

THE DAILY PHOENIX.

"Let our Just Censures

Attend the True Event."

BY JULIAN A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1874.

VOLUME X—NUMBER 6.

Lately a company of ninety five Englishmen went to Caprera to visit Garibaldi, but being indisposed, he was able to receive only two delegates of the party, to whom he made his acknowledgments for the expressions of affection and sympathy which they came to offer. During the last three years, 130 steamers have landed at the island of Caprera. Before it became the residence of Garibaldi, not a vessel touched there. Four Neapolitan ships now bear the name of Garibaldi. In the past three years, he has received presents to the value of 14,000 to 16,000 Italian lire (francs.) These are instruments of agriculture, coming, for the most part, from America. Moreover, he has refused in the same period other offerings in money and objects of value amounting to nearly a million. Garibaldi is an honorary citizen of ninety cities, boroughs and villages; honorary president of 120 societies and the possessor of twenty-one swords of honor, eleven of which have come from foreign lands. Since 1871, there have been presented to him 5,000 addresses of homage and devotion. In consequence of the superior means of cultivating the soil possessed at Caprera, his annual income may be estimated at about 3,000 lire.

REVENUE OFFICERS ON A DRUNK.—About the 18th, a party of revenue officers from Anderson made a raid, through the lower edge of that County, upon the whiskey wagons. They even went so far as to intrude upon Abbeville territory and made a number of seizures, and imagined that they were doing themselves and their country good service. So thinking, they grew happy, and took a little too much improperly-stamped whiskey. It made the drunk come just as well as if it had been stamped by President Grant himself—in fact, they got awful drunk, and, while oblivious to all earthly surroundings, they suffered the prizes they had captured to make good their escape. Such officers should be tried by a drum-head court martial and sentenced to do penance for thirty days. Bared shirts would bring them to their senses.

Lieutenant H. H. Berner, of the post at Yorkville, has been making it pretty lively for the violators of internal revenue laws in the up-country. Within a few days he has aided in the destruction of about a dozen stills, a large quantity of mash, and captured a number of the law-breakers.

THE SEGARS AT THE CALIFORNIA SEGAR STORE
HAVE grown so popular that nobody thinks of buying anywhere else, as the best SEGARS, from 5c. to 25c., sold in this city, are to be had at this establishment.
The reason everybody patronizes the California Segar Store is, that all their Domestic Segars are made by Factory No. 9, on the premises, and our citizens are awaking to the importance of patronizing home manufacture.
Everybody chews the celebrated CABLE COIL, put up in tin foil. Sold only by the California Segar Store. M. SULZBACHER.
