

"Let our Just Censures

Attend the True Event."

BY JULIAN A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6, 1874

VOLUME X—NUMBER 169.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH YOU?—If a friend is looking sick, this is usually the question we put to him. It is asked everywhere, times innumerable, every day. And what are the most frequent answers to it? Are they not such as these: "Well, I'm a little bilious," or "I feel languid and used up," or "My stomach is out of order," or "I'm under the weather," or "I don't know what's the matter with me, but I don't feel right," or the like indefinite responses. Now, what is the matter with the thousands of both sexes who cannot tell exactly what ails them, and yet are evidently out of health? The matter is simply this: they don't properly digest what they eat, their livers are torpid, their nerves are weak, their blood is impure, and their vital energies are depressed. What they need is a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—not one or two doses, but a course—to strengthen their stomachs, superinduce a healthy flow of bile, steady and invigorate their nerves, improve the condition of their blood and rouse their vital powers. These results the great vegetable restorative will assuredly bring about. It rallies the whole system, reinforces every important organ, regulates every function, and purifies every animal fluid. For chronic dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, intermittent and remittent fevers, rheumatism, general debility, premature decay, and the infirmities of age, it is the best and safest stimulant and alterative that has ever been compounded. Its ingredients are all vegetable, all pure and wholesome. In districts infested with swamp miasma, and in all new settlements, its use is essential to the preservation of health. The West believes in it, and so, in fact, do the people of all sections of the Union.

CHARLESTON TO THE FRONT.—Among our now advertisements, is that of one of the oldest establishments in this State. Established in 1822, it has maintained the first place in its line of business. With large experience and unsurpassed facilities, Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell are prepared to sustain the reputation of their establishment. Like A. T. Stewart, they believe in newspaper advertising, and take this means to announce that they have, this season, added very largely to their stock of type and machinery, and are better prepared than ever to please their customers. We wish them every success.
