/Contentment.

[Suggested on seeing a little picture of an aged couple seated in a log cabin, before a fire, at bed time. The banks is all a-bustin', Nance, and things is goin' ter smash;

The people sold fur credit whar they'd oughter sold fur cash;
An' winter's bringin' poverty to everybody's door;

The rich kin stand it pretty well—hit's orful on the poor.

The workinman's the sufferer, Nancehe's got no work to do, An' folks ar goin' to suffer whar they suffrin' never knew; An' them that's always "showin' ofi" to poor folks what they've got, .

You'll find, perhaps, that they'll turn out the poorest of the lot.

I've just been thinkin', Nancy Jane, about the awful muss; How folks had better live an' raise their obildren just like us; For, as I told old Deacon Smith, he sed

it all was true, He never in his life had seed two folks like me an' you,

Our home's an old log cabin, Nance, half-hidden in the woods;
Our family's rich in life and health, but poor in "worldly goods;"

We hain't no fine lace curtins, or no car-pet on the floor, But the sun is always smilin' through the window an' the door. Our farm is small-we've got a spring an' horses, hogs an' cows; We've gals to milk an' cook an' sew, an'

boys to tend the plows;
We've got no gold in banks that bust,

nor owe no man a cent—
I tell you, Nauce, the Lord is good, an' we should feel content.

We're plain an' honest country folks, an' know no "city airs;" We read the Bible every night before we kneel in prayers; We go to church on Sundays, Nance,

an' walk just like the rest,
An' live like Christian people ought—we try to do what's best.

Our boys don't do like city boys, who from thar duty shirk, Whose parents raise 'em up to think 'tis a diegrace to work. Oar gals ain't like them city gals you will so often meet, Who ought to help thar mothers more an' run less on the street.

You lon't see Thomas Henry pushin' illiards every night, Or loafin' 'bout the tavern, gittin' treated till he's tight; You don't find him a runnin' 'round to catch some damsel's eye,

Or courtin' of some gal that's rich,
whose daddy's 'bout to die.

Ah! Nance, the time has come at last when pride must have its fall;
The folks'll find the workin' man's the

The folks it find the working man set to life and prop of all;

The farmer's independent, Nance, his trade will never spoil

So long as he is able with his sons to till the soil.

The folks it find the working man set to devery hind Cards, Cards, Cards, Cards, white soil.

The proud, aristocratic folks, who sot

in fortune's door,
Who thought they'd never come to want, are "busted up" an' poor;
Their servants gone, their horses sold, their houses an' their lands, An' everything except thar lives, are in the sheriff's hands.

Old woman, put yer knittin' up; it's gittin' purty late; I'll read about two chapters in the Bible, if you'll wait; We'll pray to God, before we sleep, as every Christian ought,

An' thank Him, not for what we went, but what we've had and got.
WILL S. HAYS.

Louisville, November 12, 1873.

Honorable mention is made of a Maine servant girl who is now serving her eighty-second winter under the same root. She has washed dishes 89,790 times, and comes yet gaily to her task. Blessed old girl!

ESTABLISHED IN 1870. Paid Up Capital, $106,000. Authorized Capital, $500,000.

THE financial panic of the past year, fraught with so much disaster to all business interests, has left our Bank intact, and our capital and facilities unimpaired. As heretofore, we continue to draw Sight Drafts on all the principal cities of the United States and Europe. We receive all classes of deposits—individual, benking and corporate—subject to Sight Check. Also, issue Certificates of Deposit, and, by special agreement, allow a liberal rate of interest on the same. We make collections on all accessible points of the United States and Europe, giving gredit on account, or remitting on immediate receipt. We pledge ourselves to the same prompt and faithful attention in the dne execution of all orders entrusted to our care that has characterized our bank for the past four years of its business career. We further beg leave to lay the following statement of the condition of this institution before the public:

THE EDITORIALS

Are carefully prepared, by competent writers; while special attention is given THE LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Taken as a whole, NO BETTER OR MORE SATISFACTORY INVESTMENT can be made, than a subscription to one or the other of these publications. They are Conservative in politics, and are devoted to the best interests of the State. The following are the TERMS FOR SIX MONTHS.

Columbia, in 1865, after its partial destruction, and have been regularly published ever since. They CIRCULATE EXTENSIVELY

Throughout the middle and upper Counties of the State, and are excellent MEDIUMS FOR ADVERTISING.

The Frienix has a greater circulation through the upper part of South Carolina tem any ether daily paper published in the State. Merchants and others will find its columns an admirable means of communication with the people of the entire up-country. Advertising rates are reasonable and equable. Send advertisements marked with the number of insertions desired, and they will be stopped upon the expiration of the time.
