

"Let our Just Censures

Attend the True Event."

SOUTH CAROLINA—THE PROPER SPIRIT.—The Columbia PHENIX contains some hopeful comments in reply to a message from a South Carolinian, honored in former days, now a resident of Atlanta, that "every one should leave South Carolina and not live under such a government as this has." Our contemporary admits that many might have done better by leaving the State, but they determined to remain and suffer all rather than abandon her to the vulgar tyranny of mongrel domination. Hope cheers them in the darkness, and the deep despair of helplessness has not yet palsied their hearts. Determined to watch and wait, pray and work, for the salvation of their dear old State, the day of deliverance will surely come. The thieves cannot steal the State. They may and they have stolen the goods and chattels of the people, and they would steal the lands, but they cannot. The soil will remain after the robber reign is over. God will send the sunshine and the rain and the favorable seasons, and the places that desolate will yield abundantly and gladden the hearts of the faithful who suffered contumely and spoliation, and worked without ceasing for the redemption of their State. There is a great work before the people of South Carolina. Let them take courage. The sympathies of all honest men everywhere are with them. Instead of abandoning the State now, when there is a hope of success, growing out of the fact that the "cohesive power of plunder" has proved an element of weakness in the mongrel party in power, all true men should remain to aid in the liberation of their State. Were all the men who abandoned South Carolina since the advent of negro rule to return home, the State could be reformed beyond a doubt. But we have an abiding confidence that there are enough left to accomplish this great work. The odds are heavy against the suffering people, but the cause should serve to animate them with more than human industry and courage. The heart of Georgia is with them in their struggle. The sympathies and the prayers of all honest men in the United States are with them in their contest for good government. They should never think of abandoning their State. They are not without hope who struggle for the right. The day of deliverance will surely come.

INDIGNANT TAX-PAYERS—WAR ON PUBLIC FLUNDERERS.—The tax-payers of Pittsburg, Pa., indignant at the extraordinary increase in taxation, have held several meetings, and resolved that the city's credit cannot be maintained unless party lines be ignored, and thereby honest men be invested with the guardianship of the interests of the municipality. "Citizens' leagues" are recommended to that end, and "ignoble crew of public plunderers are warned that they must betake themselves to pastures new, if they wish to avoid the consequences of a resort to the last remedy left to oppressed citizens."

NEW YORK "TIMES" BY its South Carolina correspondence, has attracted considerable attention to its columns. The "INDIAN GIRL," by keeping the finest CIGARS and TOBACCO in the market, has attracted considerable attention to her Cigar Emporium. The one shows up the condition of affairs in this State and the

CAUSES GOVERNOR MOSES And his political friends; the other shows up the celebrated 5 Cent Cigars and their merits, the Havana Cheroots and other brands suited for summer smoking, and as the public are often puzzled to know what could induce a man

TO COMMIT SUICIDE So are Chewers puzzled to know how TOBACCO can be sold at such low prices as INDIAN GIRL CIGAR STORE, June 26 Columbia, S. C.

Official Order, No. 1. I WANT all smokers to know that there are still plenty more of the celebrated 5 cent PARTAGAS on hand. I guarantee that they contain more and a better quality of tobacco than any other 5 cent Cigar sold in this city.

Special Order, No. 2. All smokers of Presco Cigars will please take notice that they can get a bunch containing 25 Cigars for $1, and all other popular brands at equally low prices, at the CALIFORNIA CIGAR STORE, (Sign of the Indian Chief,) 34 Door Below Wheeler House. June 6

Judge Cooke has sustained the recent decision of Judge Green, to the effect that legal notices and advertisements paid for from private funds may be published in any paper selected by the person advertising, notwithstanding such paper may not be one designated as an "official" paper by the State authorities. "Official" papers apply only to such advertisements as are paid for from State and County funds. Lawyers may, therefore, order all estate notices, referee sales and sheriff sales to be published in this paper, should they prefer it.
