

THE DAILY PHOENIX.

"Let our Just Censure"

Attend the True Event."

BY J. A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 25, 1873.

VOL. IX—NO. 242.

A preacher in an Illinois town, while laying the corner stone of his new church not long since, said: "If boys and girls do their sparring at church, I say amen to it. I have a daughter whom I cherish as the apple of my eye. When she is of suitable age, I had rather she should be courted in the house of God than in a theatre." That preacher, at the close of his sermons, will invite candidates for marriage to come forward and occupy the front seats, and many will be the marriage fees which will drop into his hand.

Presbyterians are sometimes called "blue." "The epithet," observes a religious exchange, "arose in this way: The distinct dress of the Scotch Presbyterian clergy was a blue gown and a broad blue bonnet. The Episcopalian clergy, on the other hand, either wore no distinctive dress in public services, or else wore a black gown. From this arose the contrasting epithets of 'Black Prelacy' and 'True Blue Presbyterianism.'"

Putting up a stove-pipe in Danbury is politely termed "attending a black crook matinee."

A SPANISH VESSEL,
REGARDLESS of the power of the United States, has seized upon her steamer, torn down her flag, butchered her subjects, and exultingly boasts of the act. The Indian Girl, regardless of expense, has seized upon an opportunity to establish an exclusive Cigar Store, torn down the barrier that heretofore kept smokers from getting good Cigars, at low rates, thus protecting the subjects of Talsacuda, (the swaying weed,) and now proudly defies all competition. Should a fleet make its appearance OUTSIDE OF CHARLESTON BAR, The sensation caused in that city would compare with that caused in Columbia by the appearance of those five cent Cigars, and should the news be sent forth that they are BOMBARDING FORT SUMTER The country would thrill with excitement as the bosom of every smoker does with joy when he hears that those celebrated Manilla Cigars are now sold at ten for one dollar, and other imported goods in proportion. Get a supply for Sunday's smoking. Nov 22

THE late telegrams from Washington, announcing the decision of the United States Supreme Court, concerning the Bills of the Bank of the State, Did not create more excitement in Columbia than was caused by the announcement that there are plenty more of those fine Havana CIGARS, of our own make, which are still all the rage. We also announce that Building and Loan and Greenbacks are Received at Par.

Great throngs are flocking to avail themselves of this opportunity to procure the choice Tobaccos and Cigars to be had At the California Cigar Store. Nov 9 M. SULZBACHER.

ABSOLUTELY SAFE.

Perfectly odorless. Always uniform. Illuminating qualities superior to Gas. Burns in any lamp, without danger of exploding or taking fire. Manufactured expressly to displace the use of volatile and dangerous oils. Its safety under every possible test, and its perfect burning qualities are proved by its continued use in over 300,000 families. Millions of gallons have been sold, and no accident—directly or indirectly—has ever occurred from burning, storing or handling it. "Vae Victis."

IN the present excited state of the advertising mania, we scarcely know how to address our friends. "Unprecedented Rushes," "Enormous Increase of Biz," and "captivating cigar pulls," a liberal profusion of superlatives, together with the quietly whispered-in-your-ear assurance that it is astonishing how the young men stand up to the grave demands upon their physical endurance—really have left our modest style in the shade. We have, however, no desire or love for the sensational. "Water always finds its level," and purchasers of 10 cent hams and cooking butter vamped under the name of "Gilt Edge," soon find their way back to where good goods only are kept; and where no premises are made which are not meant to be performed. Our stock is full, our business fair, (not over-extended,) terms are cash, and our goods are up to the standard we have always maintained. We can promise no more. Verbum sap. Nov 2
