

New Counties.—The Edgefield Advertiser understands that at the present session of the South Carolina Legislature an application will be made for the formation of two new Counties. One of these new Counties will be composed of a corner from each of the four Counties of Edgefield, Newberry, Laurens and Abbeville, and will be known as Ninety-Six County, with the flourishing town of Ninety-Six as the County seat. The other talked of new County will be formed by cutting off that portion of Edgefield lying North of a direct line running from Johnston's Depot via Meeting street and Mountain Creek, on the Abbeville line, with the County seat in the vicinity of Sardis Church. The Advertiser favors both projects, provided the friends of the last named new County will be satisfied with a smaller portion of Edgefield.

A vagabond beggar Jew applied for alms to Dr. Raphael, the well known Jewish rabbi, and threatened to turn Christian if the doctor would not help him. The doctor said to him: "Very well, go. Become a good Christian, and I will be satisfied; for you have been a very bad Jew."

CHRISTMAS, the season of Festivity and Kind Wishes, the time for the liberal heart and the open hand to manifest themselves, is rapidly approaching. May its genial influences dissipate the gloom that hard times have occasioned. There is nothing so likely to produce this most desirable effect as a generous observance of the time-honored custom of the "giving of gifts." I am prepared for all who desire something useful, something sweet, or something suggestive, in which to typify their love and good wishes towards the object of their regard. Friends, lovers, husbands, wives, can all get suited from my varied and miscellaneous stock, and I pledge myself more than ever to deserve the popular motto, THE LEADER OF LOW PRICES.
