By-and By. What will it matter by and by Whether my path below was bright, Whether it wound through dark or light, Under a gray or a golden sky, When I look back on it, by-and-by?

What will it matter by-and-by Whether unhelped, I toiled alone,

Dashing my foot against a stone, Missing the charge of the angel nigh, Bidding me think of the by-and-by? What will it matter by-and-by Whather with laughing joy I went Down through the years with a glad content, Never believing, nay, not I, Tears would be sweeter by and by?

What will it matter by-and-by Whether with cheek to cheek I've lain

Olose by the pallid angel, Pain, Soothing myself through sobs and sighs, "All will be elsewise by-and-by?" What will it matter? Naught, I

Only am sure the way I've trod, Gloomy or gladdened, leads to God, Questioning not of the how, the why, If I but reach him, by-and-by.

What will I care for the unshared sigh,

If, in my fear to slip or fall, Closely I've clung to Christ through all Mindless how rough the path might lie, Since he will smooth it by-and-by?

Ab! it will matter by and by Nothing but this: That joy or pain Lifted me skyward, helped to gain, Whether through rack or smile or sigh, Heaven—home—all in all, by-and-by!

A Columbus, Ga., magistrate has decided that when a creditor meets a debtor and duns him for the money owed, the creditor can, if payment is refused, grab the debtor's watch or hat for the debt.

"Municipal insanity"' is what they call it in Chicago. In New York and Brooklyn it is termed "municipal ras-cality." To doctors of law it is known as a complication of "ring-around."

Wm. Pope shot and killed Mr. Bud Mitchell, near Roswell, Ga., Wednesday last. Both were guards over the penitentiary convicts.
