

"Let our Just Censure

Attend the True Event."

BY J. A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 29, 1873.

VOL. IX—NO. 215.

A curious story is going the rounds of the continental journals. The Duke of Meiningen recently started his relatives and his court by marrying privately Fraulein Ellen Franz, an actress. Soon afterward he proposed to take his wife to the villa upon the Lake of Geneva, which was the property of the late Duchess, who was a daughter of Princess Marianne of the Netherlands. The villa is now the property of the Princess Marianne, who, it is said, gave her servants stringent orders not to admit the Duke's present wife on any condition. The ducal couple had, consequently, to abandon their plans.

A curious case of somnambulism was that of an English soldier, who, while on guard during the night at Woolwich Arsenal, recently, fell asleep at his post and started off across the country, trailing his rifle in true military fashion, and only ended his campaign after a march of four miles, by running against a policeman, who arrested him for a deserter.

A SPANISH VESSEL.
REGARDLESS of the power of the United States, has seized upon her steamer, torn down her flag, butchered her subjects, and exultingly boasts of the act. The Indian Girl, regardless of expense, has seized upon an opportunity to establish an exclusive Cigar Store, torn down the barrier that heretofore kept smokers from getting good cigars, at low rates, thus protecting the subjects of Tobacco, (the swaying weed), and now proudly defies all competition. Should a fleet make its appearance

OUTSIDE OF CHARLESTON BAR,
The sensation caused in that city would compare with that caused in Columbia by the appearance of those five cent Cigars, and should the news be sent forth that they are BOMBARDING FORT SUMTER The country would thrill with excitement as the bosom of every smoker does with joy when he hears that those celebrated Manila Cigars are now sold at ten for one dollar, and other imported goods in proportion.

THE late telegrams from Washington, announcing the decision of the United States Supreme Court, concerning the

Bills of the Bank of the State,
Did not create more excitement in Columbia than was caused by the announcement that there are plenty more of those fine Havana CIGARS, of our own make, which are still all the rage. We also announce that Building and Loan and Greenbacks are Received at Par.

Great throngs are flocking to avail themselves of this opportunity to procure the choice Tobaccos and Cigars to be had

The Singer Still Triumphant!
VALUABLE IS THE WORLD'S AWARD!
As shown by sales—proved by sworn returns to the owners of the principal Sewing Machine Patents—which last year amounted to 219,758 Machines, nine out of ten of them being for family use. This is over 45,000 more Sewing Machines than were sold by any other company during the same period, and over one-quarter of all the Machines sold in 1872. These enormous sales are owing to the long-tested merits of the SINGER Machines, which meet the wants of the public in superiority and simplicity of construction, and capability for great variety and excellence of work.

"Væ Victis."
IN the present excited state of the advertising market, we scarcely know how to address our friends. "Unprecedented Rushes," "Enormous Increase of Biz," "ad captivandum cigar puffs," a liberal profusion of superlatives, together with the quietly-whispered-in-your-ear assurance that it is astonishing how the young men stand up to the grave demands upon their physical endurance—really have left our modest style in the shade. We have, however, no desire or love for the sensational. "Water always finds its level," and purchasers of 10 cent hams and cooking butter vamped under the name of "Gilt Edge," soon find their way back to where good goods only are kept; and where no promises are made which are not meant to be performed. Our stock is full, our business fair, (not unprospered,) terms are cash, and our goods are up to the standard we have always maintained. We can promise no more. Verbum sap.
