

"Let our Just Censures"

Attend the True Event."

BY JULIAN A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1874.

VOLUME X—NUMBER 27.

THE MODOCS AT THEIR NEW HOME.—The Modocs, who recently played a leading part in our history, have been almost forgotten by the people, but not by the ubiquitous "interviewer." One of the fraternity has taken the trouble to follow the tribe to their new home in the Quapaw reservation, Indian Territory, and he now describes what he saw during his visit. The war seems to have completely cowed them, and they are apparently resigned to their lot, such as it is. Scarfaced Charley and Bogus Charley, the first and second chiefs of this tribal remnant, are still in authority, but they no longer bear their former haughtiness. The males pass their time in drinking, smoking, shooting with the bow and arrow, playing ball, etc., evidently resolved to bestow no thought upon the morrow. Steamboat Frank has become literary in his tastes, and is actually making some progress in learning to read. But the squaws are less reconciled to the change. The eyes of Princess Mary filled with tears when the name of Captain Jack was mentioned, while the widow of the departed chief still blackens her face and lives in seclusion. The land receives little attention from the tribe, though fences have been put up in several parts of it.

A colored woman of Clarendon County was loading a gun to shoot a hawk, a few days ago, when it was accidentally discharged, inflicting a fatal wound on one of her children, aged about six years. There was no shot in the gun at the time of the discharge, and death is supposed to have resulted from concussion, produced on the head of the child by the force of the powder alone.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—The commencement exercises, which are to be held in Greenville, the seat of the institution, will begin on Saturday, the 25th inst., and end on the following Monday. The Rev. Dr. Brantly, of Baltimore, will preach the commencement sermon, and the Rev. L. H. Shuck, of Charleston, the missionary sermon.

Mr. E. C. Nicholas, a merchant of Savannah, has brought suit for $25,000 damages against Bradstreet's Commercial Agency, for rating him as insolvent, when, in truth, he was perfectly solvent.

Public attention is now turned to Arkansas, where the two B.'s are training for a mighty struggle to see which will become the "Arkansas Traveller."

According to the biennial report of Chief of Police Jackson, there have been 2,657 arrests; fines assessed $3,065.10; fines collected, $1,732.25.

A Georgia paper has for its motto: "It is not rank, nor birth, nor state, but get up and get, that makes men great."

Sleeping cars now run through from Charlotte to New Orleans. They are the nicest kind of Pullman cars.

The Schuetzenfest is in full blast in Charleston, but the crowd is not as great as would be desirable.

We mount to fortune by several steps, but require only one step to come down.

J. W. PARKER, REAL ESTATE BROKER AND FIRE & LIFE INSURANCE AGENT. (Office in Carolina National Bank.) OFFERS for sale the most eligible REAL ESTATE now in market, among which is that fine Mansion and six acres of improved Ground, known as the Elmore property. The ACRE LOT on which Christ Church stood. Several VACANT LOTS on Richardson street and elsewhere in the city.

Several valuable FARMS, near Columbia, including his Dairy Farm, so remarkable for its fertility. As Fire Insurance Agent, He represents the LIVERPOOL and LONDON and GLOBE, with assets amounting to $21,000,000, and now doing as large and profitable business as any Company in Europe or America.

In the Life Department. He is General Agent for the BROOKLYN OF NEW YORK, with $2,500,000 assets and a deposit of old State Bonds for $50,000, with the Comptroller-General of South Carolina. The "Brooklyn" invites rigid scrutiny into the management and condition of the Company, and are prepared to prove, through their Agent, at the Carolina National Bank, in Columbia, by facts and figures, why the Company may be relied on as worthy the confidence and patronage which is being turned towards it by the well-informed, who know where and how to invest for the future benefit of those they love and desire to provide for.

We beg to mention but one of many advantageous features in this Company: That of endorsing the surrender value of its policies on each for ten consecutive years. This feature has met with unqualified praise from the most celebrated American authorities, as also from the press North, South and East. March 27 '73
