

Telegraphic-Foreign Affairs.

BRUSSELS, August 29.—The final sitting of the International Conference was held yesterday.

MADRID, August 29.—Over 200 Carlists were killed and many wounded in the attacks on Puigcerda.

LONDON, August 31.—Quarantine regulations have been put in force at Queenstown, which will cause great hindrance to commerce.

PARIS, August 30.—The sale of the London Hour in France is prohibited, in consequence of the publication of letters written by Bazaine.

NEW YORK, August 30.—Money 2. Gold 93/4. Exchange—long 4.87 1/2; short 4.90 1/2.

CANTON, PA., August 29.—Albert Brown, a negro, last night outraged a girl aged seven years, named Greenleaf, cut her throat from ear to ear, and then jumped in front of a passing train, breaking both his legs.

MEMPHIS, August 29.—A large indignation meeting was held at the exposition building last night. Speeches were made by ex-Governor Harris, of Loudon, C. Haynes Duncan, ex-President Jefferson Davis, Chancellor Morgan, B. M. Estes, General Forrest and others.

WASHINGTON, August 29.—The receipts from internal revenue to-day were $277,756.45; the amount of national bank note currency received at the treasury to-day, for redemption, foots up $351,156; the total to date aggregates $7,909,252.15.

NEW YORK, August 30.—Justice Bradley, of the Supreme Court of the United States, issued to-day an order removing the present receivers, and authorizing the trustees of the first mortgage bonds of the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad to take possession immediately; also, to sell the road for their benefit, subject to the court certificates and charges.

THE sixty days notice at the Freedman's Savings Bank expired yesterday, but the affairs remain unchanged, and the business is still suspended.

SPECIAL from the Wichita Agency says the fighting with the Kiowas, which began three weeks ago, was continued in a desultory manner until the morning of the 25th, when the Indians, in bands ranging from fifty to five hundred, made a series of dashes on Gen. Davidson's outposts, and set fire to the prairie to destroy the buildings of the agency; but all their attempts were defeated, and they fled westward, carrying off their killed and wounded.

PARIS, August 31.—Rentes 63f. 75c. LIVERPOOL, August 31.—3 P. M.—Cotton dull and unchanged; sales 12,000, including 2,000 speculation and export; sales of uplands, nothing below good ordinary, deliverable August, 8 1/2; nothing below low middling, deliverable August, 8 1/4; sales of shipments new crop, basis of middling uplands, nothing below low middling, 8 1/2. Sales of American 6,500.

KINGSTON, S. C., August 22.—The Government is permitting mischievous agitators in the colony by meetings and through small discontented press, by which the uneducated portion of the colony, which is a mixed race, is being gradually excited against Englishmen. There is more sedition taught now than in 1865, when the disturbances broke out, and it only requires opportunity, such as an accidental fire in Kingston, to develop terrible disturbances, under the instigation of a few evil-disposed men, anxious to defeat the Administration and create trouble.

WASHINGTON, August 31.—The Treasury will make another call for five-twenty bonds to-morrow. Senator Patterson has passed North, to see the President about South Carolina. A feeble effort is on foot to save the State. The Star says Attorney General Williams will leave here to-night or to-morrow morning, for Long Branch, to consult with the President with reference to the troubles now existing in the Southern States.

Probabilities.—During Tuesday over the South Atlantic and Gulf States, higher barometer, rising or stationary temperature, North-east or South-east winds, and clear or partly cloudy weather will prevail.

COLUMBUS, GA., August 31.—The Lee County, Ala., fight is very much exaggerated. No one was killed, and only one church was burnt. All quiet there. It is believed no one was much hurt.

CINCINNATI, August 31.—Gen. Custer reports that on his return to Fort Lincoln, having marched 1,000 miles, his troops were in fine condition.

SARATOGA, August 31.—The first race was a two-mile single scull race; Roach, of Grammeray, won in 14.2 1/2. The second race was a special race of three miles; O'Neil had to row over the course alone, as Davis did not start. O'Neil pulled against time, making the best three miles on record—time 21.19 1/2. The Beaver Wycks, of Albany, won the four-oared race—time 19.34. Just before reaching the turn, the Atlanta's boat fouled with another and sank; crew picked up by a steamer; great excitement over the result.

CHARLESTON, August 31.—Arrived—Steamship Columbia, New York; schooners Belgravia, W. R. Beebe, A. J. Bentley, Achilles.

LONDON, August 31.—Street rate 3/4 below bank. Erie 32.

Count the number of cards in a pack, and there are fifty-two, the number of weeks in a year; there are also four suits, the number of weeks in a month. Count the spots on a pack of cards and you find 365, as many days as there are in a year. There are twelve picture cards in a pack, representing the number of months in a year; and counting the "tricks," there are thirteen, the number of weeks in a quarter.

Mrs. Garlington, wife of Col. W. H. Garlington, of Laurens, died on the 25th ult.

They occasionally get hold of the wrong man in Kansas when they are hunting for a horse thief, but they do the fair thing with the widow. They give her a lot in the grave-yard, buy the coffin, and march in procession, singing "John Brown's body." After that they make up a purse, buy her a shot-gun and two dogs for her to make a living with.

An Irishman found a Government blanket recently, and rolling it up, put it under his arm and walked off, saying: "Yis, that's moine—U for Patrick and S for McCarthy; be me sowl, but this larnin' is a foine thing, as me fayerther would say; for if I hadn't any education I wouldn't have been afther findin' me blanket."

Father Hyacinthe is evidently a very restless person. Having renounced Catholicism and taken a wife, he has now renounced the wife and gone back again to Catholicism, minus Papal infallibility. Mrs. Hyacinthe does not seem to have been consulted in the matter.—Washington Republican.

It is said that several of the regular soldiers that have been sent out West have married squaws. Marrying the Indian women is not a very war-like proceeding, but from a moral standpoint it is perhaps better than Sheridan's plan of burning them up in small-pox hospitals.

Some men are born to misfortune. At a Fourth of July picnic, a Covington chap got his eye punched for speaking to another fellow's girl, and when he tearfully explained that he'd "knocked her these thirty-five years," he got all his hair pulled out.

ROBBERY ON THE RAIL.—The train on the South Carolina Railroad, which arrived in Charleston Sunday morning, brought a number of passengers who were in a queer predicament—their hats having been stolen from them en route by some unknown person.

Bazaine's bargain was apparently made with a steamship company at Genoa—a gentleman and lady chartered a little steamer for an excursion along the littoral, with privilege to stop at any point for any time, to be paid at so much a day.

When they tried to force Miss Gay, of Independence, Missouri, into a marriage against her will, she kicked the minister's hat off, knocked the young man down, and rode off on a mule, with one foot on each side of him.

A German physicist proposes to make poplar trees do the work of lightning rods. If, by this means, he can succeed in doing away with lightning-rod peddlers, we can't see why this should not be a poplar method.

When they told an Indiana woman that her husband had been sliced up by a reaper, she impatiently replied: "Well take the pieces to the barn; I can't leave the gooseberry sauce just now."

The United States Treasury will sell $1,000,000 of gold on the first and second Thursday, and $500,000 on the third and fourth Thursday in September. Total $3,000,000.

The Central Park at Chicago was opened on Saturday, by a concert from the Great Western Light Guard Band. 10,000 people were present, and 1,500 vehicles. It was a success.

The Greenville Republican delegation is unshackled as to Governor and member of Congress. A resolution authorizing them to support Chamberlain, was voted down.

The water in the hot springs near the Geysers, visited by the newspaper correspondents in Iceland, was found to be exactly the temperature for making hot Scotch whiskey.

When a Massachusetts temperance man gets drunk, they carry him into the presence of his wife and leave him there without any means of defending himself.

A young man, named Lindsay Russell, a citizen of Anson County, N. C., has recently disappeared, and his friends are excited in consequence.

A lad, named Wm. Punkey, of Appomattox County, Va., was killed a few days ago, by the accidental discharge of his gun, in the woods.

Tom White, colored, on his way home from church in Charleston, fell down dead about 10 o'clock, Sunday night.

"How doth the little busy bee improve each shining hour." The honey crop of the United States is estimated at $8,800,000.

An affected milk-maid says butter has taken a downward turn. The strongest in the tub is the weakest in the market.

A rifle club was organized in Georgetown, recently, with seventy-five or eighty members.

Scott Davis, a colored watchman for Moses Goldsmith & Son, was drowned in Charleston on Sunday night.

About 17,000 poor children have been taken out on free excursions in New York, this season.

The Republicans of Marion oppose Chamberlain and Moses, and call for a new deal.

Burd Grab is the owner of a Newport yacht; so they call him Canary Seed.

It has been noticed that nothing makes a woman laugh so much as a new set of teeth.

A crowd of grass-hoppers was eight hours in passing over Emporia, Kansas, recently.

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT IN AID OF THE Public Library of Kentucky.

Day Fixed and Full Drawing Assured ON MONDAY, 30TH NOVEMBER, 1874.

LAST CHANCE FOR AN EASY FORTUNE.

A postponement of the Fifth Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky has been so generally anticipated, and is so manifestly for the interest of all concerned, that it must meet the approval of all. The day is now absolutely fixed, and there will be no variation from the programme now announced. A sufficient number of Tickets had been sold to have enabled us to have had a large drawing on the 31st July, but a short postponement was considered preferable to a partial drawing. Let it be borne in mind that

THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT IS THE LAST WHICH WILL EVER BE GIVEN UNDER THIS CHARTER AND BY THE PRESENT MANAGEMENT.

That it will positively and unequivocally take place, as announced, on MONDAY, 30th NOVEMBER.

That the Music will be the best the country affords, and that

20,000 CASH GIFTS, AGGREGATING $2,500,000,

Will be distributed by lot among the ticket-holders.
