AND NOT AT ABBEVILLE.

In consequence of the enormous proportions of these Gigantic Shows, all combined requiring so many cars and the heaviest first class engines to haul them, Col. Thomas Dodamead, General Superinter deut of the Greenville Railroad, notifies the managers of the Big Show that the Abbeville branch, not being constructed for the passage over it of such heavy engines and circus trains as are required for the Great Eastern Combination, he declines to permit them to be run to Abbeville. For the foregoing reason, this Mammoth Show will EXHIBIT AT COKESBURY DEPOT, for which occasion SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN AGREED UPON, whereby the people of Abbeville and surrounding country can secure their tickets at Abbeville Depot for the regular price of admission to said Shows.

$1 for Adults, Children Half Price. Good for Round Trip and Admission to Greatest Show Traveling

And thereby giving to the people, for one PRICE OF ADMISSION, the advantages of both a Railboad Excursion and Grand Circus Performances.
