

THE DAILY PHOENIX.

"Let our Just Censures"

Attend the True Event."

BY JULIAN A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 13, 1874.

VOLUME X—NUMBER 72.

The lecture of Rochester, at the New York Academy of Music, on Tuesday night, was but thinly attended, and the oratory of the noted Communist made little impression. The New York Post, in noticing the lecture, says: "The point which strikes us most disagreeably was M. Rochester's allusion to his marriage. We had thought that, by his asking for a wedding ceremony to take place before he was transported, he desired to legitimate his children, and we praised his act accordingly. It appears, however, from his own quite unnecessary statement that he did so because 'the companion of his youth,' being already in a dying condition, asked him for a nuptial ceremony, which he did not feel the courage to refuse her, 'just as he would not have felt the courage to refuse her a cashmere shawl, if she had asked for one.'"

Senator Brownlow, of Tennessee, has written a second letter on the Civil Rights Bill, in which he reiterates the objections to it which he mentioned in his former letter to the Colored Men's Convention. He calls the section providing for mixed schools "an oppressive and abominable usurpation."

A Wisconsin minister has been dismissed from an orthodox pulpit because he built a fire under a bawdy horse. His case is almost as bad as that of the Eau Claire preacher, in the same State, who was dismissed by the congregation for counting a nine spot "ten for game."

LIBRARY AGENCY FOR THE PURCHASE OF BOOKS.—Mr. P. B. Glass, of this city, who is possessed of ample facilities and experience, makes it an important part of his business to fill orders for books of all kinds for public or private libraries or for individuals. Orders for American and foreign books of every description, whether for whole libraries or single books, will be promptly and carefully filled at the lowest publishers' prices; and works not published in this country will be imported from abroad. Any information as to the price of books, styles of binding, number of volumes in sets, &c., will be promptly given to correspondents. Copies of new books can be sent immediately on publication. He will also arrange for subscriptions to any home or foreign magazine. All orders should be accompanied by the money, and will then be sent free of expense to the purchaser, or they can be sent by express C. O. D. Cash remittances should be made either by draft or P. O. money order, or in a registered letter.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING.—Newspaper advertising is now recognized by business men having faith in their own wares, as the most effective means for securing for their goods a wide recognition of their merits.

Newspaper advertising impels inquiry, and when the article offered is of good quality and at a fair price the natural result is increased sales.

Newspaper advertising is a permanent addition to the reputation of the goods advertised, because it is a permanent influence at work in their interest.

Newspaper advertising is the most energetic and vigilant of salesmen; addressing thousands each day, always in the advertiser's interest, and ceaselessly at work seeking customers from all classes.

Newspaper advertising promotes trade, for even in the dull times advertisers secure the largest share of what is being done.

HINTS TO LETTER-WRITERS.—The postmaster at New York has issued a circular which contains many valuable hints to letter-writers. Considering the fact that there are always two parties to a correspondence, these hints will be useful to persons in the city and out of it. The substance of the rules are, therefore, given for the benefit of all concerned. They are as follows:

1. All mail matter directed to numbered boxes will be delivered through those boxes.

2. Letters directed to city addresses, street and number, will, if recognized by the assorting clerks as intended for box-holders, be delivered through the boxes. If not so recognized, they will be delivered through the carriers.

3. Mail matter addressed without box number or street number, will be delivered as expeditiously as possible, either through boxes, general delivery or carrier.

Correspondents should direct their letters plainly, correctly and fully, and those who rent boxes would greatly facilitate the business if they will print conspicuously on their letter headings, circulars, bill-heads, cards and envelopes a request to correspondents to address letters to their respective box numbers, and if those who receive mail matter by carriers would direct their correspondents to include in all cases the proper streets and numbers in the addresses of all letters.

Now is the Time—To advertise, at our summer rates, and while there is leisure to read the papers.
