Published Daily and Tri-Weekly,
THE GLEANER.
Every Wednesday Morning,
BY JULIAN A. SELBY,
Editor and Proprietor,
Office on Richardson St., near Taylor.

The PHOENIX is the oldest Daily Paper in South Carolina, has the LARGEST CIRCULATION in the upper portion of the State, and has been regularly issued since its inception—March 21, 1865.

Book and Job Printing of every description faithfully attended to.

Daily, six months, $4 00; Tri-Weekly, 2 50; Weekly, 1 50.

AGENTS:
Julius Poppe, Anderson.
Robert Bryce, Spartanburg.
J. A. Grigsby, Ridgeway.
E. A. Scott, Newberry.
H. W. Lawson, Abbeville.

Here in this leafy place,
Quiet he lies,
Cold, with his sightless face
Turned to the skies;
'Tis but another dead;
All you can say is said.
Carry his body hence—
Kings must have slaves;
Kings climb to eminence
Over men's graves;
So this man's eye is dim—
Throw the earth over him.
What was the white you touched
There at his side?
Paper his hand had clutched
Tight ere he died—
Message or wish, may be—
Smooth the folds and see.
Hardly the worst of us
Here could have smiled!
Only the tremulous
Words of a child—
Prattle, that has for stops
Just a few ruddy drops.
Look. She is sad to miss,
Morning and night,
His—her dead father's—kiss;
Tries to be bright,
Good to mamma, and sweet.
That is all. "Marguerite."
Ah, if beside the dead
Slumbered the pain!
Ah, if the hearts that bled
Slept with the slain!
If the grief died—but no;
Death will not have it so.

SHAVING A GRANGER.—Persons who visit a barber shops would give a premium for a barber who would not insist upon them having their "hair out," or submitting to a "shampoo," when they only wished to be shaved. A man who called at a tonsorial establishment on Smithfield street succeeded in non-pussing a most persistent knight of the razor. The barber insisted upon giving the transient customer a "shampoo," and the T. C. peremptorily demanded why such a request was made. Then a little colloquy ensued something like this:

Barber—"Your head's very dirty, sah!"
T. C.—"Well, I know it is, and I want it dirty."
Barber—"Want it dirty! Why, what fah?"
T. C.—"Well, I'm a Granger, and I want to have soil on my head!"
The barber ceased his importunings, and quietly shaved his man.

The way the money goes is shown in the case of the late Legrand Lockwood's marble palace and forty acres of finely ornamented grounds in Norwalk, Conn., now offered for sale for less than $35,000, the cost of which was between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. There are doors which cost $2,000 each, a billiard room that cost $10,000, forty-nine rooms gorgeously decorated with polished marble, inlaid woodwork, frescoes, etc., and no two rooms alike; and then there are the conservatories, stables, porter's lodge, and other buildings, all on the same extravagant scale.

There are shrewd boys in Burlington, Vt. On the night of a recent charter election, they got out a drum and life and went noisily to the house of one of the successful candidates. He thought they were the voters who supported him, and flung wide his hospitable doors. Before he could get the boys out they had eaten most of the supper that had been set for the real voters, who found the table barren when they came.

Free Cuba has a gloomy prospect. Captain-General Concha forbids the existence of all political parties, and declares his intention to pursue a course of rigid severity towards the enemies of Spain. The honors heaped upon the blood-thirsty Burriel have excited the emulation of Concha, and he hopes to attain to fame by the same cruel means.

THE financial panic of the past year, fraught with so much disaster to all business interests, has left our Bank intact, and our capital and facilities unimpaired. As heretofore, we continue to draw Sight Drafts on all the principal cities of the United States and Europe. We receive all classes of deposits—individual, banking and corporate—subject to Sight Check. Also, issue Certificates of Deposit, and, by special agreement, allow a liberal rate of interest on the same. We make collections on all accessible points of the United States and Europe, giving credit on account, or remitting on immediate receipt. We pledge ourselves to the same prompt and faithful attention in the due execution of all orders entrusted to our care that has characterized our Bank for the past four years of its business career. We further beg leave to lay the following statement of the condition of this institution before the public:

Seeger's vs. Cincinnati Beer.

THE Cincinnati Gazette makes the astonishing announcement that Cincinnati beer is no longer pure, but adulterated with molasses, sugar, starch, fusel oil and the poisonous co. chium. The Commissioner of Agriculture, in his report for 1865, says that Prof. Mapes, of New York, analyzed the beer from a dozen different breweries, and found all of it adulterated. Coeculus Indicus and nux vomica entered largely into its composition.
J. C. SFEGER'S guarantees his beer to be pure and reliable. He does not adulterate it, but brews from the best barley, malt and hops.
