WASHINGTON, December 14 -E. R. Hoar, of Mussachusetts, offered a resolation instructing the Judiciary Com-mittee to inquire and report whether the action of the House is required concerning the official conduct of the Judge of the United States Court for the District of Alabama, and especially whether the Judge has held the terms of his Court required by law, and whether he has continuously and persistently absented himself from the State, and whother his acts and omissions in his office of Judge have been such as in any degree to deprive the people of that State of the benefit of the District Court therein, and to amount to a denial of justice. Adopted. In the House, Judge Harris, of Virginia, offered a bill to abolish the tariff on printing paper, type and type metal; also, a bill to pay old soldiers and widows of the war of 1812, without proof of leyalty.

General Wigfall was on the floor of the Senate and House, and attracted courtesy from all points.

New York, December 15 .- Mr. Waite,

CHRISTMAS, the season of Festivity and Kind Wishes, the time for the liberal heart and the open hand to manifest themselves, is rapidly approach-ing. May its genial influences dissipate the gloom that hard times have occasioned. There is nothing so likely to produce this most desirable effect as a generous observance of the time-honored custom of the "giving of gifts." I am prepared for all who desire something pretty, something useful, something sweet, or something suggestive, in which to typify their love and good wishes towards the object of their regard. Friends, lovers, husbands, wives, can all get suited from my varied and miscellaneous stock, and I pledge myself more than ever to deserve the p pular motto, THE LEADER OF LOW PRICES.

"Yæ Victis."

In the present excited state of the advertising mania, we scarcely know how to address, our friends. "Unprecedented Rushes," Enormous Increase of Biz," ad captandum cigar puffs, a liberal profusion of superlatives, together with the quietly-whise percet-in-your-ear assurance that it is astonishing how the young men stand up to the grave demands upon their physical endurance—really have left our modest style in the shade. We have, however, no desire or love for the sensational. "Water always finds its level," and purchasers of 10 cent hams and cooking butter vamped under the name of "Gilt Edge," soon find their way back to where good goods only are kopt; and where no promises are made which are not meant to be performed. Our stock is full, our business tair, (not unprecedented,) terms are cash, and our goods are up to the standard we have always maintained. We can promise no more. Verbum sap. GEO. SYMMERS.
