

Telegraphic Foreign Affairs.

PARIS, April 24.—The Moniteur reports Count de Chambord at Versailles. McMahon has opened an exhibition for the benefit of expatriated Alsatians.

LONDON, April 24.—Professor John Phelps, geologist, is dead. New Orleans, April 24.—Appeals from overflooded Louisiana say: "For pity sake, send us relief. The cows that are not drowned are starving."

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The veto pleases Bismarck. ALBANY, April 24.—The Assembly passed a bill punishing the dissemination of false commercial news.

MEMPHIS, April 24.—In consequence of floods and interrupted railroads, the Ohio saw races have been postponed to May 4.

LITTLE ROCK, April 24.—Matters are in statu quo. Brooks, in addressing his troops, said he was determined to hold the State House in spite of everything.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—In the Senate, Flanagan introduced a bill changing the present boundaries of the Eastern and Western Judicial Districts of Texas.

The President has sent to the House copies of all orders and correspondence in connection with the Arkansas insurrection.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The subscriptions at the Cotton Exchange reach $4,500.

CAIRO, April 24.—The Minneola, from Memphis hither, picked up seven families from skiffs, rafts and "dug outs," fleeing from flooded homes and the overflow from hence to Memphis, chiefly on the West side of the river.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Louisa McKay, daughter of very wealthy parents, residing in this city, was drowned at New Jersey Central Railroad Pier, while attempting to leap on a ferry boat that had just started.

A three-story frame house, in Brooklyn, fell while being raised, burying eight workmen. Four were taken out believed to be dying; two have been taken out dead.

BOSTON, April 24.—Geo. Murkland, a printer, suicided last night, by taking laudanum. His wife recently drowned herself in a well.

KINGSTON, JAMAICA, April 24.—Politics unsettled. Coffee depressed. PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Cotton quiet—exports to Great Britain 457; weekly gross receipts 2,218; exports to Great Britain 457.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The Cabinet considered Arkansas without action. The Attorney-General has decided that where a contractor to carry mails abandoned his contract, the Postmaster-General could not relet the route without advertising.

The House Sub-Judiciary Committee held a brief consultation to-day on South Carolina matters, and postponed final action till next Monday.

The subject of the tax-payers' memorial excites the grave consideration of the sub-committee, who will report in conformity with the magnitude of the interests deemed to be involved.

The influence wrought by the arguments of the tax-payers is felt in Government circles outside the Judiciary Committee, and is daily growing more potential, as is evidenced by the gravity with which the subject is being considered.

It is noticeable that the disposition to sift the complaints of the memorialists and the answers of the State officials very closely, accumulates in force every time the subject comes up for consideration, though the solution remains involved in apparently impenetrable obscurity.

Honest sympathy, and, so far as possible, the co-operation of all right-thinking people in authority here, seems to be going out towards the oppressed victims of misrule, not only in South Carolina, but other sections of the South.

The Senate passed a bill amendatory of the Act to provide for internal revenue to support the Government, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes, approved June 30, 1864.

This bill provides that no legal document or paper required by law to be stamped, which was made, signed or issued in the Southern States prior to the 1st of July, 1865, shall be deemed or held as invalid and of no effect by reason of the failure to impose thereon the required stamps.

Conover, of Florida, introduced a bill for the relief of James Atkins, late Collector of Internal Revenue for the Fourth District of Georgia.

In the House, among the Executive communications was one regarding Mrs. Mira Clark Gaines' claims to public lands. Legislative appropriations occupied the balance of the day.

Probabilities—For the Middle States and lower lake region, increasing North-east to South-east winds, cloudy weather, and over the former section rain.

For the South Atlantic States, cloudy and rainy weather, with fresh and brisk winds, mostly from the South-east to North-east, and over the former section rain.

For the Gulf States, winds shifting to North and West, clearing weather and rising temperature. For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, partly cloudy weather, and over the Eastern portion of this area probably light rain.

The Mississippi River from Cairo down, will continue slowly rising, and the Ohio falling.

SELMA, April 24.—There has been an immense rain fall in the past two days. The streams in every direction are greatly swollen. The Alabama River is within two feet of high water mark of 1872.

The country below is overflowed. Immense damage has been done to crops, and there are gloomy crop prospects.

An African correspondent calls Coomassie, the capital of Ashantee, the metropolis of murder. The smell of death hangs everywhere, and even the buildings are painted red. The people love the odor of dead flesh, and enjoy the agonies of hundreds of victims every year.

Twenty-seven barrels of oil and a large lot of whalebone were received at Newbern a few days since, from Morehead City, being the product of a whale captured on the coast some days since.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—This court commenced at 10 o'clock A. M., Judge Bryan presiding. The petition of Elijah Landford, in bankruptcy, was referred to Registrar Clawson for adjudication. The petition of F. C. and L. A. Beckman, for fees in the case of L. H. Massey, bankrupt, was referred to Registrar Clawson to report. The petition for involuntary bankruptcy in the case of Lambson & Guy was referred to E. M. Seabrook, Registrar, and the Judge signed an order of adjudication of bankruptcy and warrant of seizure. The petition of John Lutgen, creditor, in the case of Whittemore & Rhodes, for involuntary bankruptcy, was continued to first of June next. The case of James P. Low, John P. Southern and George W. Williams, assignees of the Blue Ridge Railroad Company, against the Atlantic and Richmond Air-Line Railroad Company, occupied the court during the day, and arguments were made by D. T. Corbin, Esq., for the plaintiffs, and W. E. Earle, Esq., and Gen. James Simons for defendants. A verdict was rendered for the plaintiffs for the sum of $3,250.

A FATAL WOMAN DUEL IN SPAIN.—It is related that two girls in the tobacco factory at Madrid recently killed each other in a hand to hand contest. The mode adopted by the combatants was as romantic as it was barbarous. The antagonists, who were both about twenty years of age, and remarkably handsome, repaired, on Sunday morning, accompanied by certain of their comrades, to a village some four or five miles distant, where they breakfasted sumptuously at different tables. The repast ended, they closed the window curtains, stripped themselves to the waist, and requested their friends to leave the room. Then, at a given signal, they attacked each other with their navajas and slashed and thrust until both fell to the floor mortally wounded. When a few minutes had elapsed their friends re-entered the room. Estefania, one of the combatants, had received ten wounds, from which she bled to death in about half an hour. Casilda, her antagonist, died somewhat sooner from a ghastly wound in her neck.

WAR—A school-boy fight occurred on Wednesday last, between two small boys, one the son of Mrs. Brennan, a widow lady, the other a young son of Dr. Neagle, the County Treasurer. Beyond the loss of a few hairs and the rambling of their shirt collars, it appears no injury was sustained by either boy. Not satisfied with the result, the doctor called on the widow in reference to the matter, accompanied by a friend and a double-barreled shot-gun. At the sight of the weapon, the lady fainted, her daughter screamed, and all hands became embarrassed. The gun didn't go off, but the parties did. The scene can be more easily imagined than described. School-boys will have their little battles, and the less parents mix in them the better, particularly with shot-guns.—Union-Herald.

The cause of cremation appears to be rapidly gaining ground in Germany. The merits of the new system of disposing of dead bodies are shortly to be tested by practical experiment in Saxony, the two principal towns of which, Dresden and Leipzig, have offered to legalize it, as an optional course, supposing its advocates can practically make good their assertions in its favor. A furnace for cremation is now actually in process of construction by Friedrich Siemens, a civil engineer. Its cost is estimated at 5,000 marks, or £1,250, and it is calculated that the complete combustion of a human corpse will take about an hour.

The notorious James Brothers have murdered another detective in Missouri. Their last victim's name is not known. His corpse was found on Friday, at Elkhorn, Ray County, Mo. On the coat of the dead man was pinned a blood-crossed card, on which was inscribed: "This shall be the fate of all detectives who come to hunt the James Brothers." (Signed) "Jesse James," "Frank James." A handkerchief found in the murdered man's pocket was marked "P. B. Cole."

They have a judge in Florida who was arrested and put into the calaboose for drunkenness. While in confinement, he endeavored to issue a writ of habeas corpus, requiring the Sheriff of Manatee County to seize his body and bring it before himself, in order that he might inquire into the legality of said confinement. It was a brilliant idea, but it wouldn't work.

A complete and entire change has taken place this year in the political complexion of the towns in New York. Compared with 1873, the result is as follows: 1873, Republican majority of towns, 72; 1874, Democratic majority of towns, 92; Democratic gain over 1873, 164. This looks encouraging for the future.

One of the passenger coaches on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad caught fire near Florence, on Tuesday night, but was extinguished in time to save the train.

Mr. Nathaniel Bradford, resident about five miles from Sumter, killed, on Monday last, an eagle, which, by fair measurement, was seven feet and one inch from tip to tip.

An Iowa man sued a woman for calling him a "skunk," and the verdict of the jury was, "Not guilty; but if she was, we'd clear her."

ACCOUNTS of merchants and others from the city and country solicited, and LIBERAL LINES OF DISCOUNTS granted by the CENTRAL NATIONAL BANK, Corner of Plain and Richardson streets. Seegers vs. Cincinnati Beer. THE Cincinnati Gazette makes the astonishing announcement that Cincinnati beer is no longer pure, but adulterated with molasses, sugar of starch, fusel oil and the poisonous colchicum. The Commissioner of Agriculture, in his report for 1865, says that Prof. Mapes, of New York, analyzed the beer from a dozen different breweries, and found all of it adulterated. Cocculus Indicus and nux vomica entered largely into its composition. J. C. SEEGERS guarantees his beer to be pure and reliable. He does not adulterate it, but brews from the best barley, malt and hops. Jan 28
