

Francisco, December 28.—The civil bark of Francisco Hugo, took place to-day. Louis Blanc delivered the funeral oration. Victor Hugo and all the leading Radicals of Paris were present.

HAVANA, December 29.—The Vos de Cuba says it is rumored that Gen. Barriel has been relieved of the command of the Eastern Department, by orders from Madrid.

LONDON, December 30.—The ship Iron Cross, from Liverpool, the 27th inst., for the South-west Pass, went ashore at Dunny Point, Dundalk. Steam tugs have been sent to her assistance.

A collision occurred in the Downs between the ship Zarich, for Pensacola, and the bark Oliver Emery, from New York for Hamburg. The former was badly damaged, and put into Ramsgate to repair.

CLEVELAND, December 28.—The following communication was furnished the agents of the Associated Press tonight: "The strike now in operation on the leased lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is in direct violation of the rules of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. My advice to every member of the Brotherhood that has quit work on account of the strike is to go to work at once, and to use every influence in their power to induce all persons engaged in the strike to resume work and desist from any interference with the company's property or men. In my opinion, no dishonor will be attached to any man who accepts a situation from the Pennsylvania Railroad during their present difficulties."

"CHARLES WILSON, Grand Chief Engineer."

John Furhenbach, President of the Machinists and Blacksmiths' International Union, has issued orders instructing members of that order to refrain from interfering with the locomotive engineers in their strike.

HARRISBURG, Pa., December 29.—The State Constitutional Convention adjourned sine die, after receiving and counting the vote, and requesting the Governor to issue a proclamation declaring the Constitution in force after January 1st next.

New York, December 29.—The Methodist ministers met this morning, at the Mission Rooms, 805 Broadway. After the usual preliminary devotional exercises, Rev. Dr. Reed made a very elaborate statement of the affairs of the Methodist mission in Germany, holding that the mission was a great success, although considerable opposition had been encountered. He also spoke at length of the good work of the Evangelical Alliance. Rev. E. O. Haven, ex-President of the Northern University, replied forcibly to the main points of Dr. Reed's remarks on the Evangelical Alliance, saying that the Alliance was called at random, and devoted to the reading of compositions and making addresses. He proposed ecclesiastical arbitration as a means of settling denominational quarrels. Rev. Dr. Reed then combated the argument of his opponent.

The steamer Colon brings advices from Aspinwall to the 21st. All was quiet in Panama, although there were rumors of a Conservative rising in the interior. The insecurity of the Interior Railway had led to the consideration at Bogota of plans for a more efficient Government at Panama. It was proposed that the General Government declare the isthmus national territory and assume direct control. It was reported that the Government of the Union had asked the French Minister in Bogota whether France would not agree to exercise a protectorate over it. To which the Minister replied, that such a duty was more proper for the United States of America.

The steamer General Sherman was still at Aspinwall, with a prize crew on board, awaiting the arrival of the Worcester, which she will be sent home for trial. Captain W. E. Hopkins had relieved Captain Cleary of the command of the Benevia, which was in the port of Panama. Captain Cleary returned home in the steamer Colon. Trouble continues between Costa Rica and the Governments of Salvador, Nicaragua and Guatemala. President Guardia, of Costa Rica, had resigned, but continues to direct affairs through the acting President, Senor Barroeta. Nicaragua was fortifying her ports, and had 3,000 men under arms.

In Honduras, an attempt had been made to replace the Provisional President Arias with Ponceana Civa. The movement was instigated by the Government of Salvador and supported by the followers of Palacios. It opened with a military pronouncement on the frontier and was followed by a flight, in which several were killed on both sides. At last accounts Honduras was endeavoring to arrange matters with Salvador through a special envoy, and Mr. Williams, the American Minister, was using his good offices to prevent hostilities.

Dates from Lima to the 14th show that the money stringency continued, although the firm of Dreyfus had resumed payment. The export of guano has revived. Custom receipts were increasing and railroads extending. The Government imposed an export duty of fifteen cents per quintal, and threatened to increase it to twenty-five. The Chili House of Representatives passed an education bill against the opposition of the Conservative party and the protests of the Bishops.

New York, December 30.—The Ossipee reports that the Virginus, when off Cape Fear and in sight of land, in spite of all the efforts of the crew aboard of her, settled and went to the bottom. Shortly after the arrival of the Ossipee, a reporter boarded the vessel and had an interview with the officer of the deck. The latter said he had strict orders not to communicate with anybody in relation to the circumstances attending the foundering of the Virginus. He would not even give the date of the occurrence, or the place where it happened.

The Cuban survivors have been released. The crew of the Virginus cheered them as they passed. They were met on shore by several Cuban leaders and taken to quarters. The only Southerner in the list of survivors is Phillip Metzler, a seagr maker, from Charleston, S. C. The survivors number 101, including one English, one Canadian, eight United States, ten Jamaican and twenty-nine Havana citizens. The average age of the survivors is about twenty-two. There are nine students and nineteen seagr makers. A few are sick but are well cared for.

A Herald special says the Spanish Cortes, which meets January 2, will place Serrano at the head of the Government.

COLUMBUS, O., December 29.—The railroad authorities here say the strike must break before many days. On the other hand, a visit to-day to the rooms of the Brotherhood of Engineers, shows them to be as determined as they were last week. They say Chief Engineer Wilson's orders had no effect on them. The worst feature of the trouble here was the discovery of obstructions on the track of the Little Miami Railroad, in three places within the city limits. An engine about to leave with a train to-night, was found to be jammed. The railroad authorities are attempting to run all their day trains, and have got more away to-day than any day since the strike commenced.

WILMINGTON, December 30.—A steamer, thought to be the Virginus, is sunk about nine miles off the main bar. She sunk in eight fathoms water—five fathoms on deck.

LOUISVILLE, December 30.—All the striking engineers in this vicinity have been advised to accept the offer of the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis Railroad Company, and as none of them resumed work, yesterday, at a meeting of the brotherhood, last night, the authority of Grand Chief Engineer Wilson was disavowed, and reported acts of violence by striking engineers elsewhere were strongly condemned. No violence whatever in this vicinity has been reported.

New York, December 30.—Wm. B. Stevens, of the New York Herald, a passenger on the steamship City of San Antonio, from Key West, jumped overboard and was drowned.

Lieutenant-Commander Maxwell, executive officer of the Ossipee, says the Ossipee left the Fortugus with the Virginus in tow, on the morning of the 19th instant, as already reported. They had fine weather until, a afternoon of Saturday, the following day, when a gale sprung up. They continued to have bad weather like that encountered by the Junata, and the Virginus signaled that she was leaking badly. Capt. Walters, commander of the Ossipee, therefore determined to shape his course for Charleston, S. C., but as they got into smoother water, the Virginus behaved better, and the water was kept out of her fire-room. On the morning of Christmas day, however, the severe weather having continued, the Virginus was again leaking as badly as ever, and the vessels put into Frying Pan Shoals, about ten miles South of Cape Fear Light, where smoother water could be obtained. Here the vessels came to anchor, Captain Walters hoping that the Virginus would ride out the gale. Before daylight next morning (Friday) Commander Woodrow signaled with lights that the Virginus was leaking rapidly, with her fires out and pumps stopped, and that the crew wished to be taken off. Boats were lowered from the Ossipee at daylight, and by 7 A. M. all on board the Virginus were transferred to the former vessel. A heavy sea was running, the work of removing the crew was one of much danger and difficulty, and, therefore, no lives were risked in endeavoring to save their personal effects or any other property on the Virginus. The hawser of the Virginus was cut and a buoy attached to mark her position, in case she sank out of sight. The Ossipee remained at anchor during the day, and at quarter-past 4 P. M., the Virginus, which had been gradually settling, went to the bottom. She sank in eight fathoms water, and her topmasts remained above the surface. The Ossipee then resumed her voyage to this port. Her supply of coal was ample, twenty-five tons still remaining on hand. All on board the Ossipee were well. She will proceed to the navy yard here to-day or to-morrow, after discharging her powder. Capt. Walters has made a written report, which will be forwarded to Washington at once.

The released captives of the Virginus still remain at the Cuban restaurant on Pine street, and the scene there this morning was one of great enthusiasm. Resolutions were adopted returning thanks to Capt. Brattle, of the Junata, for his kindness, and expressing sympathy with him in the loss of his son. It was also resolved that the ex-captives should attend the funeral of the child in a body. Some of the captives, this morning, were greeted by personal friends, and the meeting on these occasions were of the most affecting character.

Capt. Shuffeldt, executive officer of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, said this morning that the obstruction occasioned by the sunken coal barge would probably be removed, and the Spanish frigate released, either to-day or to-morrow. The Arapiques will then proceed to the ordnance dock to receive her guns.

The Junata needs repairs, and there is a leak in her stern, but it is thought she will be placed in order without docking. The report that a large number of men will be discharged from the yard on Wednesday, was said by Shuffeldt to be unfounded. Orders were received from Washington waring directing the heads of departments at the yard to discharge the workmen as circumstances may permit. There are now 3,200 workmen employed at the yard, besides about 600 in employ under outside control. If the appropriations are only sufficient to keep 1,600 men at work, but a considerable number will be kept engaged all the winter. A new sloop is building at the yard, to be completed before spring. The Terror is to be placed in the dry dock, and it will require two months to put her in condition.

SANTA FE, N. M., December 30.—Reliable reports have just reached here, that the trouble in Lincoln County, in this Territory, between Americans and Mexicans, is daily growing more serious. At the last report, on the 10th instant, six or seven more persons had been killed. It seems that the friends of the American previously killed went to Lincoln Plaza, last Saturday, where a dance was in progress, when trouble arose between the Americans and Mexicans, which finally culminated fatally, as above stated. Some reports say that eight men and one woman were shot. Other reports give the number as six men and one woman. Intense excitement prevails, and it is feared that more bloodshed will follow.

WASHINGTON, December 30.—The President will receive the soldiers of the Mexican War on New Year's Day.

Probabilities—For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, East of the Mississippi River, North-westerly to North-easterly winds, with clear weather and low temperature, followed by partly cloudy weather on the immediate coasts, and rising temperature on the Gulf. The temperature will rise on the middle Atlantic coast to-morrow afternoon.

BALTIMORE, December 30.—Mrs. Cooke, wife of W. E. Cooke, Treasurer of the Central Savings Bank, of this city, residing near Catonsville, Baltimore County, when retiring last night, accidentally upset a coal oil lamp. The clothing of the lady was quickly enveloped in flames, and she was so terribly burned, that she died at 6 o'clock, this morning. At the time of the accident, her husband was absent, watching by the bed-side of an ill brother. The lady was highly esteemed.

INDIANAPOLIS, December 30.—The engineers' strike continues without material change. One passenger train went out this morning on the Pan Handle Road, and one on the Jeffersonville Road. Trains have arrived on both roads. The Vincennes Road is running its passenger trains regularly. Rumors are still current of a general strike on all the roads, but they seem to be without foundation. From present appearances, the strike is nearly ended.

WASHINGTON, December 30.—The appointment of Gen. Cushing to be the successor of Gen. Sickles as Minister to Spain, continues to excite comment concerning the character of the instructions he will receive from the Department of State, after the confirmation of the nomination by the Senate. Although usage is opposed to an open declaration of the line of diplomacy to be pursued, it can be stated with truth that one of the subjects to which Mr. Cushing will give his attention, will be the policy of political and administrative reform in Cuba, as the best method calculated to restore peace to that island and promote its prosperity; and among these reforms is included the abolition of slavery in the Antilles. These views have repeatedly been enforced, both in the President's annual messages and the official correspondence of Secretary Fish, and which have been often communicated to the Spanish Cabinet. It will be recollected that several years ago, our Government tendered its good offices to Spain, in the hope of Cuban pacification, but which were respectfully declined, on the basis suggested. It is not improbable that a similar tender will again be made by the new Minister, as the Administration will resort to every proper expedient for the purpose of restoring peace and protecting American interests in Cuba and the adjacent waters; and there can be no doubt that an effort will be made to conclude a new commercial treaty with Spain—the only one ever made with that power being that of 1795, of friendship limits and navigation.

New York, December 30.—The released Virginus prisoners to-day passed votes of thanks to Commander Braine and the other officers of the Junata. Engineer Knight, of the Virginus, said the original sentence was, that the entire crew should be hung at the yard-arm, but the captain of the Isabel la Católica did not wish such a spectacle made of his vessel, and obtained a change to death by shooting, and the commutation of the sentence of seventeen of the crew to the chain-gang. Knight, two of the quartermasters and one of the oilers were accordingly sentenced to the chain-gang for life, and the other thirteen, all of whom were mere boys, to eight and four years of hard labor in the gang. A life sentence of this kind was regarded as worse than death. Thirty-five of the rescued men are still in charge of the Cuban Junta here.
