday morning, at 10 sharp. SHREVEPORT, October 2.—Seven yellow fever deaths yesterday. UTRICA, N. Y., October 2.—The State Democratic Convention met at 10 A. M. The platform denounces the salary grab, and demands a repeal of the law; demands revenue reform; demands a return to specie payments; demands that the policy of paper inflation, protective tariff and Government subsidies shall be abandoned; holds out the right hand of hearty fellowship to the farmers of the United States, in their just resistance to the exactions of monopolists; demands that those entrusted with the public money shall be subjected to the restraints imposed upon taxpayers and collectors, so that an examination of their books will show any fraudulent and corrupt transactions; recognizes the Liberal Republicans as worthy coadjutors, and invites them to co-operate in restoring the State and General Governments to purity. The Convention then proceeded to nominate a State ticket. Diederich Willers, Jr., of Seneca, was nominated for Secretary of State; Thomas James, a Liberal Republican, and the present incumbent, for State Treasurer; Sylvanus H. Sweet for State Engineer; Asher P. Nichols for Controller; David Pratt for Attorney-General; James Jackson for Canal Commissioner; George W. Millsbaugh for State Prison Inspector. The Atlanta Constitution, referring to the Georgia State Fair, says: "The great contest of the Rome fair has been that between the girls for a cooking stove as a premium for the best dinner. The result of the contest has been looked to with eager interest, and the awards were delivered amid rousing excitement. The best cook among these contending bachelors was decided to be Miss Hattie J. Johnson, to whom was awarded the first premium in the shape of the John B. Gordon cooking stove. To Miss Octavia Shropshire was given the second premium. This second premium was the R. E. Leo stove, offered by Messrs. Sessy & Walker. The committee found it hard to decide. They recommended that twenty dollars be given to Miss Alice Camp, a twelve-year-old girl, for the very excellent dinner she concocted. They also recommended ten dollars to Miss E. J. Shropshire. The awarding of the premiums was very exciting."

"Poor Henry" is now said to have speculated largely in Confederate bonds when they were first issued, about the time of the first Mapasas. The aspect of the struggle changing a little, he sold out. He is said to have contributed $2.50 to the benefit of a young Confederate in a Northern prison, the son of a former acquaintance; Stewart, the millionaire merchant, for the same reason sending $5, accompanied with the severest reprimand. And now, after making a great deal out of the Federal Government, of which he was a pet, "Poor Henry" winds up with $200,000 of the Government money in his possession. Far be it from us to damage the broken banker pecuniarily. We have stated, we suppose, what will rather commend him to the "truly loil," and it should not be surprising if some of them were to assist him out of difficulty for the reason that he was so bitter against the Confederacy—particularly after he failed to make money out of it. He thus gave proof of his hatred that none could question. No wonder he hated the South.

Tuesday, October 14, elections will be held in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Iowa. Pennsylvania will choose a State Treasurer and a Supreme Court Judge; Ohio a Governor and other State officers, and Iowa a Governor, other State officers and a Legislature. In Iowa the issue is distinctly made between the farmers' candidate and the regular Republicans.

A PAIR OF ROUGHS INSECT THE PRESIDENT.—Two roughs who, while partially drunk, called out to President Grant in a rude and boisterous manner as he was riding to church Sunday, with his family, were arrested and taken to the Central guard house, and this morning were fined by the police court $5, on a charge of loud and boisterous conduct on the street.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.—The wool carding machinery and buildings, at the tannery of Messrs. Pickle & Wilson, in the village of Williamston, in Anderson County, were consumed by fire on last Tuesday morning. This is a heavy loss, both to the owners and the community in which it was situated.

About thirty five hands engaged in the car building department of the Central Railroad, in Savannah, were discharged Tuesday. They had just completed the work of building 100 cars.

The Court of Appeals of New York has reversed the decisions of the lower courts in the Westfield cases, in which the plaintiffs were awarded damages for wounds received by the explosion of that steambot two years ago.

COLORED FAIR GROUND.—The colored people of Abbeville have purchased some five acres of land in the neighborhood of the depot from Dr. J. W. Marshall, as a fair ground. This is a step in the path of progress.

Some of the newspapers talk about "a great Republican victory in Delaware," just as if they didn't know that the number of voters in that State is so small that neither party ever had enough to claim a majority.

The British and American Commission, which has been in session at Newport during the summer, completed its work Thursday evening, 25th ultimo. The Commission began its session at Washington, September 26, 1871, and by the terms of the treaty, it was to complete its work on or before the 26th of September, 1873. The number of claims which have been presented by British subjects against the Government of the United States is 478, and their aggregate amount is not far from $95,000,000. These claims were for damages from acts of either Government between April, 1861, and April, 1865, other than those known as the Alabama claims. They ranged from loss of clothes in Gen. Sherman's march to $15,000,000 for a quicksilver mine in Santa Clara, Cal., and included losses by the Legal Tender Act, by confiscation of vessels, destruction of property by Union and rebel troops, for unlawful arrests, for claims on Confederate bonds, &c. Of the British claims, 181 have been adjudicated in favor of the claimants, and the amount allowed upon them is $1,929,819. In very few instances, however, has a claim been allowed to its full amount. By far the greater portion of the 181 which have secured a favorable decision, have been reduced to an insignificant fraction of what was set forth in the papers that were filed by the claimants. 297 have been wholly rejected. On the other hand, only nineteen claims of all kinds have been brought before the Commission by citizens of the United States against the British Government. They were for losses sustained by the St. Albans raid, by the capture of a vessel on Lake Erie, by the detention of cargoes of saltpetre at Calcutta, &c. These claims amount to $1,000,000, and not one of them has been allowed. The decision is final, and the money, by the terms of the treaty, must be paid within a year. The full text of the final decree is as follows: OFFICE MIXED COM. ON AMERICAN AND BRITISH CLAIMS, UNDER TREATY, MAY 8, 1871. NEWPORT, N. I., September 25, 1873.

The undersigned, Commissioners appointed under the twelfth article of the treaty signed at Washington, on the 8th day of May, 1871, between the United States of America and her Britannic Majesty, do now make their "final award" of and concerning the matter referred to them by said treaty, as follows, that is to say:

We award that the Government of the United States of America shall pay to the Government of her Britannic Majesty, within twelve months from the date hereof, the sum of $1,929,819 in gold, subject to the deduction provided for by Article XVI of the treaty aforesaid, for and in full satisfaction of the several claims on the part of corporations, companies or private individuals, subjects of her Britannic Majesty, upon the Government of the United States, arising out of acts committed against the persons or property of subjects of her Britannic Majesty, during the period between the 13th day of April, 1861, and the 9th day of April, 1865, inclusive; said sum being the aggregate of the several separate awards upon such claims made in writing, in duplicate, and signed by us or such of us as assented to said separate awards. And all other such claims on the part of subjects of her Britannic Majesty against the United States, which have been presented and prosecuted for our award, have been and are hereby disallowed or dismissed in manner and form as will appear by the several separate awards in writing concerning the same, signed as aforesaid. Certain other claims on the part of subjects of her Britannic Majesty against the United States were also presented, but were afterward, and before any award was made thereon, withdrawn by the agent of her Britannic Majesty, as will appear by the record of the proceedings of the Commission kept in duplicate, and which will be delivered to each Government herewith.

And we award that all claims on the part of corporations, companies or private individuals, citizens of the United States, upon the Government of her Britannic Majesty, arising out of acts committed against the persons or property of citizens of the United States, between the 13th day of April, 1861, and the 9th day of April, 1865, inclusive, not being claims growing out of the acts of vessels referred to in the first article of said treaty, have been and are hereby disallowed; separate awards upon each of said claims having been made in writing, in duplicate, and signed by us or such of us as assented to such separate awards.

And we refer to the several separate awards made and signed as aforesaid, as a part of this our final award—it being our intent that the proceedings of this Commission shall have the force and effect named and provided in the seventeenth article of said treaty.

(Signed) L. CORTI, JAS. S. FRAZER, RUSSELL GURNEY, Commissioners.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT AT TARBORO.—An accident occurred on Tuesday morning, at Tarboro, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad bridge, crossing the Tar River at that point, by which one man was killed and others severely injured. The trestle work of the bridge had been damaged by the recent rains, and as the engine drawing the freight train, was crossing the bridge, it gave way, and the engine and tender were precipitated into the water. The engineer, Mr. Joseph Sellars, was severely, but not dangerously hurt, and a white man, by the name of Gas Gay, the fireman, was drowned.

Opening of Mr. Seeger's New Season—Stone-cutters' Entertainment. Mr. Editor: On Tuesday evening last, Mr. Seeger kindly invited all the stone cutters and blacksmiths employed on the new Post Office and Court House to a lunch and refreshment on the above occasion. By 7 P. M., the whole company, numbering upwards of sixty, were all seated in a large and commodious room, fitted up expressly for the occasion. It was brilliantly lighted and most magnificently arranged; the tables laden with all the good things of life, while the liquors and segars could not be surpassed. When all had assembled, Mr. Seeger, in his usual kindly manner, said: GENTLEMEN: I am happy to see you all here this evening. You are all heartily welcome. I hope you will enjoy yourselves. I will endeavor to entertain you to the best of my ability. Mr. Robert Hall occupied the chair, and Mr. Wm. Wright discharged the duties of croupier. After ample justice had been done at the hospitable board, and a few glasses drunk of his "far-famed beer," the Chairman rose and said: Gentlemen, fill your glasses to the brim and drink with me—a toast to our kind host for the evening's entertainment. There is only one thing I regret this evening, and that is being called to the chair, because my abilities will fall far short of doing justice to Mr. Seeger. No language of mine is adequate to express the feelings of this assembly towards him for his great liberality and kindness on this occasion. I can assure Mr. Seeger, although our profession is hard and cold, our hearts are warm. We all highly appreciate your sterling qualities. Gentlemen, I call on all to drink to the health and prosperity of Mr. John C. Seeger in his new establishment. The toast was drunk with "A" the honors, three—"For he is a jolly good fellow," with musical honors. Mr. Seeger returned thanks briefly. The Chairman rose again and said: Gentlemen, the next toast will be one which I am sure you will heartily join in, and that is to drink to the health and prosperity of Messrs. "Harry and Chris." the popular and favorite bartender and clerk, for their courtesy and kindness at all times, and especially on this occasion—drink with all the honors three times three, "for they two jolly good fellows."

Messrs. Harry and Chris. thanked all for the kind manner in which they had drunk to their healths. During the evening, a number of gentlemen favored the company with several splendid songs, which greatly enlivened the evening's proceedings. Mr. Hitebeon rendered some popular airs on the bagpipe, which were warmly applauded—"Who blew his pipes and gard them skirl, Till roof and rafters 'a' did dir."

The evening was spent with the greatest harmony, mirth and song abounding. Among the singers, were Messrs. Wright, Scott, Devine, Barry, Shepherd, Sloyser, MacCabe, Strachan, Conlin and Davis. The singing was excellent, and would have done credit to professionals. A vote of thanks to the Chairman was warmly endorsed. The proceedings terminated about 12 P. M., after a splendid night's enjoyment. The whole affair was a brilliant success, and Mr. Seeger and his worthy assistants deserve great praise for the completeness of their arrangements. R. H.
