Drink and Die.
I have been to the funeral of all my bones,
And entombed them one by one,
Not a word was said, nor a tear was shed,
When the mournful task was done.

Slowly and sadly I turned me round
And sought my silent room,
And there alone, by the cold hearthstone,
I wood'd the midnight's gloom.

And as the night wind's deepening shade
Lowered about my brow,
I wept o'er days when manhood's rays
Were brighter far than now.

The dying embers on the hearth
Gave out their flickering light,
As if to say, this is the way
Thy life shall close in night.

I wept aloud, in anguish sore,
O'er the blight of prospects fair;
While demons laughed and eagerly quaffed
My tears like nectar rare.

Through hills and halls an echo rang—
An echo loud and long—
As in the bowl, I plunged my soul,
In the night of madness strong.

And there within that sparkling glass,
I knew the cause to lie;
This all men own, from zone to zone,
Yet millions drink and die!

Mr. Moulton is at Portland, Me.; Mr. Beecher is at Peekskill for his holiday; Mr. Tilton is in Brooklyn, and Mrs. Tilton has disappeared. There has been quite a scattering, and it suggests the inquiry, "When shall these four meet again?"

Seeger's vs. Cincinnati Beer.
THE Cincinnati Gazette makes the astonishing announcement that Cincinnati beer is no longer pure, but adulterated with molasses, sugar of starch, fusel oil and the poison alcoholism. The Commissioner of Agriculture, in his report for 1865, says that Prof. Mason, of New York, analyzed the beer from a dozen different breweries, and found all of it adulterated. Cocculus Indicus and nux vomica entered largely into its composition.

J. C. SEEGERS guarantees his beer to be pure and reliable. He does not adulterate it, but brews from the best barley, malt and hops.
