DIED FROM FEVER AND EXHAUSTION. Herrold Christiansen, a native of Sweden, about twenty-five years old, of good countenance and appearance, was found in an exhausted condition on last Friday, near Burlington, N. J., making his way to New York. He was taken to the City Hall and kindly cared for, but it was without avail, and he died on Tuesday, July 7. The deceased came from New York to Charleston, when he became ill, and after his recovery undertook the journey from Charleston to New York on

Any one who can put up for ten days with the discomforts of the steerage can get to Europe just now very cheap-ly. Owing to the competition of the various steam lines at New York, passage can be had as low as $12.50, and it is said that within a month the rates will be reduced to $10. The crowds that are taking advantage of these rates cannot make the voyage an agreeable one. The steamship Britannic left New York on Saturday, with more than 800 cabin and steerage passen

The fashionable circles of Washington were a good deal startled within a day or two ago, by the announcement that a son of Rear Admiral Jenkins, aged about twenty years, had married a ballet dancer, named Frankie Christie. It is said that Admiral Jenkins has discouned his son, and has sent word to the woman that she might support him, as she need expect nothing from him. It is also said that the Admiral is so much chagrined at his son's conduct, that he purposes leaving Washington, not to return.

Professor Donaldson has made dur-ing the past week two ascents in a balloon from Barnum's Hippodrome, in seach of that celebrated Eastern current which was to have carried himself and Wise, about a year ago, across the Atlantic. On neither occasion did Donaldson flud what he sought. So the projected voyage of the air ship to Europe must, we apprehend, be postponed indefinitely.
