

"Let our Just Censures"

Attend the True Event."

BY JULIAN A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 27, 1874.

VOLUME X—NUMBER 162.

THE EDGEFIELD TROUBLES.—All excitement about the troubles at Reese's Store has died out, and no further disturbance is apprehended.

The New York World, commenting on Grant's partizan subserviency in restoring the deposed usurper Kellogg, says: "It is hardly a figure of speech to say that he has placed himself on all-fours at the door of the New Orleans Custom House, saddled and bridled, and with General Longstreet standing at the stirrup-leather, is waiting there for one of the most notorious rogues in America to emerge, mount upon his back, and ride thence once more to the Executive chair of the prostrated and plundered commonwealth of Louisiana."

RETRIBUTION.—England, as is well known, forced upon the Chinese the opium habit. We now learn that a demoralizing appetite for opium is said to possess numberless persons in all ranks and classes in England, and that not only in the great centres of population, but extending to the obscurest boroughs and hamlets.

The State Officials HAVING obtained their positions through the support of the people, should look to their interest.
